

1995
BLUE AND GRAY

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
Student Life	6
Seniors	38
Juniors	78
Sophomores	90
Freshmen	102
Faculty	114
Organizations	126
Sports	162
Conclusion	200
Index	206
Advertisements	214

IN A WORLD

OF OUR OWN

Blue and Gray 1995 Washington-Lee High School 1300 North Quincy Street Arlington, Virginia 22201 Volume 68

Usat makes this world we live in so great? Could it be the diversity of the school, the sports, the clubs, the school spirit, or the Seniors. Actually it's not just one, but all of these things.

In our world we benefit because of the diversity of our students. In class we learn about and participate in different cultural activities. Our student body is composed of 36% Hispanics, 33% White, and 31% Black, Asian, and many other backgrounds. With this diversity we will be ready to deal with and be comfortable around different types of people in the real world.

Through our sports we come together as a school to show our great spirit. At football, basketball, and field hockey games, you can see Generals out yelling and cheering to support our teams. Students actively participate in varsity and intramural sports. Our football team had a year that did not fullfill their goals that they set at the beginning of the year, but they were successful in that they upset Wakefield. The Generals are known for very strong winning traditions in sports and this year was no exception.

As a result of our wide diversity, there are many different types of clubs that students have started as a result of their varied interests. We have clubs that deal with all the cultures present in our school, clubs oriented toward business, math, language, sports, volunteering, and endless other things. Through our clubs students are able to meet other students with the same interest, and friendships are created with people they may never have met otherwise. It is through clubs and sports that every student has an opportunity to be a part of our world.

It is the leaders of our world that we turn to who exemplify school spirit and just what a General should be. Those leaders include many Seniors. In sports, the seniors who lead teams exemplify good sportsmanship. Several clubs are led by seniors who are elected to these leadership positions by other students. Throughout the school you noticed seniors leading and helping; trying to make our world the best it can be for their final year.

All students come together to plan and participate in school activities. We are all able to say, existing "IN A WORLD OF OUR OWN" has been quite a pleasurable experience for these four years.

Ricardo Calderon performed a brilli solo during the Homecoming Pep Rally

eBacquero and Sudie Wentlingshow eir school spirit by wearing blue and during the Homecoming Pep Rally.

Shawn Northrup's and Nicole Alicea's true personality came out during the senior carnival as they entertained the crowd.

Angie Aly cheers for the General football players during the Homecoming Pep Rally She is also sporting one of those great Senior tee-shirts.

Michelle Yi, Aisha Lope de Haro, Jennifer Laila Labrini, Tatiana Valdenegro, Sonia Flores and Melissa Byrode stop their work at the senior carnival to pose for this picture.

Sorto and friends were all "lookers" the night of the Homecoming Dance.

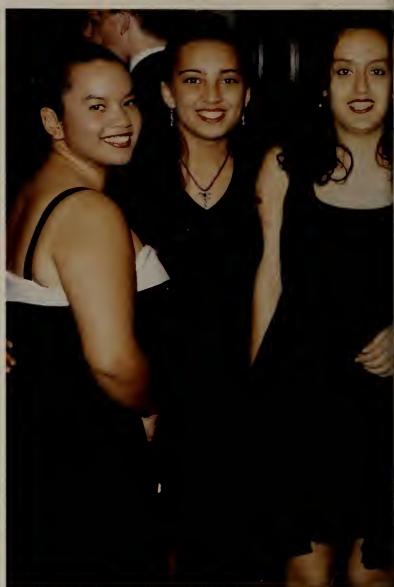

Washington-Lee students strut their stuff at the Homecoming dance.

Matt Stubbs squints as he is hit by a wet sponge during the senior carnival.

The Senior Homecoming Attendents stand on the field during halftime of the Homecom $ing\,game, waiting\,to\,hear\,who\,will\,be\,crowned$ King and Queen.

When we look back on these fun-filled years, we will have lots of very fond memories of our times here at W-L. From begining to end, most students agreed that the environment here at W-L was very unique and, the experiences we shared have been with people we plan to know for a lifetime. These friends have been with us through thick and thin over the past four years.

One day we will think back on the events at W-L that made life worthwhile, as we struggled to keep our GPA up so that we would wind up at the top of our class. Spirit Week was always filled with thrilling activities that got you in the mood for the big homecoming game and dance. Everyone dressed up each day of the week and dashed about to check out what other students had on. Decorating your class' hall was another event that most students were eager to participate in. Preparation of floats was another way to meet people and share creative ideas. Students always hoped that their ideas would lead their class to winning both hall and float decorating contests.

Besides the thrilling times, students also admitted that they took their academic and extracurricular experiences quite seriously here at W-L. Most students tried to remain focused on their studies as they enjoyed the good times, since they were serious about securing a place for themselves at the colleges of their choice. On most mornings, as well as evenings, it was not unsual to see several students studying in the Commons area.

We were in "A WORLD OF OUR OWN" which provided us with activities and learning experiences that will be remembered always. We have people many to thank--our teachers, Administrators, friends and relatives.

Christian Velasquez and Richard Sullivan work the football throwing contest at the Senior Carnival.

Neat Sothy stands ready to assist anyone who might want to try their luck at one of the games during the Senior Carnival.

Tim Olson plays the great George Washington on the Freshmen float, and the other freshmen support him as they went onto win second place in the float competition.

In our world you will not find a General who has nothing to do. There are clubs, sports, school activities and other things to do outside of school to keep every student busy. During the school day the halls are busy with students who are rushing to class while trying to keep up with friends. Sometimes students wonder if they will ever get a chance to have fun with all the school work they get.

Fortunately the constant activity that dominates the school day does not end on Friday night. There are sports games to attend, meetings to go to, class activities to participate in, and student-sponsored events that allow us to release the stress from the previous week. Students at W-L are exposed to people of so many different backgrounds, so there's never a dull moment at our school. Generals can find variations of things to do that are provided by our diverse student body.

Some of the things that students enjoy doing are sleeping in past 6:30 AM, hanging around the house in pajamas, relaxing, working, participating in sports and whatever else they can come up with during the weekend. No matter what the Generals are involved in, they do it with great school spirit. Homecoming week is a favorite among the students. They get five days to dress in weird, neat, classy, and spirited ways to prepare for the Homecoming game and dance. Hall decorating, float building and the Pep Rally are times when the classes come together to show off their spirit as a whole. The Holiday Bazaar is a time when the senior class gets to show off their school spirit. At the end of all these events the students come out saying what a great world we live in--IN A WORLD OF OUR OWN!

Summer Fun, In a World of Our Own...

The summer was a great time for Washington-Lee students to kickback, relax, and enjoy all the exciting activities vacation had to offer. Whether you were at home, vegging in front of the T.V., relaxing by the pool, or traveling to new places, it's certain you were enjoying the summer "in a world of your own". Junior Wendy Putnam, who spent some time with her family in Colorado, described her vacation perfectly when she said, "It was absolutely the best vacation I've ever Some unfortunate students ended up working over their summer vacation. Senior Patrick Hildt was one of those unfortunate ones. He spent the summer on a fishing boat in Cape Cod, Massachusetts. "It was pretty enjoyable, but a lot of hard work," was how Patrick described his experience. Other students such as freshman Erin Moran found thier summer more on the simpler side, "Summer was cool, but actually it was really hot...."

The memories made during the summer are never forgotten. One often remembers his fondest memories in the midst of math class. While you should be paying attention, it's easy to drift off and daydream about what one was doing at 11:30a.m. in July. Chances are, it wasn't school work.

Don't worry though, the summer of '95 will be here soon enough. You may find you actually miss school! When Washington-Lee students were asked whether they were eager to return to school by the end of the summer, the replies were mostly the same. Senior Liz Eldridge stated confidently, "Even though I'm not thrilled about coming back to school, I am looking forward to my senior year!"

Aimee Barber

Junior, Jhonny Torrico spent a beautiful summer day at the National Zoo looking at the animals.

Kathy Rooney, Ruza Afram, and a friend relax at Rehobeth Beach, Delaware in late July

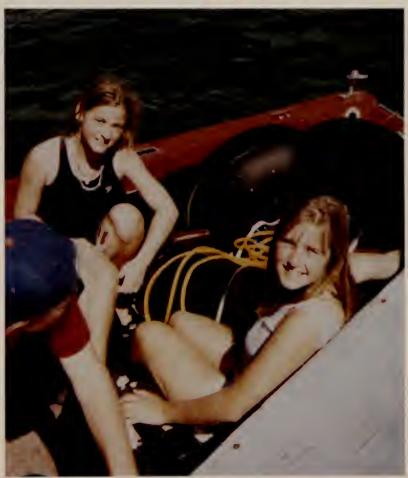

"The best thing about summer is all the free time you have to spend traveling, relaxing or just hanging out with friends."

-Claudia Rente

Senior Sarah Harrick, tand prografter coxing the winning senior men be at the 112th Royal Carachan Henley Regatta

Senior, Lillie Jernigan, and her sister. Elizabeth, spend a fun-filled alternoon at Disneyland in California

Juniors, Christine Stewart and Laura Hartman, are motorboating on Lake Carlos during thier camp session in Mount Carmel, Minnesota

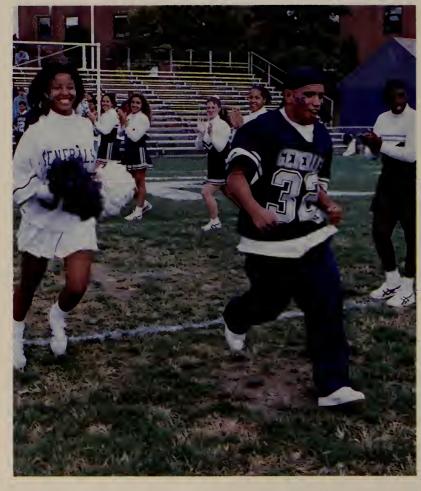

Elizabeth Jernigan and Jill Dewitt enjoy showing their smiles and spirit for Pajama Day.

"I think Spirit Week is the perfect event to get everyone ready for the game and the dance."

-Laura Hartman

Seniors Sarah Harrick, Sudie Wentling, and Ria Riesner help out for the hall decorations.

Varsity Cheerleader, Ebony Freeman and Varsity Football player, Willy Barquero join in getting the crowd pumped for the Pep Rally.

Spirit Week

Just before we get all geared up for our traditonal Homecoming Game and Dance, there's our funfilled Spirit Week. This event, we all know, is the week before Homecoming. It is a time when students can get loose and show their school spirit. The momentum and unity increases through the week and sets the scene for the upcoming festivities.

"Beat Mt. Vernon! Go Generals, Go! The Washington-Lee Generals were shouting the entire week before Homecoming and students were full of pep and enthusiasm. This year's Spirit Week consisted of fun and crazy activities starting with Monday (College Sweatshirt Day), thru Friday, (Blue and Gray Day). The laughter was rolling when students dressed up for Clash Day, which was Tuesday. On Wednesday, all the Generals went back in time while participating in Blast From the Past. The students also participated in exciting contests. The Seniors definitely had the most fun while getting ready for the annual judging of the hall decorating contest.

Shynette Screen

Bisi Onisile and Taisha Smith seem to be very attentive during the Pep Raily

Kathleen Deuell and Nicole Nelson strut their Drum Major steps for everyone at the Pep Rally

Homecoming-Game

The stands were packed with students and staff of past and present, and the adrenalin of the players was running high. The crowd was vocal at the start of the hoping to be a factor in the W-L victory. As half-time crept up on us there was no jubilation in the W-L Generals. There was hope that there could be a comeback, but as many of W-L's opponents have learned through the years "It ain't over 'til it's really over."

During half-time, the event that everyone was definitely waiting for was the appearance of the Homecoming attendants and the crowning of the King and Queen. Senior attendants were Sudie Wentling, Sam Zanders, Maureen Isha, Sara Harrick and Jason Hutchinson. Junior attendants were Eric Calhoun. Sean Evans. Valerie Bernardo, Emma Brown and Melissa Laranjeira. Sophmore attendants were Luis Camacho, Joseph Eddy, Jerrry Poplin, Tammy Barber and Kate Seikley. Last, but not least, were our Freshmen attendants, who were Benito Carter, Harold Neely, Erika Camacho, and Lisa Hollinden. This years Homecoming King and Queen were Willy Barquero and Molly Felker.

Dr. and Mrs. William Sharbaugh were then introduced, they crowned them as King and Queen.

After these events were concluded we went into the second half of the game when W-L's Sam Zanders scored both of the Generals touchdowns Mt. Vernon increased their lead by another touch down and defeated a tough General squad by the score of 27-13.

Despite this bitter Homecoming loss, students, parents, and alumni proudly cheered the team on until the last second.

-Shynette Screen

The Varsity football team got ready to make that General move!

This year's attendants strike a pose for the camera.

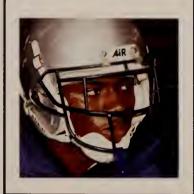

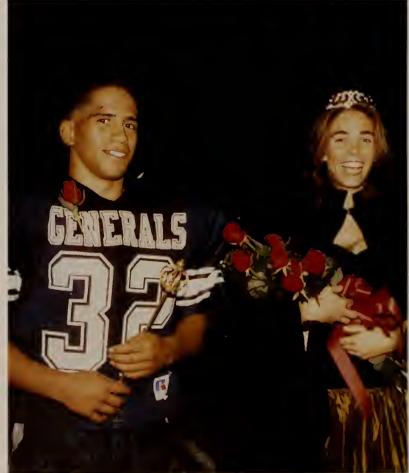

"As a player I take pride in what I'm doing. Everytime I go out on the field I strive to win."

-Sam Zanders

A Freshman erroy his markent at a till float

Varsity footbal players, Tim Churchill and Jason Stanard, look on intensively from the sidelines.

Willie Barquero and Molly Felker pose for a picture after being crowned King and Queen

Senior Chantee Charles never seems to relax when a song is on.......Shake Your Thang Girl!

"We love to dance and we would n't miss an event like this."

-Chelsea and Nicole

This fine young couple, Eduardo Sevilla and Maria Guzman, demonstrate what a great time students have at the Homecoming dance.

HOMECOMING DANCE

At the 1994-1995 Homecoming Dance---there was trully romance in the air, and enthusiasm surrounded everyone on this never-to-be-forgotten evening.

The spirit throughout the week had been building up. The MTV BOX had everyone dancing the night away. Partner or no partner, everyone was getting down. The MTV BOX was an excellent idea that definitely kept everyone in an great mood after the loss to Mt.

Vernon.

Half way through the dance, King and Queen, Molly Felker and Willy Barquera, led their senior court to a very touching, traditional Homecoming dance: while all the students slowly mixed in. The dance was sponsored by the senior class and was held on October 22, 1994. A few members of the Senior class spent treacherous hours decorating the gym, and their work paid off because it was "very attractive".

The Homecoming Dance turned out to be a wonderful success. When the dance came to a conclusion, the Generals became sad and disappointed that the fun was ending. The 1994-1995 Homecoming Dance was a "memorable night and a dazzling evening that the Generals will always remember."

Stynette screen

P. T. Birch and Adam Solander show off their dates at Homecoming. What a picture

Toric Day, Noah Bezayhou and his date. Tawana Rose, make sure they keep their beat on the dance floor

Pals

High school is the time to remember. Years from now, when we all look back, everyone will have certain people that have made a difference in their lives. Whether you have had the same friend for ten years or two years, you will remember that person forever.

Take a moment to think about where we would be without friends...parties would be pointless, the telephone would be useless and you would not have anyone to meet at McDonald's on Friday night. Even though we all have our differences, there is never a better person to lean on than a friend. Whether you just arrived at W-L, or you are preparing to leave, we hope that you took advantage of your years here and appreciated the friendships you made.

Life would be way too dismal without the aid of a friend or two. Friends have a way of brightening your day by chatting with you about your personal concerns or school work. I'd be willing to bet you would not make it through these four years without a lunch buddy or a P.E. playmate. As Melissa Loerch admited, "I didn't enjoy physical education, but my pals made every second a little more bearable."

John Lennon and Paul McCartney stated it best when they said, "I get by with a little help from my friends..." As Gabrielle Riesner stated, "I've had the same best friend for four years, and through the good times and the bad times, we have stuck together. I hope our friendship lasts forever." Murad Khan informed us that friends are very important to him and, "friendships are the foundation for happiness."

-Jessica Eberhart

Their close friendship is contemplated as Sarah Riggs and Kathleen Deuell smile cheerfully

Jason Roy cheers at the pep rally with several of his sophomore companions.

"Friends are the key to an exciting life. Without them, you sit at home on weekends and end up lonely because you do not have anyone to talk to."

-Matt Garcia

Great friends La'Shaun Marshall and Shynette Screen, stop for a moment to position a picture

Jennifer Flores and friends are ecstatic about the ongoing Homecoming Dance

Murad Khan and his fellow amigo. John Gilreath, have been buds for the past four years

This freshman enjoys browsing with her mother at a local mall during her free time.

"I get so fed up with school that by Friday I am ready to relax and hang out with all of my friends."

-Neat Sothy

The football game is so stimulating that Tim Trahant and Andrea Mink rave about how well their team is playing.

Whether shopping or just hanging out, Ballston Commons is a favorite weekend spot for Tony Stanley.

Weekends

The alarm rings. You groan and roll out of bed, only to realize that it's MONDAY! The week moves along slowly but surely. By Wednesday you're glad the week is half over. The 2:10 bell rings Friday afternoon, and students rush to the Commons to arrange for final weekend preparations.

Football games and basketball games are popular during the fall and winter on Friday nights. Fans assemble at McDonalds after the games to agree on a hang-out for the remainder of the night. Movies, bowling, and ice-skating are options to consider when the "usual" becomes boring. Weekends are also a chance for couples to spend quality times alone. For those of you who lead a more laid back life style, Blockbuster provides entertainment which is both relaxing and inexpensive.

By Sunday, though, the excitment is over because Monday is approaching. It is once again time to complete homework and prepare for the long week ahead.

Christine Stewartexplained her favorite weekend past times: "Hove to go to football games and hang out afterwards with my buddies." "The best weekends are the ones when there are phat parties and all of your friends are there. Joe Eddy pointed out.

Jeff Geiger cherishes fall and winter weekends because, "In the spring, crew takes up most of my free time on weekends."

Basically, weekends are looked forward to by 99% of W-L student body. But as Dhruv Sharma says, "I get extremely bored on weekends and I look forward to school days. Although this may seem strange to the 'party' people, the academically- oriented students would prefer to be in school than anywhere else.

McDonald's is a favorite weekend hang out for fellow fry-munchers. Alberto Angulo and Eugenia DeLeon.

Christine Stewart, Jessica Eberhart Gabrielle Riesner and Claudia Rente spend many a Friday nights cruisin, the town

Thanks For Our Diversity

The Thanksgiving Day Assembly program was once again one of the most popular annual events. Mrs. Barbara Morris and Mrs. Mary Hannah Klontz, the Student Council Association and the music department, coordinated an event that touched the hearts of many during this holiday season.

At the beginning of the program the SCA President, Senior Sarah Harrick, announced that students and staff donated over 1,000 cans of food to contribute to the Salvation Army Food Drive. In addition, the Senior class donated a large sum of money for the needy.

The Seniors raised the spirit of the crowd when they read their list of 95 things to be thankful for. Some of the items they appreciated most were imaginary friends, green M&M's, SAT's and prep courses, fashionable clothing, surprise parties, grandmothers, Mrs. Southard's jokes, holiday breaks, all school assemblies, snow days, etc., etc., and, of course, GRADUATION!

Other guest speakers included Sophomore Jose Contreras; a graduate, Ginger Harvey; and Mrs. Audrey Spicer, Social Studies teacher at W-L. Among other things, Jose Contreres stated that he was particularly grateful that he always had his parents to guide him. Ginger Harvey commented that her transition from high school to college was not that smooth, but she now works as a legal secretary for one of the senior partners at one of the leading firms in this area. Mrs. Spicer's speech pointed out how wonderful life can be, through our cultural diversity. She indicated that the blending of our diversity is a positive influence.

Splendid music filled the air throughout the program. The Arlington All- County High School Orchestra, under the direction of Ms. Theresa Jenkins, played "First Movement of Cappriccio Espagnol" by Rimsky Korsakoff and a Medley from "Aladdin," arranged by John Moss. The Madrigals sang, "Now I Walk in Beauty"; the Chorus offered, "The Water is Wide" and the Choir sang, "Joyful, Joyful." These three groups were directed by Mrs. Mary- Hannah Klontz.

This event is particulary meaningful to all W-L students. During this program we all had an opportunity to reflect and think of the many things that we are thankful for.

Matt Stubbs, Nicole Nelson and Molly Felker read their "95 Things To Be Happy About"

Violinists from the string orchestra entertain the school with an Aladdin Medley

"The Thanksgiving Assembly was very inspirational. We should have more all-school assemblies at W&L."

- Sierra & Renee

Jose Contreras charmed the aid en whis easy going and happy person hay in he delivered his speech at the assembly

The Madrigal singers amazed us once again at the Thanksgiving Assembly with their wonderful performance.

Ms. Spicer delivers her Thanksgiving Address, making us all think twice about the issue of race

Marja Van Orman dressed like she was in a world of her own for spirit week.

"Being in a world of my own lets me forget all the things I have to do for school. In my world, I can do whatever I want."

-Josh Krepon

Leland Chapin relaxes and prepares to enter the book world.

In a world of his own, we all know Matt Fall can be found quite frequently.

"Which World Are YOU In?"

It was time to get back into the grind of things--or was it? Once summer had ended and students were back in school, they were supposed to settle down and get to work! There were still a few who tried to party every night and survive on three hours of sleep.

For students at Washington-Lee, it is very tiresome to sit through the same seven classes every day over and over again. "It sort of becomes monotonous," remarked sophomore Lu Duong. With all the homework that is added to those long days, it is sometimes hard to stay awake during class.

Another reason that these students don't feel up to paying attention is because they have been out all night at a party and they don't get enough sleep, so they decide to sleep during school. Even if you're not one of the party-goers, you might participate in sports then do homework when you get home until midnight.

It is often exasperating to the teachers to see their students fall asleep during class, so teachers must come up with new and exciting ways to captivate their students' attention. It is more difficult for a student to stay awake or pay attention if their teacher isn't exciting.

When you walk down the halls of Washington-Lee and look into the classrooms don't be surprised to see people sleeping, talking, doing homework, or passing notes! Whatever your reason for doing the wrong thing, you should remember it is very upsetting to teachers. Teachers should try to remember not to take our goofing off personally--we don't mean any harm

Blair Russell

Chris Tyre is off in a dream world during one of his classes.

Students show off their goffmess and messy hands that are required when hand painting

El Salvadorian Students Visit Our World

This year Washington-Lee students had the privilege of hosting El Salvadorian students who were visiting from our sister school, Escuela Americana. Twenty students and their chaperons came for the week of October 17 thru October 24.

The students arrived at Dulles Airport late Monday night and then took a bus to Washington-Lee to meet their host families. The students were very tired when they arrived and the next morning they had to be at school by 7:00 a.m. for a "Welcome Breakfast" sponsored by the International Club (under the direction of Mrs. Ailenda Mangan).

Tuesday the students were able to go to classes with their host students, and they also visited the HILT and Spanish classes. Tuesday night many of the El Salvadorian students went to College Night. This experience was extremely interesting since many of the students from Escuela Americana come to the United States for college.

Wednesday the students and their hosts took a tour of Washington D.C. They visited the White House, Capital Hill, and the Arlington National Cemetery.

Thursday was a half day at Washington-Lee and the Escuela Americana students were given a tour of the library and were allowed to visit the classes of their choice. Later that evening, the students went with their hosts to their hall decorating assignments and participated in the festivities. It was obvious that this proved to be a fun-filled experience for all who

Friday morning the students went to class with student leaders. For fifth and sixth period, the Latin American Student Association hosted a luncheon and all students, hosts, leaders, and HILT students were invited. They then went to the Pep Rally and participated in the fun. That night they attended the Homecoming Game and many of them saw a football game for the first time.

Saturday was a free day and many of the students went to tour more of D.C. or decided to shop 'til they dropped. Saturday evening they attended the Homecoming Dance and were exposed to the way American kids dance and the different music they listen to.

Sunday was another free day for the students. Some decided to go to church with their hosts, while others decided to go with their group. Many of them met and went to a neighboring Catholic Monday was the day they departed, and they had to report to W-Lby 6:30 a.m. They loaded the bus after a great many good-byes and prepared to return to a "World of their Own."

Escuela Americana Students, with their hosts and sponsors, spent a day touring Washington D.C.

The Elsavadorian students are enjoying the Homecoming Dance.

"Students at Washington-Lee don't realize how lucky they are to live in the United States and have their freedom."

-Juana Jule

Marcella Cuiellar and Tomas Bolanos participate in a skit at the luncheon

Escuela Americana students are being questioned at a press conference

The dress code brings a look of disapproval upon this freshman's face.

"I do not really mind the dress code because I don't usually wear hats. I just feelbadforpeople who do like to wear hats."

-Ryan Agnew

Rick Cheetham is glad to be outdoors where he can sport his favorite hat without worrying about it getting taken away.

Chris Walkersmiles as he arrives to school, warm and comfortable in his coat. In less than five minutes, though, classes will begin and the jacket will have to go in a locker.

What to wear?

For years, students at W-L woke up and threw on "whatever was comfortable." This year, however, times have changed. No hats were allowed. (Now guys have to worry about their hair too!) No coats were permitted around school. Tummies are requested to be hidden by shirts. Sunglasses, walkmen, etc. were confiscated.

One point emphasized around the middle of October was the "jogging suit dilemma." Since the weather was getting colder, Dr. Sharbaugh made it clear that jogging suits were, in fact, allowed... "as long as they matched."

For most of us here at W-L, the dress code was not too big of a deal The main problem was that a sense of freedom that was once ours no longer was. Some felt that the entire rule was a joke and really served. no purpose. As senior Daniel Walker pointed out, "I don't see how changing the way people dress is going to affect the way students learn." This observation was common among W-L'ers, but as they say, "with all bad comes some good." The good, you ask? Well, nobody is forced to look at anyone who is inappropriately dressed as they walk down the halls of our school.

Freshman Eliot Schaefer said, "I was excited about coming to

W-L and wearing a hat every day but now I actually have to worry about what my hair looks like

When asked to comment on the new 1994-95 school dress code, sophomore Eric Klintberg said that he "liked it better when he was allowed to wear a jacket inside when the weather was cold."

Some of the students here at W-L do not like being told what to do or what to wear. Unfortunately, life does not always at work out the way we want it to. The dress code of Washington-Lee is simply a new set of rules that we are all going to have to get used to--starting now...!

Jessica Frenham

Manny Rivas expression shows that he is ecstatic to own an off-campus lunch pass, because Taco Bell cannot tell him what not to weir.

2.10! School is out for the day and Nich Sothy can put her hat on and bust outal here

Siblings: You can't live with them and you can't live without them out them!!

You have lived with them your whole life. They know almost everything about you! Who could they be? They are your brother or sister. You can go off to your little world in school and forget they exist--right? Well for some students, their brothers or sisters go to school with them. There are good and bad sides to having them at the same school.

For the younger sibling it could mean a ride home or acceptance with the older students. But for the younger sibling, it can have it's bad side. They are always known as "Tom's little brother or sister". You almost lose your identity as a person and you are often thought of as living in your older sibling's shadow. "When I was a freshman I was known as Lara's little sister," said senior Molly Felker, "but this year the tables are turned and my younger sister, Erin Felker, is known as 'Molly's little sister'."

For the older sibling, it means that your younger brother or sister always wants to tag along with you and your friends. You have to drive them everywhere they want to go and it usually isn't a place you want to go to. They also tell your parents everything wrong that you do. A good side to having them there is that you can patronize them and show them where they need to go, especially if they are freshmen.

No matter what the age of siblings at Washington-Lee, they are always civil enough to say "hi" to each other in the hall. Beneath it all, students are kind of glad their siblings are here with them in their world here at Washington-Lee.

Blair Russell

Aimee Barber and Wendy Putnam have just become sisters this year.

Olderin and Wilber Diaz like to spend time together during the day.

"The hardest thing about having a youger sister is keeping all the older guys away from her."

-Chrissy Hall

Troy and Lina Moore take time out of their lunch time to have their picture taken

Melissa Byroade, Joby Byroade, and Erin Howard pose for a picture outside of school.

David and Blair Russell enjoy spending a day in the mountains.

"The Butler Did It!"

The 1994 fall play was "The Butler Did It," by Tim Kelly. It was a delightful comedy that spoofs English mystery plays. Miss Maple, played by Nicole Alicea, is a high society hostess noted for her "imaginative" weekend parties. She invites a group of detective writers to eerie Ravenswood Manor, in which the hostesss has arranged all sorts of unusual incidents. Incidents included everything from the mystery voice on the radio, to the menacing face in the window. Secrets abound in the old creepy mansion.

The mystery writers were Shawn Northrop, who played Father White, Robert Zalkind as Chandler Marlowe, Tim Olson as Louie Fan. Matt Kikel as Rick, and his wife Laura, played by Kerry

Salazar, and finally, Jody Olson as Peter Flimsy. What an assortment of zany sleuths! An inscrutable Oriental, a seedy gumshoe, a scholarly clergyman, a sophisticated New York couple, and an intellectual type who idolizes Sherlock Holmes.

Other crazy characters included, Amy Barrett, as spooky Rita the social secretary, who carried a large hatbox everywhere she went; an ex-convict and young housemaid, and Haversham played by Neat Sothy, (who gave the audience many laughs). Laura Hartman, as adventuress Charity Haze, also added to the play immensely. Overall, the play was an absolute success! With a full auditorium every night, it was definitely a crowd pleaser. This was another fantastic job by Washington-Lee's cast of young actors. It's no wonder W-L seems to be the home of a few famous alumni such as Sandra Bullock of the hit summer movie, "Speed." Warren Beatty and his sister, Shirley Mclaine also attended Washington-Lee. Mrs. Filpi commented on how pleased she was with the performance of the cast. "They did a fabulous job. I was really pleased with them all."

It seemed that the cast was just as pleased. Amy Barrett expressed it best when she said, "It was such a great feeling making the audience laugh."

Once again the drama department did a fantastic job of entertaining our community, faculty, and students.

-Aimee Barber

Senior Shawn Northrop gets made-up backstage by one of the many talented make-up artists.

The cast huddles together to help solve the mystery of the spooky mansion.

" It was really great to work with such great cast, we were really close."

-Kerrie Salazar

Tim Olson, Laura Hartman, and Robert Zalkind give a look of sheer terror at what they see

Jody Olson and Nicole Alicea discuss Neat Sothy and Amy Barrett give a how much excitement the weekend has great performance on stage

This student takes time from his lunch period to catch up on his homework.

"I can't wait until I'm a senior, when I can get a lunch pass and go out for some real food!"

-Cassie Turner

Mike Durshin, a Junior; was one of the lucky few who escaped for an off-campus, McDonald's lunch.

Another delicious, well-rounded, school lunch is shown here by sophomore, Manuela Vallejos.

A View From The Lunch Table...

This year, the concept of an offcampus lunch was even more unattainable for a number of underclassmen. This meant everyone (except the all-mighty Washington-Lee seniors who possessed a special lunch pass) was unable to leave school grounds for lunch.

When sophomore, Chris Tyre, was asked what he disliked about lunch—he exclaimed, " I usually don't enjoy eating the school's food—its missing one of the five food groups... TASTE!"

For seniors, forty minutes in a classroom may seem like an eternity, but off-campus lunch breaks seem to fly by too quickly. Seniors enjoyed their privilege to the fullest, going to all the great fast food establishments Arlington has to offer. Most frequented are the ever popular McDonalds', Wendy's, and Taco Bell. Senior Sarah Riggs estatically stated why she enjoys going off-campus for lunch. "It's great to be able to get off-campus for lunch; you get great food, and you get away from the dreaded underclassmen!"

Some underclassmen however, were able to sneak off school grounds and spend lunchtime with the cool seniors. First time lunch offender, freshman, Charlie Brown, (whose name has been changed to protect his identity) said, "I really don't think it's fair that we (the underclassmen) should be forced to eat school food." So to all the underclassmen who are anxious to attain that off-campus

So to all the underclassmen who are anxious to attain that off-campus lunch pass, hang in there! Until then, enjoy your delicious, nutricious, school lunch.

-Aimee Barber

A group of sophomores enjoy their lunch, and each other's company.

Freshman, Kelly Snyder, and lunch buddy. Courtney Wyckoff, would rather bring a lunch than buy one

Senior Matt Stubbs spends his afternoon with Ms. Bratt volunteering at the Holiday

"It was a great experience to work at the Holiday Bazaar!"

-Jennifer Lane

These sophomores are pleased with the turn- Ria Riesner and Neat Sothy show you're out at the Bazaar.

never too old to sit on Santa's lap.

A Very Merry Holiday Bazaar

The holiday season quickly fell upon Washington-Lee this December, which meant it was time for the annual holiday bazaar.

There was an enourmous turn-out despite the cold, rainy December weather. If you missed it, you missed out. There was a wide variety of clubs and organizations represented at the bazaar this year; including the International Club, French Club, Spanish Club, SADD, Yearbook, Muslim Youth Club, Key Club, and many, many others. Each class of Washington-Lee was well represented, with an interesting variety of foods or crafts to sell. There were also many interesting tables displaying a variety of handmade crafts and exquisite trinkets.

The Santa Clauses this year included Richard Sullivan, Matt Kikel, Patrick Hildt and Willy Barquero. They each added to the jolly spirit of the day. When asked if he enjoyed being Santa for a day Chris Walters commented, "Its a lot of fun dressing up as a big fat old man with a beard. Ho, Ho, Ho!"

Ria Riesner and Neat Sothy both expressed great pleasure in being Santa's little helpers. As Ria said, "It was a great feeling, knowing that you helped make a young children's Christmas a little brighter." Neat thought the best part was taking pictures of happy kids. "It's great to see the smiles on their faces when they get to sit with Santa," Neat said.

The Madrigals highlighted the bazaar by singing a few Christmas favorites such as, "Deck the Hall" and "Winter Wonderland." They once again did a great job of entertaining!

The Seniors did a great job of sponsoring the Holiday Bazaar. It was a tremendous success.

Aimee Barber

The Madrigals get into the holiday spirit by singing Christmas music at the Holiday Bazaar.

Visitors attend the Bazaar look for that special gift to give

Valentine's Day... In a World of Our Own

Valentine's Day was a special day for Washington-Lee students to show their girlfriends, boy-friends, pals, and even teachers just how much they care. Students chose to express their feelings for that special someone by sending a "singing valentine," (sponsored by the talented Madrigals) a kiss-o-gram, (sponsored by the senior class) or a classy red rose, (offered by the junior, and last but not least, a "flashy" photo valentine, offered by the sophomore class).

Madrigal Chris O'Rear took a break from delivering the special singing valentines to express just how he felt about delivering them to the lucky recipients. He commented, "I love to see the person's face light up when we (the Madrigals) start to sing to them. It's worth the stress of getting the valentines delivered."

For the seniors, the sale of the "kiss-o-grams" was a profitable experience. The juniors also benefitted a great deal from the sale of roses. Junior class treasurer, Christine Stewart, was pleased with the large number of roses sold. "The roses really helped our class out financially; maybe we will have a senior prom yet!"

If you were one of the lucky ones to receive such a sweet token of affection, it surely made your Valentine's Day a little brighter. Whether you had a valentine or not, it was easy to sense all the romance in the air. There were many lucky students walking around with flowers, candy, and heart-shaped goodies of all kinds. Senior Matt Wells really went all out for his girlfriend Sarah Riggs, who is also a senior. He not only bought a traditional bouquet of a dozen red roses, but he also treated her to an expensive dinner for two. "Well, when you really care enough money shouldn't be an issue."

No matter who you spent your Valentine's Day with, it was definitely one to remember!

-Aimee Barber

The Madrigals give a terrific performance for Mr. Wyatt's sixth period class.

Mr. Schlstrate's first period class puts on the annual Valentine's Day mock wedding. The happy couple included Tim Churchill and Chelsey Culley as bride and groom.

"Valentine's Day is the perfect time to express your feelings for that special someone."

-Robyn Sampson

Mindy Trigger and Jessica Eberhart are smiling because it is Valentine's Day Someone is awfully fond of both of them!

Christine Stewart and Alberto Angulo proved that they don't need a holiday to show they care.

David Blanco and Aimee Barber managed to get a quick Valentine's Day, hug during their busy day

Kenny Petty and Aisha Lope de Haro-Salleh pose to show off their school spirit by dressing up for Pajama Day. Great hair Aisha!

Jody Olson and Jonathan Price share their last chance to come to school in their pajamas with a great big teddy bear.

When June 20, 1995 arrives Seniors will have fewer worries. All the stressful things they worried about in high school will no longer exist. Homework, projects, college applications, papers, tests, task, and various other stressful events will be a thing of the past. Seniors get to look forward to a new world of college and work; a world where excitement awaits them.

Seniors had a variety of ways to alleviate their pressures. Parties, football and basketball games, socializing with friends or sleeping and senior slump were some of the more popular ways Seniors relaxed as they cruised toward graduation.

The Seniors left their world with fond memories dating back to their freshman year. Freshman year, they walked into a school that had a whole new set of confusing rules and what seemed like thousands of unfamiliar faces. Back then they looked up at the upperclassmen and thought how far away it would be until they were the big ones in the this world. Sophmore year went cruising by. Their parents still drove them around and they didn't go to many parties. It would be one more year before they would be upperclassmen. Junior year they had good seats at the pep rallies. PSATs and SATs were a new experience. Being able to drive and attend parties made the junior year quite exciting.

The Seniors reached their final year, but they had a difficult time ahead of them. This was their last chance to raise their GPA, SAT I and SAT II scores and prepare college applications. Once second semester rolled around, and all this was behind them though, the seniors seemed to be much happier. "I'm graduating in June" were words that echoed throughout the halls. Several Seniors realized that their future rested in the hands of a college admissions officer, who would determine if they were worthy of entrance to the college of their choice. Graduation and Beach Week plans were finalized. Seniors then awaited the handshake and farewell from Dr. Sharbaugh, as they receive their diploma.

The seniors will never forget the good times they had at Washington-Lee. They learned from the mistakes they made. They feel that they acquired knowledge from teachers they will never forget. The year-book staff wishes everyone luck as they venture out to new realms that will hold many surprises for them. Just think, Seniors, soon all of this will be just a memory.

GOOD LUCK TO THE CLASS OF '95.

IMAGINE

Spirit Week 1994 started and everyone was dressed up in their sweatshirts for College Day. Tuesday was the hilarious Clash Day. The craziness ranged from weird dressing to Aisha Salleh coming to school with curled pigtails that extended from her head. Thursday took us all back into the 50's, 60's, 70's, and even the eighties with Blast from the Past Day. Finally, the day everyone had been waiting for....Blue and Gray Day. On this particular day, the Seniors were really classy. They were all happy to be sporting their spanking new "The World Is Ours" Tshirts. Tattoos which were painted on many faces of Seniors contributed to the high level of spirit on that day.

In the hall decorating contest, the Seniors placed 2nd with their theme of "Major Reality." In the float contest with their theme of "Major Knockout," they placed first. Despite the Seniors, mediocre performance in the hall decorating contests, their cheerful attitudes helped when it was time for the game Friday night. Even though the Generals had a fair performance during Friday night's Homecoming game, the crowd still had that General Spirit that lasted until the last play was made. The many faces of parents, students, and alumni kept that spirit alive!

Everyone responded with applause and cheers when they announced who the Homecoming King and Queen were-- Willy Barquero and Molly Felker. The Attendants were: Jason Hutchinson, Maureen Isha, Sam Zanders, Sarah Harrick, Jimmy Baker and Sudie Wentling. Our last homecoming week at W-L proved to be a memorable one.

Seniors Jennifer Flores and friends, Lorena and Lily, help paint the float.

Nicole Nelson stunned us all with this fabulous 60's outfit.

199 i-1995 Homecoming Queen, Molly Felker and attendants Maureen Isha, Sudie Wentling, and Sarah Harrick.

Marissa Lane and Christine Fisher rolled out of bed and came to school on Pajama. Day

Seniors show off the homecoming float, Major Knockout^t

Kenuana Engram, Chantee Charles, Crystal Johnson, and La'Shaun Marshall proved they can look adorable, even when they clash

Amin Abadi Hilsia Adames Color Guard 9,10,11,12; Crew 11,12 "Whatever you do, do it well." Joseph Adanza

Netsanet Afework Christopher Alcalde

Evan Ali

Angela Aly

Rania Awwad

Debate 11,12;

10,11,12;

Glennda Michelle Atchley

Cheerleading 9,10,11,12-Co-Captain 12; Choir 10,11; S.A.D.D. 11,12; Crew 9,10; Newspaper

National Honor Society 11,12; Environmental Club 9,10,11,12; Penman 12-Editor-in-chief;

Nizam Ali
Key Club 12; Orchestra 12; Chess Club-President
12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12
Nicole M. Alicea
Cheerleading 9,10-Var 11,12; S.C.A 10,11,12; Class
Senator 10,11,12; Drama Club 9,10,11,12;
Advanced Choir 11; Newspaper 9,10,11,12-Editorin-Chief 12; S.A.D.D. 11,12
Fatin A. Al-Mobarak
International Club 11,12-Secretary; Key Club 12;
JV Cheerleading 12

Samrawit Ayele Rhianna M. Ayers Karina Ayllon "Grumpy" DECA 10,11,12 "Don't worry about what others think of you;

they're too busy worrying about what others think of them."

James Douglas Baker
"Don't worry about people knowing you, just make youself worth knowing."
Willy "Taz" Barquero
Football 9,10,11,12, Wrestling 9,10,11,12,
Gymnastics 9,10,11,12; Honor Roll 9,10,12
Kimberly Kay Bartell
Color Guard 9,10-Captain,11,12, Concert Band 9,10,11,12; Basketball 9,10,11, Crew 11,12

Kimberly Bates Marco Beltra Jennie Benites

Noah Bezuayehu
African Awareness Society 9,10; Basketball
9,10,11,12
Rebecca Aline Bladen
J.V. Soccer 9,10; Varsity Rıfle 11,12; Philosphy
Club 11,12; Science Research Club 11,12President; Welcome to W-L Club 11,12
"A friend indeed, but what I need is someone who'll stay a while."
Linh Bui

Natalie Burnett Bryan L. Burr Joseph E. Burr

Neil Douglas Byers
Football 9,10,11, Soccer 10; Honor Roll 9,12; Skr
Club 11,12; Spanish Honor Society 12
Melissa Errihe Byroade
Philosophy Club 11, 12; Fruich Honor Society

Philosophy Club 11,12; French Honor Society 9,10,11; National Honor Society 11,12; Penman 12

Hugo Fernando CamachoFootball 9,10; Varsity Wrestling 9,10,11,12-Co-Captain; Varsity Soccer 9,10,11,12-Captain

Delshawn Rayand Nicole Nelson help out at the African Awarness table at the Holiday Bazaar.

Sarah Harrick and Ria Riesner make sand bottles at the Holiday Bazaar.

"Makin' Money"

The class of 1995 was very busy raising money for their class this year. They had quite a few fundraisers. They began the year with a car wash, and raised a couple of hundred dollars off of it. The next fundraiser was the Senior Carnival. Students worked all summer to plan this event, but since this was a new idea it did not go over too well. Consequently we lost a bit of money. The Seniors are proud to mention that they made the most money at the Homecoming Dance; over 600 students attended this event. This was the best attended Homecoming Dance in a long time. The Senior class hired Video Box and they had a huge video screen. There was plenty of free food and pictures were taken. The Senior Class also had a bake sale and made a modest amount of money at this event.

As December rolled around, the Senior class sponsored the Holiday Bazaar. There were over 100 tables reserved for different businesses. In February, for Valentine's Day, the Seniors sold Kiss O'Grams, which are candy kisses with a note attached and sent to a sweetheart. In March there was a candy sale which helped them raise enough money to pay all expenses incurred for this event.

When this year first started, the Senior class was in desperate need of funds. They even thought they might have to have the prom in the gym. But because of great participation and planning, they were able to raise all money they needed.

Blair Russell

Tim Churchill winds up to throw a pitch at the dunking booth, hoping to soak Mr Walden.

Matt Stubbs works at a booth at the Senior Carnival

Senior class president Orliza Lorenzo, helps wash cars at the senior car wash

Gladis N. Canales Christine R. Carl

Choir 10,11,12; Color Guard 10,11,12; French Honor Society 10,11,12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; Jazz Vocal Ensemble 10,11,12; Key Club 10,11,12; National Honor Society 10,11; Social Studies Honor Society 10,11,12; Penman 12

Francisco Carranza

Environmental Club 9,10,12; Baseball 9; Key Club 12; Spanish Club 9,10; Rifle Club 12; Varsity Soccer 12;

"Don't assume your freedoms are assured."

Vaughn M. Cash Guiliana Casu Jane Chao

Pennian Art Editor 11,12; Apprentice Program 11,12; International Club 11; Environmental Club

"When I was young I'd listen to the radio, waiting for my favorite songs, when they played 1'd sing along, made me smile."

Chantee Nicole Charles

African Awareness Society 9,10; D.E.C.A. 10,11,12

"It's time to roll-out! C-Ya!

Richard Cheetham Jennifer Coello

Cheerleading 10; Varsity Cheerleading 11,12; W-L Orchestra 9,10,11; Arlington All County H.S. Orchestra 9,10,11; S.A.D.D. 10,11,12; National Honor Society 10,11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; Science Honor Society 11,12; "Have courage for the great sorrows of life and patience for the small ones." - Victor Hugo

Autumn Darlene Collins

Color Guard 9; D.E.C.A 10-Class Rep.,11-Vice Pres.,12-President; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; Honor Roll 10,11

"Be confident and success will come your way."

Elmer Contreras

"Keep me as the apple of your eyes. Hide me in the shadow of your wings." - Psalm 17:8

Walter Coon

Armondo Cordova Terri S. Courtney

D.E.C.A. 11,12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 11; Spanish Honor Society 12; FHA 9 and it will make a difference in your life."

Gualberto Covarrubias

"Strive to be #1

Clarence Coaxum Claudia Cubillos Fernandez "Tweety"

"Catch me a fish and I'll ear today. Teach me to fish and I'll ear forever."

Hua Dai

National Honor Society 11,12, Social Honor Society 11,12, French Honor Society 11,12, International Club 10,11-12, Environmental Club 11,12, Science Research Club 10,11.

*Lile's true lessons are learned from everyday experiences."

Torie L. Day Kathleen Alice Deuel "KAD"

Class President 9; Drum Major 11,12, Concert Band 9,10,11,12; Jazz Band 11, Varsity Swimming 9,10,11,12; Crew 9,10,11,12-Captain; Madrigals 12, National Honor Society 11,12; French Honor Society 11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12.

Maria Dominguez

Tameika Renee Douglas

Softball 9; Band 9,10,11,12, African Awareness 9; Honor Roll 9

"The best is now gone" - C O 95

James F. Ehrlich Elizabeth Anne Eldridge

National Honor Society 10,11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 10,11-Vice President,12; Thespians Club 9,10,11,12; JV Soccer 10; Jazz Vocals 11,12, Madrigals 12; District Choir 11; "The key to happiness and tranquility lies in these three words: 'Yes, Mrs. Filpl.'"

Kenuana Dennetta Engram

Softball 9,10,11,12: Track 9: African Awareness 9,10: Cheerleading 9,10,11-Co Captain,12-Captain. D.E.C.A. 10,11,12

"Stay to yourself and it's all good?"

Mary Gael Felker "Molly"

National Honor Society 11.12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; Crossed Sabres 10,11,12-Co-Editor-In-Chief, Environmental Club 9,10,11,12-President; Welcome to W-L Club 9,10,11,12-Pres "Stand in the place where you are, think about direction, wonder why you haven't before "-REM

Henry Fernandez

Yared Fesseha Jamal Fields Christine Patricia Fisher

95 REASONS SENIORS ARE SMILING

- 1. The power of the word: Seniors!
- 2. We're almost outie
- 3. We have good lockers in the Commons
- 4. Going out to lunch
- 5. Not getting caught going out to lunch for the last 3 years
- 6. We think we own W-L
- 7. We get to act like we own W-L
- 8. The underclassmen worship us
- 9. Ok, scratch #8
- 10. Pep rallies
- 11. Fast food
- 12. Getting 5 hours of sleep
- 13. Snooze buttons after that sacred 5 hours of sleep
- 14. Finishing all assigned work on time
- 15. Getting a parking space within walking distance
- 16. Mr. Potato Head and My Little Pony flashbacks
- 17. All the great Senior parties (whoops, never mind!)
- 18. Substitutes
- 19. Big bunches of balloons and decorated lockers for birthdays
- 20. Cartoons
- 21. Football games (even if we only won one)
- 22. Taking 2 lunches

- 23. Getting college applications
- 24. Jeans and sweatshirts
- 25. Spare change that comes in handy
- 26. Boyfriends/girlfriends
- 27. Cliff notes
- 28. Beavis and Butthead
- 29. Student discount for a movie
- 30. Blowing kisses
- 31. Senior slump (in effect Sept. 8, 1994)
- 32. Shopping when actually in possesion of money
- 33. Full tanks of gas
- 34. Driving
- 35. Fake ID's
- 36. Not getting caught using fake ID's
- 37. Bubble baths
- 38. Getting a rose on Valentine's Day
- 39. Carrying it around and showing it off
- 40. Crushes
- 41. The 5th amendment
- 42. Long weekends
- 43. Inside jokes that drive other people crazy
- 44. When teachers erase the board all the way
- 45. Chewy sprees
- 46. Best friends

- 47. Striking a pose for cool pictures
- 48. McDonalds ice cream
- 49. Call waiting
- 50. Keeping someone on hold while you talk to someone else
- 51. Nicknames
- 52. Pagers
- 53. Keeping them concealed
- 54. Bubble gum that blows huge bubbles
- 55. Dressing up as Santa at the Holiday Bazaar
- 56. Those darn fun car washes
- 57. When the school clocks work
- 58. Being in love
- 59. Secrets
- 60. Music that expresses us
- 61. Getting mail addressed to you
- 62. Lottery tickets
- 63. Georgetown
- 64. Diversity
- 65. 2:10 p.m. (unless you took off early)
- 66. 7:30 a.m. (only when you're still at home sleeping)
- 67. Gossip
- 68. Good dreams
- 69. Catching the Smurfs on some random channel
- 70. Fireflies on summer nights

- 71. Senior skip day(s)
- 72. Mt. Dew
- 73. Good hair days
- 74. The new dress code
- 75. Ok, forget #74
- 76. Chopsticks and fortune cookies
- 77. Wearing our slammin' Se T-shirts
- 78. Cute guys/cute girls
- 79. Big friendly grins
- 80. Making more than minim wage
- 81. Car air fresheners
- 82. No more pencils, no more books, no more teachers looks (until fall '95)
- 83. Snowball fights
- 84. Cuddling up
- 85. Pets
- 86. Memories you'll never fo
- 87. Good teachers
- 88. Clubs
- 89. Fridays
- 90. Procrastinating to do som thing better
- 91. Snatching W-L Honor Co-
- 92. Prom night
- 93. Last minute beach week p
- 94. Senior boat cruise on the Potomac
- 95 GRADUATION 95!!!

For busy Seniors, any amount of rest is cherished. Jessica Stefan catches a quick cat nap during first period. Having trouble waking up Jessica?

Who wouldn't be smiling to sport the Class of 1995 Senior T-shirts? Marissa Lane, Angie Aly and Christine Fisher are proud to sport the symbols of our time.

Seniors

Love is in the air! Mike Kane and Chrissy Hall enjoy being in each other's company

Being out of school for any reason is a blessing - Monica Villanueva enjoys her all day Government field trip to New York

Friends can always find something to smile about Angel Mayo and Kimberly Bates share a memorable moment

Finally, a winning sports team-You go girls tennis! Sarah Harrick, Jennifer Ocampo, Blair Russell and Sudie Wentling definitely have something to smile about.

Ingrid Flores Jennifer Flores

Orchestra 9,10,11; All-County Orchestra 9,10,11; JV Soccer 9,10,11; Varsity Soccer 12; Senior Class Secretary 12; Welcome to W-L Club 9,10,11,12; International Night Model 11,12; Class Activities 9,10,11,12

"Never give up on your hopes and dreams and don't ever let anyone tell you what you can and cannot do."

Marcos A. Flores

Angela Lee Gasque

Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; Key Club 9,10,11,12; Environmental Club 12; International Club 12; FHA 12

"Don't worry, be happy!"

Jason Gayle Jeffrey Peter Geiger

Crew 9,10,11,12; Rifle 9,10,11; Blue and Gray 11,12-Co-Editor-in-Chief; National Honor Society 10,11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 10,11,12; Ski Club 11,12; Debate 11;

Harjinder K. Gill

Color Guard 9; Varsity Field Hockey 10,11,12-Captain; Varsity Softball 11,12; Soccer 10; Key club 10,11,12; Honor Roll 10,11,12

John Melton Gilreath "Boss"

Football 9,10; Varsity Football 12; Crew 10,11; Social Studies Honor Society 10,11,12; SCA 10,12; S.A.D.D. 12; Crossed Sabres 10,11,12-Sports Editor; Penman 12; "Time flies like the wind, but fruit flies like apples." -J.S.

Jose Gonzalez

Holly M. Groshon

D.E.C.A. 10,12; Key Club 12

Emilia Mercedes Guevara

Madrigal 11,12-President; Jazz Vocal Ensemble 10,11,12; Environmental Club 9,10,11,12-Secretary; Science Research Club 11; Debate Team 9,10,11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; Penman 12; Cross Country 10,11,12; Outdoor Track 10,11,12

"Si tenemos un porque en la vida, podemos afrontar casi cualquier como." -Friedrich Nietzsche

Kathy R. Guerva

Mextli Guerrero Christina Hall "Peanut"

Crew 9,12. Science and Social Studies Honor Society 12, SADD 9,12, Environmental Club 10,12, Blue and Gray 12, Honor Roll 9,10,12 *One loses so many cares when they choose to love someone instead of something

Kidane W. Habtesion

Cross Country 9,10, Captain 11-12 Indoor Frack 9,10, Captain 11,12, Outdoor Track 9,10, Captain

"Look forward and never look back!"

Sarah Suzanne Harrick

Student Council Association 9,10-Senator, 11-Vice President, 12-President; Varsity Tennis 9, 10, 11-Captain, 12-Captain, Crew 9, 10, 11, 12-Captain, National Honor Society 10,11,12. Crossed Sabres 10-Co-News Editor, 11, 12-Opinion Editor.

Penman 12- Assoc Editor-In-Chief, Girls State 11

Muhammed N. Hasan Jose A. Hernandez

Diva Constanza Herrera

Welcome to W-L Club 10,11, Ganas Project 11,12

Patrick Daniel Hildt

JV Soccer 9; Varsity Soccer 10,11,12; Homeroom Rep 10; Spanish Club 9,10,11, Ski Club 11, Varsity Swimming 11,12; Varsity Football 12

Eric Xavier Horton

Class Treasurer 9; Varsity Baseball 9; D.E.C.A. 10; Science Research Club 12; Rifle Team 12; Honor Roll 12

"We're all puppets, I'm just a puppet who can see the strings." -Hoodyrat

Kamal Hossain Pavarage Huddle

"I'm who got to die when it's time for me to die So let me live my life ..the way I want to " -Jimmy Hendrix

Jacqueline S. Hurton

Maureen Isha "Mo"

Cheerleading 9, 10, Varsity 11, 12 (co-captain); Class Vice President 9, 10, 11; SADD Welcome to W-L Club 11, 12; French Club 9, 10, Softball 10; Student Leadership Team 11; Penman 12 (Sec.); DECA 12; Honor Roll 9, 10, 11, 12, Who's Who Among High School Students 10, 11 "It's a funny thing about life, if you reluse to accept anything but the best, you very often get it " -Somerset Maughan

Julio Jaen Sara Elisa Jaen

COE Club 12; Madrigals 12, Honor Roll 11, 12

Going Out In Style

'Back to school '94' brought fresh new looks through the W-L doors. From year to year we take on new fashion ideas, while still holding onto our own personal touches. The clothing we wear reflects our emotions, attitudes, and personalities. Best dressed student Maureen Isha put it this way: "My appearance is very important to me. The impression I give to others reflects my character and style, and is seen through the clothing I wear."

Ranging from Shynette Screen's stylish tight dresses and combat boots to Neat Sothy's classic jean shirts and blazers, we had a colorful spread of fashion diversity this year. Short plaid skirts with knee-high socks became popular, and many back-pack purses were spotted in the halls. Jeans and T-shirts or sweatshirts ruled as usual. Baggy jeans stayed in the picture from previous years since they offer comfort and appeal.

Favorite stores to shop in include the following: Up Against the Wall for Corina Ayllon (new styles all the time); TJ Max for Nicole Nelson (a great place to find bargains for hot styles); Burlington Coat Factory and Price Club for Eric Horton (which have inexpensive clothes that are of good quality); and The Gap for Jennifer Ocampo which has (clothes that everybody can "get into"). Favorite malls to shop at included Ballston Commons, Pentagon City, Springfield, Tyson's, and Potomac Mills. Let's see how much we've changed when we come back for our class reunions!

Lillie Jernigan

Marissa Lane: all dressed up and nowhere to go but to a class! This sophisticated look has sure made its debut

Gerhard Ramos tries to slip by with a hat. Sorry Gerhard, no hats allowed.

Sarah Riggs, Rebecca Bladen, and Robyn Sampson sport their overalls.

Shynette Screen strikes a gorgeous pose

Cutie pies! These GQ's make the cut Jimmy Baker, Tim Churchill, Christian Valasquez and Patrick Hildt.

Best Dressed-- Maureen Isha and Hugo Camacho

Michael Felix James

Band 10, 11, 12; Jazz Band 10, 11, 12; Varsity Wrestling 11, 12; Full Orchestra 11; Pit Orchestra "Pirates of Penzance" 11; Outdoor Track 12; Boys State 11; YADAPP Conference 11; Hockey Club 11, 12; National Honor Society "A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, only in expressing his own opinion." -Proverbs 18:2

Stewart Jeffrey

Choir 10, 11; Madrigals 11, 12; District Choir 11; Jazz Vocals 11, 12; Boys State

Ryan Jenkinson

Lillian Vera Jernigan "Lillie"

S.A.D.D. (Activities Director. 11, 12; Tres. 12); Cultural Exchange 11; YADAPP Conference 12; Blue and Gray, Senior Editor 12; "As a light through the darkness, as a warmth in the bitter winds, as a saving hope in hours of deep despair...is my friend." - "Pebbles"

Crystal D. Johnson-Porter

African Awareness Society 9; DECA 12; AFJROTC 10, 11, 12; Honor Roll 10, 11, 12 "I'm on a peaceful journey, so I'm out"

Kristina Kanios

William Kane

"You just know how to hide and lie. Me, I don't have that problem; Me, I always tell the truth, even when I lie, so say goodnight to the bad guy."

-Tony Montana

Gurpreet Kaur "Lilly"

Softball 9; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; International Club 11,12-Vice President; Senior Class Committee; Key Club 12; Welcome to W-L Club 10,12; S.A.D.D. 12 "Practice makes perfect. No one's perfect. Then why practice?"

Yonathan Kebede

Murad A. Khan

Basketball 9; Football 11; Key Club 9,10; S.A.D.D. 12; Ski Club 11,12; Welcome to W-L Club 10,12 "One love, one heart, one destiny, peace and love

Omar Khan Pooja Khanna

International Club 12; Honor Roll 9

for all mankind." -Bob Marley

Matthew Foresman Kikel

Thespians 9,10,11,12; Boys Tennis 10,11,12; Ski Club 11,12; Madrigals 12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; Spanish Honor Society 12; Spanish Club 12-Secretary; School Plays 9,10,11,12

Keith D. Knott

Crew 12

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me, and I in him, then he will bear much fruit; apart from me, you can do nothing."

Yanek Korff

German Club 9; Philosphy Club 12; Choir 12 "Life's a joke...so what's the punchline?"

Adriana M. Kortesis Jerry R. Kreamer

American Legion Boy's State Delegate 11 G 1 Social Studies Program 12 Honor Roll 9 10 11 12 COF 12

"Generals and Redskins, two great things in life."

Joshua Krepon

French Honor Society 11, Varsity Tenn's 10,11,12-Captain Future Presidents of America Club 11,12; Crossed Sabres 12, Penman 12-Hockey club 11,12, Honor Roll 9,10,11-12 "Shalom." J.K.

Floyd Krueter Charles R. Lampard Jennifer Marie Lane

Color Guard 9.10; French Club 10; French Honor Society 10; "Pirates of Penzance" 11, Governor's Japanese Language Academy 11, Key Club 9,10,11,12; Historian Press Secretary 11, Social Studies Honor Society 10,11.12, Treasurer 11, Student Advisory to the School Board, C. O 95 Rep. 10,11.12

"Luke, you are going to lind that many truths we cling to depend greatly on our own point of view." -Obi-Wan Kenobi

Marissa A. Lane "T.A."

Cheerleading Co-Captain 9.10: Varsity Cheerleading 12; COE 11-President "What we are is God's gift to us, what we become is our gift to God."

Jarmar E. Lomax Aisha Lope de Haro-Salleh

"Don't go where the path leads. Rather go where there is no path and leave a trail!"

Orliza A. Lorenzo "Madam Prez"

International Club 11,12 (Public-Relations Officer 11; Treasurer 12);

Key Club 12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12. Class Treasurer 11; Class President 12, Social Studies Honor Society 11,12

"Problems are challenges given by God"

Fina J. Malave Italo Manrique

Emily Mardakis

JV Soccer 9.10,11; Athletic Training 10,11,12. S.A D.D. 11,12: Welcome to W-L Club 10,11,12. National Honor Society 11,12, Penman 12.

La'Shaun K. Marshall

Cheerleading 10: African Awareness Society 11. Dance Team 12, Yearbook 12 "Be yourself"

Angel D. Mayo

Basketball 9 10; Cheerleading 10; Key Club 10. Class Activities 9,10,11 (Central High School) African Awareness Society 12 (W-L) "Oh Lord! Give that boy a tic-tac

Andrea Mink

Sarah Harrick

Most Likely to:

John Gilreath

Matt Kikel

Join the class of '96 Become famous Get caught with a fake ID Become a game show host Become a W-L resource officer from now Become President of the U.S. Own a Las Vegas casino Become a T.V. mud wrestler Throw a boring party

Be driving the same car 15 years Become a Broadway actor/actress Go out with an underclassman Squeal

BOYS GIRLS Brandy Smith Murad Khan Ana Reyes Sam Zanders Kim Bartell Richard Sullivan Nicole Nelson Michael James Jason Riggs Glennda Atchley Edson Soriano Orliza Lorenzo Jeff Geiger Mindy Trigger Mike Kane Aisha Salleh Tim Churchill OF 1995 THE CLASS Nicole Alicea Jody Olson sill-around

seyes smile

gest flirt

riends

slancer

at driver

st couple

a Gossip

1; clown

s lressed

Athletic

Spirited

riest

Superlatives

Willie Barquero

Kenneth Petty

Leland Chapin

Patrick Hildt

John Gilreath and Murad Khan

Willie Barquero

Matt Wells

Henry Fernandez

Josh Krepon

Dan Walker

Hugo Camacho

Sam Zanders

Shawn Northrip

Molly Felker

Eileen McGill

Michelle Yi

Erin Pfoutz

Lillie Jernigan and Maureen Isha

Neat Sothy

Liz Eldridge

and Jennifer Flores

Emily Mardakis

Tamieka Douglas

Molly Felker

Maureen Isha

Lindsay Smith

Jennifer Lane

Eileen McGill

Athletic Training 10,11 S.A.D.D. 11,12-Co-President; Welcome to W-L Club 11,12 "Our memories of yesterday will last a lifetime. We'll take the best, forget the rest, and someday we'll find that these were the best of times."

Brendan McLean

Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; PTA Reflections Contest

Gilberto Melo "Beto"

Football 9,10,11,12; Honor Roll 9,10 "Thank God it's over!"

Andrea "Andi" Mink

Soccer 9; Gymnastics 11,12; History Honor Society 10,11,12; Crossed Sabers 11,12; Penman 12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12

"Keep Breathing" -Sophie Tucker Zulma Delicia Montano

JV Basketball 11,12; JV Soccer 11,12; Welcome to W-L Club 10; Ganas Club 11,12; LASA Club 12

Troy Devon Moore

Varsity Basketball 9,10,11,12; Football 9,10,11,12; Track and Field 9,10,11,12 "Stay in school kids!"

Janet C. Mosley Matthew Howard Murphy

Hockey Club 11,12 (Captain)
"We first knew you as a feeble plant which wanted a little earth whereon to grow, and now you have grown to be a mighty tree, whose top reaches the clouds, and whose branches over spread the whole land." -Seneca Chief Red Jacket

Pepper Elizabeth Murray

Soccer 9,10,11,12; Basketball 10,11,12 "And whether I came in love or hate, that I came to you was written by fate."

Julie A. Nelson

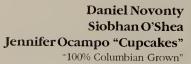

"Can we get 'um back to the good ole' days?" $\,$ -

Levert

Nicole K. Nelson

Honor Roll 9,10,12; Cheerleading 10; Band 9,10,11,12; Jazz Band 12; Jazz Combo 11,12; African Awareness 9,10,11,12; Soccer 10; Announcements 12, Class Officer 10,11 "The band is like a great big family, and Mr. Robinson is our dad."

Shawn Paul Northrip

Seniors

Lisa C. Olguin
Jodin Tapley Olson
SchoolPlay/Musical "The Boyfriend",
"Outsiders", "See How They Run", "Pirates of Penzance", "The Butler Did It" 9, 10, 11, 12;
Baseball 9, 10; Crew 11, 12; SCA 12; Morning
Announcer 12; Crossed Sabres 12
Bisi Onisile

Key Club 12, African Awareness Society 11/12 Track and Field 11, Field Hockey 12 "Most people would sooner die than think. In fact they do so."

Ann Oomwrow

Key Club 12; International Club 12; Spanish Honor Society 12, Honor Roll 9 10 "Life is a comedy of errors, so don't be discouraged if you're not the best Just do you're best and you'll be gifted with the rest"

Nilsa I. Ortiz Silvia Y. Pacheco LASAS 9; Soccer 10; Hilt Volunteer 11, Ganas Volunteer 11, Soccer 12; Honor Roll 9,10.11

Jimmy Ivan Paredes Christopher M. Parris Yolanda L. Peele "Londie"

Concert Band 9,10,11,12; Marching Band 9,10,11,12; DECA 11,12; African Awareness Society 9,10,11 12 (Sec. 12)
"Try your best at whatever you decide to do in left."

Iris E. Perez Kenneth Petty Erin Pfoutz

Madrigals 10.11.12: Jazz Vocals 11, Pirates of Penzance 11, Philosophy Club 11,12, Soccer 9,10,11; National Honor Society 10,11.12: French Honor Society 11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12; District Choir 11: Key Club 11 "Where's the rest of me?" -Casey Robinson

Thuy-Van Thi Phung Crystal L. Pierce Jenny Portillo

Beto Melo, Matt Stubbs, Jimmy Baker, and Glennda Atchley enjoy each other's company as they consume Wendy's.

Are Bisi Onisile and Taisha Smith indulging in Taco Bell while sitting in McDonald's?

Mindy Trigger, Molly Garrett, Matt Kikel and friends enjoy eating at the W-L McDonald's.

Rebecca Bladen and Brandy Smith are deep in conversation while relaxing in a place far from school.

Seniors' Lunchin'

What a great feeling it was to be a Senior because you could finally go off campus for lunch...legally. All of us, at one time or another, left campus to munch some lunch with the Seniors and we thought we were "hot stuff."

This year we were constantly harrassed by underclassmen who wanted to catch a ride to go eat at one of the few fast food places near school. These places were McDonald's, Wendy's, Roy Roger's, Taco Bell, Subway, and KFC.

We used to annoy Seniors because we hadn't earned the right to go off campus. Well, those older students are now gone and we finally earned the right to go off campus. We felt it was now our right to criticize those who wanted to leave campus without permission Jimmy Baker commented, "We have earned the right to go off campus but it is a big joke. The underclassmen show up anyway and never get caught."

The favorite hangout this year was Wendy's and it was usually crowdedbeyondbelief. Some people resorted to using the drive-thru so they could get their lunch faster

Don't forget that there were students who went home for lunch. Some people just preferred good home cooking to fast food, or perhaps they didn't want to spend the money.

All in all, the Seniors were happy because they got to leave school for a quick thirty minutes to buy some food they would never get at school.

-Mindy Trigger

Emily Mardakis and Jennifer Thompson are best friends. They share a good time while munching on food from Roy Roger's Sarah Harrick and Andrea Mink are eating at McDonald's, where over a billion have been served. Or is it over a billion and two?

Claudia Cubillos and a friend laugh at the thought of eating school lunch instead of Wendy's.

Jonathan H. Price

Marching Band 8,9,10,11,12; Concert Band 8,9,10,11,12; Jazz Band 9,10,11,12; Jazz Combo 10.11,12; Jazz Vocals 10,11,12; "The Boyfriend" 9; "Pirates of Penzance" 10; JV Football 10; Announcements 12

"Bad things happen at 46 mph."

Shahida Rafiq Mazlu Rahman

Chakraph Rangarana Delshawn Y. Ray

African Awareness Society 9,10,11,12; Varsity Basketball 9,10,11,12; International Club 11; Welcome to W-L Club 12

"It ain't over till it's over,,, and it's over!"

Ana Cristela Reyes

Gospel Choir 9; Jazz Vocals 10,11,12; Madrigals 11,12; Apprentice Program 11,12; District Chorus 11,12; National Choral Award 11, DECA 12-Tres. "You tend to remember those who are always there for you."

Paola Reyes Sarah Anne Riggs

Crew 9,10,11,12; Philopophy Club 11,12; Social Studies Honor Society 11,12 "You've got to kick a little and cause a stirsometimes you've got to make some noise and be heard" -Little Texas

Manuel A. Rivas

Vladimir Antonio Rodriguez

Honor Roll 11

Manuel Roque Dania "La Flaca" Rosales

DECA 10,11; Ganas 12 "The way you treat yourself sets the standard for others; and love not what you are but only what you may become..."

Rebecca "Blair" Russell

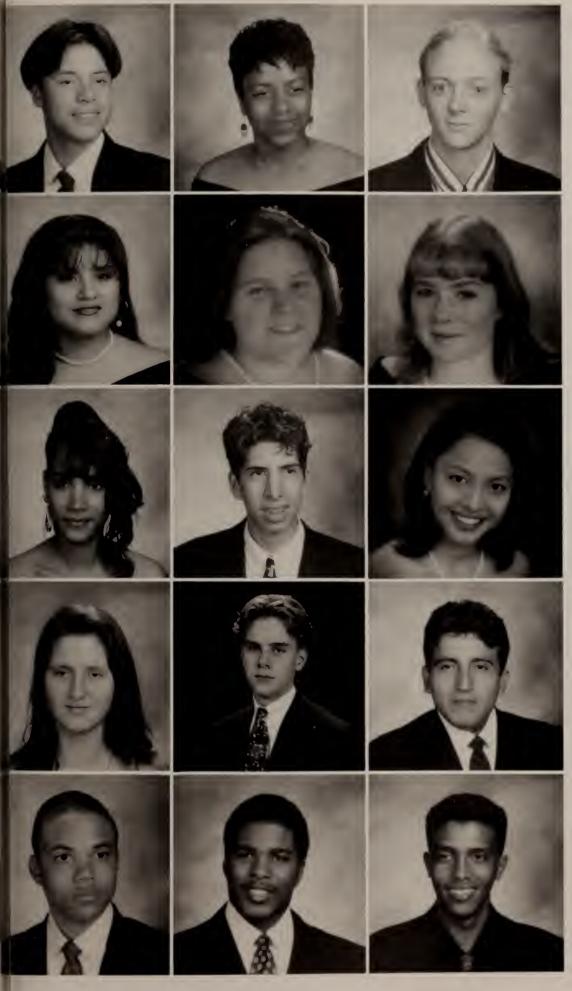

Crew 11, 12; Swimming 11,12; Tennis 11,12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; Blue and Gray 12 "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me." -Phil. 4:B

Jose Raul Salgado Robyn C. Sampson

Concert Band 9,10,11,12; Jazz Band 9,10,12; Marching Band 9,10,11,12; Softball 9,10,11,12; NHS 10,11,12-Sec.; Key Club 9,11,12-Tres.; Social Studies Honor Society 10,11,12 "Life is a banquet and most poor suckers are starving!"

Rodrigo D. Sardan Shynette A. Screen

African Awarness 9,12; FBLA 12, Blue and Gray

Charles Strang Selden

Theater 11,12; Sound Crew 10,11,12, Crew 9,10, Rifle 9

"Chance favors the prepared mind"-Pascal

Maria G. Serna

GANAS 10,11,12

Brandy Lucore Smith

Crew 9,10; Science Research Club 11,12; Rifle 11,12; JSHS 11

"Goodbye all my troubles, So long all my cares, I'm off to the woods, dance with the Bears"

Lindsay Sloan Smith

Varsity Field Hockey 9,10,11,12-Captain, Varsity Basketball 10,11,12-Captain; Varsity Soccer 9,10,11,12-Captain; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; National Honor Society 10,11,12;

Taisha Layla Smith

African Awareness Society 11,12: Key Club 12: Honor Roll 9,10,11 "I never forget a face, but in your case I'll make an exception."

Edson C. Soriano

"Keep the beat pumpin, the bass thumpin', and the people jumpin!" -D.J. XTSY

Neat Sothy

Cheerleading 9,10,11,12; Softball 10; International Night 11; "The Butler Did It" 12; Welcome to W-L Club 12

Jessica Stefan

Color Guard 9; Softball 10,12

Matthew Stubbs "BOB"

Ski Club 11; Hockey Club 11; Bike Club 10; School Board Rep. 11; Crew 9,10; Boys State 11; Rifle Team 9; Honor Roll 11; Indoor Track 11, Track 12; V.P. Senior Class "Dosen't anyone know laughter anymore."-

"Dosen't anyone know laughter anymore "-Robert Plant

Arcino G. Suyo

Givonne E. Talley Derik Taylor

Football 9,12

"Don't let a girl take you and break you "

Aaron T. Tekie

A Glimpse of the Real World

Gas. Food at Wendy's. College application fees. Fun on the weekends. What do all these things have in common? They're all things seniors have to pay for in order to

The real world is quickly approaching and, fortunately, many students in the class of '95 are preparing themselves by getting a job. Yes, mommy and daddy are a little more reluctant to just hand out ten dollars here and there, as they did four years ago.

Nowadays, seniors have to realize this fact of life and become a part of the working community. Some still resort to having nothing while others, in search of immediate financial gain, seek out a vocation.

Many prefer the job of a cashier. This position is not very demanding and, although it does not pay well, at least you are making some

Other students, such as Murad Khan, enjoyed working in their family's business (in a restaurant or whatever the case may be). Mindy Triggerand Willy Barquero earned their money by working together as lifeguards at Courtland Towers Indoor Pool.

Some students enjoyed their experiences while others felt it could not get any worse. Most agree that, despite the experience, having your own money was a good felling.

Claudia Cubillos and Aisha Lope luckily found time to pose for the camera during their free time at People's Drug.

CVS Pharmacy cashier, Anna Reyes, rings up the total on a customer's purchase during the hectic holiday season.

Holiday Bazaar helper, Delshawn Ray,takes a break from working to smile for the yearbook staff

fafeguard partners. Mindy Trigger and Willy Barquero take a break from sav-ing lives at Courtland Towers Indoor Swimming Pool

Long-time employee of Staples Jimmy Baker, laughs at one of his fellow work-ers while stocking products

Heidelberg veteran, Josh Krepon, helps Matt Murphy, faithful worker of The one of the many customers on Saturday Nature Shop, gives us a glimpse of mornings to cookies his role as he tends to the bird

Anthony Templeman Jennifer F. Thompson Milton Tipan Football 9,10; Wrestling 9,10,11,12 "Suavesito' se gosa la vida"

Yadira Tipan Borris D. Torrico Trang Minh Tran

Melinda K. Trigger "Mindy"

French Honor Society 10,11; Varsity Cross Country 10,11,12-Captain; Varsity Indoor Track 9,10,11,12-Captain; Varsity Outdoor Track Captain 9,10,11,12; Blue and Gray 12 "Never base future reactions on previous experiences."

Erland Trigo Savas Tsimaris

Football 9,10,11,12

Ana M. Vallejo Marisol Velez

Science Research Club 12; Key Club 12; Color Guard 12; "Pirates of Penzance" 11; French Club

Patricia Ventura

Honor Roll 9,10,11; W-L Hilt Organization 10 "There is nothing more important than to see the ones whom you love be proud of you."

Lorena Vergara

Key Club 12; International Club-Public Relations Officer 12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; French Honor Society 9,10,11 "Always forgive and forget. Holding grudges Always forgive and forget. Holding grudges make matters worse."

Laura Monica Villanueva

National Honor Society 10,11,12; Welcome to W-L Club 10,11,12; Environmental Club 11,12; Honor Roll 9,10,11,12; "Take me on a trip upon your magic swirling ship" -Bob Dylan

Thao Xuan Vo

Daniel "Dan" Walker

Baseball 9,10,11,12. Basketball 9,10. Chess Club 12, Yearbook 10,11,12 "Type somethin', will ya, we're payin' for this stuff " -Dr Veinkman

Malcom Winde Walker Christopher D. Walters

Jazz Band 10,11,12; Symphonic Band 9,10,11,12; Marching Band 9,10,11,12, Sumphonic Orchestra 11, Jazz Vocals 10; Choir 12; Dive Team 11

Matthew Edward Wells

NHS 10,11,12- Treasurer; Crew 9,10,11,12- Co-Captain; Swimming 9,10,11 and 12 Captain, Blue and Gray 11,12- Co-Editor 12 "Be All You Can Be" -U.S. ARMY

Sudie Akossiwa Wentling

NHS 10,11,12; Basketball 10,11,12; Girls Tennis 9,10,11,12-Captain; Class President 10,11

Michelle Y. Yi

Softball 10,11; Field Hockey 12; National Honor Society 10,11,12-President; Class Treasurer 12 .. A little consideration, a little thought for others, makes all the difference " -Eeyore

Softball 10,11; School Board Rep. 11; Key Club 12; Environmental Club 12; Ski Club 11, French Club 10,12; Honor Roll 10

"When you are born, you cried and the world rejoiced. Live your life so that when you die the world cries, and you rejoice." -An old Indian

Samuel Zanders Costadina "Costa" Zourzoukis

Seniors Not Pictured

hn Dean Alexander iana Antoni Alvarez lias Hector Amaya ehu Aria affour T. Asibey eynaldo Barera shua Barnes icholas Bassett lohammed Z. Bhuiyan uis J. Carreno land S. Chapin arina Claros enneth P. Clarke eronica D. Cortez ılia E. Cueva rturo A. Custodio nthony Daly

Steve J. Downs Contreras Elmer Michael G. Fahey Cassandra Floyd Kaelo A. Galetshoge Marvin A. Garcia Herberth I. Gonzalez Melvin L. Greene Rudy N. Gutierrez Mohammed Habib Maria Joad Henriques Fredy G. Hernandez Juan W. Hernandez Marvin Hernandez Omar A. Hernandez Esmirna C. Hondoy Eric G. Hutchins

Chi Suk Hyun Yury Y. Inturias Thomas A. Jahangir Carlos E. Jandres Elmer D. Juarez Polly D. Kelly Jeovani Lazo-Ferman Jeannie Legg Nicola Lowe Jorge E. Majewsky Zułma Y. Małdonada Hashim Miah Aaron D. Mirro Darnell A. Moore Jose Moreno Maria C. Nina Carlos Nolasco

Joseph P. Noll Andrea D. Norwood Dolores Parra Truyen The Pham Arlene V. Pinto William Powell Sharron L. Ridley Ria Merrill Riesner Carolina Reyes Juan Rodriguez Roxana Rodriguez Christopher M. Rosson Eugenia V. Ryabukhina Nellie Sanchez Christian Santibanez Christian Silva Rajinder Singh

Wendy D. Soliz Elizabeth Sousa Agnieszka Stelmach Jennifer N. Straiton Richard Sullivan Zoltan Szałkai Walter Tapia Kimberly M. Taylor Rhiannon R. Teneguer Danielle Thompson Eddy J. Tobias Thanh Quoc Tran Christian Velasquez Fabian A. Valenzuela J. Vaughn E. Wilder Yonas Woldezeru Victor Yanez

WHAT IF's

- 1. Edson Soriano was Yearbook editor and Jeff Geiger was a DJ?
- 2. Jonathan Price didn't break his leg falling off a 70 ft. cliff?
- 3. None of our Senior class were squealers?
- 4. Molly Felker didn't light up our day with her hearty laugh?
- 5. Yolanda Peele was modest?
- 6. Mr. Albers wore dockers and Mr. Schelstrate wore suits?
- 7. Leland Chapin didn't create a slammin' Senior T-shirt?
- 8. Willy Barquero didn't dance at all the pep rallies and act like the Mac-Daddy?
- 9. The Seniors threw any parties?
- 10. There were no Walden bucks?
- 11. Dania Rosalas never worked at CVS?

- 12. Tim Churchill's mother let him go out for lunch?
- 13. We won any football games?
- 14. Mr. Grove didn't teach Psychology?
- 15. Sharron Ridley wasn't so hilarious?
- 16. Will Kane left his hair its natural color?
- 17. The Bullets didn't have a chance at a winning season with Juwan Howard and Chris Webber?
- 18. Somebody brought a pager to school?
- 19. Neat Sothy's smile wasn't so darn cute?
- 20. Wendy's didn't have a 99 cents menu?
- 21. we actually wanted to come to school?
- 22. There was no Penman popcorn?
- 23. Christine Fisher made it through a whole week of school?

- 24. Jimmy Baker could drive?
- 25. somebody actually went to the W-L McDonalds?
- 26. Ana Reyes couln't sing?
- 27. Marissa Lane could see over the dashbo
- 28. We had decent bathrooms?
- 29. Ms. Leeb was from North Carolina, Mr. Wyatt was from New York, and Ms. Jeens was from West Virginia?
- 30. We didn't have superlatives, due to technical reasons?
- 31. Delshawn Ray couldn't play basketb:
- 32. Rick Caughlin and Scott Forbes were the lunch police?
- 33. No one dropped Physics?
- 34. Sam Zanders didn't have any muscles show off?

What if no one ever painted their faces on pep rally days? David Estes demonstrates his school spirit with a blue and gray face.

What if there were no flag girls? Hilsia Adams struts her stuff

Can you visualize Jeff Geiger spinning the tunes?

Dania Rosales and Mextli Guererro CVS hook-up.

Funny girl Sharron Ridley chats on the phone.

Neat Sothy's sweetheart smile

How Cute!

Take a look at these adorable baby faces! These little darlings remained just as sweet as they used to be (most of them anyway). See if you can match the baby faces with the mature Senior look they now have. If you can't, here are the names:

- 1. Blair Russell
- 2. Angela Aly
- 3. Jennifer Flores
- 4. Henry Fernandez
- 5. Jason and Sarah Riggs
- 6. Bryan and Joe Burr
- 7. Lorena Vargas
- 8. Ria Riesner
- 9. Jenny Benitez
- 10. Fatin Al-Mobarak

Sam Zanders rushes to his locker to begin his plans for the weekend. TGIF.

Seniors hang out at Wendy's. Nothing better to do?

Jennifer Ocampo spending her time completing her college applications.

Dania Rosales, Ingrid Flores, Claudia Cubillos, Korina Ayollon, and Jennifer Flores pose for a quick shot before heading out for a weekend together.

48 Hours of Heaven

Seniors spend over forty hours a week at school and the weekend becomes the only time when they can escape the stresses and the long days at Washington-Lee. College preparation put a heavy load on the class of 1995, but Seniors still found time to enjoy their three nights and two days off. Seniors had a variety of interesting activities to spend their time free including driving through Georgetown, going to the movies or out to eat, and hitting a variety of dance clubs that D.C. has to offer.

Most Seniors never let a minute of those 48 hours escape without filling their time with exciting events. Jennifer Ocampo stated, "Weekends are basically the only thing I look foward to during the school year. Weekends are the times to goof-off in the company of your friends." Some of the less fortunate. Seniors spend their weekend time working (but at least they're not broke). Willy Barquero said, "Even though I work Friday through Sunday every week, I still find time to go out with my friends to enjoy my leisure time." Lillie Jernigan stated, "My free time gives me a chance to catch up with my friends and destress myself from the previous week.

Generally speaking. Seniors bugeted their time (and money) well and managed to participate in work and leisure activities without wearing themselves out (too much).

Claudia Cubillos

Murad Khan and John Gilreath get stuck at home with nothing to do.

Some Seniors spend weekend time traveling Lillie Jernigantakes in the scenes of New York. City.

Neat Sothy and Monica Villanueva relax in pleasant weather after a long week.

A NOTE TO OUR SPONSORS

Hmmm, Mrs. LaBarbera, what can we say? You are truly an exceptional human being, especially as a Class Sponsor. We can't imagine what our days will be like without hearing your nice, loud voice saying, "HELLO." Because you are affable, you have made it easy for all of us to talk to you at any time, and usually on any day that we needed to do so. We sincerely feel that you deeply care about all students, but especially the Seniors. We will always remember your great sense of humor, and the fact that you were always ready and willing to get the job done right.

Mr. Spicer, we appreciate all the support that you have given us for the last four years. We will always remember your smiling face at all of our special events. We really enjoyed the special advantage of having an art teacher for a sponsor. Thanks for all the assistance you gave us at hall and float decorating time. Allowing us to use your room and all of your art supplies really gave us an advantage over other students when competing in the hall and float decorating contests.

As sponsors, you were both extremely dedicated and hard working and we appreciated that. The class of '95 was lucky to have such talented sponsors, but also wonderful friends. Without your outstanding leadership abilities, we could have never accomplished what we did. We could not leave Washington-Lee without expressing our deepest admiration toward both of you. You handled things like no other teachers could. On behalf of the class of '95, we would like to convey our sincere gratitude and wish you the very best of everything in the future. SEE YOU AT THE CLASS REUNION!!!

Tim Trahant and James Defilippi leave school after experiencing another great day in school.

Kim Philley ponders what getup she will put together for crazy day.

The Juniors word hard at completing their hall. All their hard work was worthwhile, and they went on to win the hall decorating competition.

This year was extremely challenging for the juniors, but they finished this school year quite successfully. Most juniors got off to a terrific start at the begining of the year as indicated by their improved study habits and balancing their time well between school, extracurricular activities and work. Several juniors began to take on more responsibility by taking on part-time jobs and participating in more than one sport. I guess one could say that this is a sign of maturity--well, perhaps!

Several juniors were seen around the school at club meetings, and other planning events. As you visited various stores and businesses, you could spot juniors participating in the work place--trying to make our society a better place to live. In many of the offices around the school--Guidance, the Main Office, the Dean's offices and the Clinic--several juniors were seen serving as aides to various staff members.

Part-time jobs allowed many juniors to have a lot more pocket change. This enabled many juniors to become more independent. "All of sudden, paying for your own gas, lunch and miscellaneous expenses made me feel real good about myself," was the remark of many juniors. Not having to ask your parents for a couple of dollars for this or that was a refreshing change. Of course, many juniors indicated that they were saving a good portion of their money for senior year expenses--and no one could fault them for that.

Although many juniors are eager to move up a class at the end of the year, some have enjoyed this year so much that they were not exactly rushing this occasion.

A World of Friends

Ever since freshman year when we all entered the scary world of high school, we've depended on friends to get us through all the problems and heartaches of teenage life. Remember when you failed your first math test or accidentally walked into the wrong bathroom? There was always someone there to pick you up, dust you off and send you on your way. Your friends have been there through the good times and the bad, and even the embarrassing ones. But before this starts to sound like a Hallmark card, let's explore the possibility of Washington-Lee without friends.

Without friends, lunch would be a drag. There wouldn't be anyone to talk to or gossip with, and definitely no one to kid around with. How about all those times in class when there was a sub? What fun would it be if you couldn't just turn around and start gabbing with your friend? Study groups are nothing without the occasional outburst of laughter and goofing around with your buds. What would that five minutes between classes be without a smile or a passing word from a friend?

As junior Faye Stylianos stated, "Man, without friends, I don't know what I'd do. No, but on a serious note, friends help the school days go by quicker." So in the halls and on the weekends, friends make our world go round.

Friends, Ann Tonakarn and Nisha Abreu pose together for a quick picture before heading home for the day.

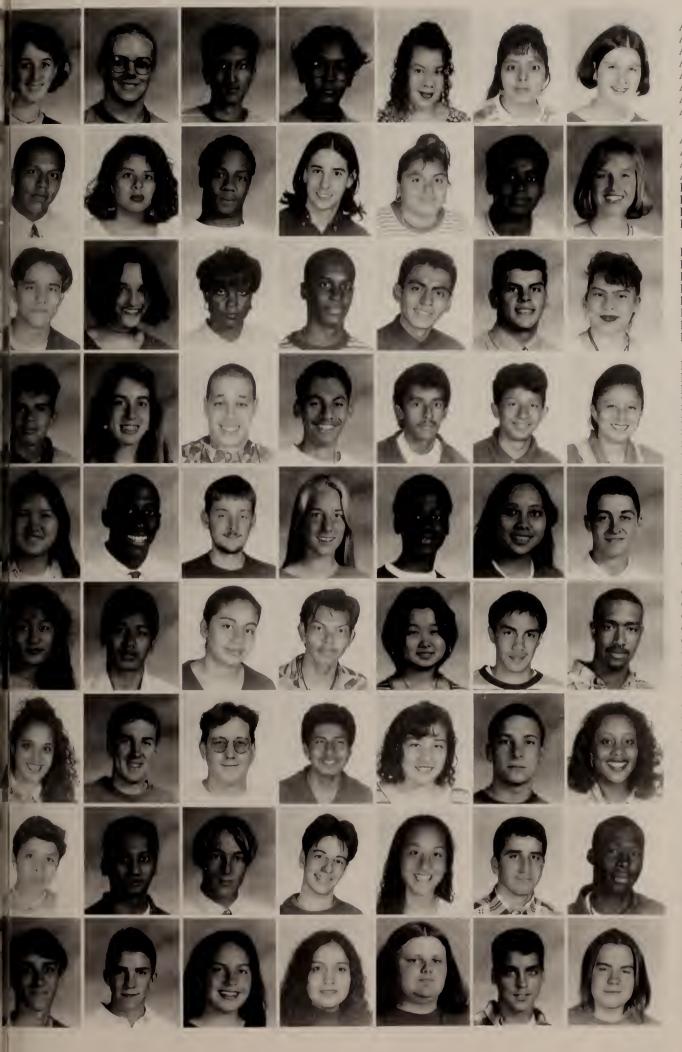

Eugenia Deleon and Ricardo Calderon pause for a picture before the bell rings, signaling the end of class.

Good friends, Gabrielle Reisner and Michael Durishin take a break from class to show an example of the strong friendships formed in high school.

Juniors

Abreu, Nisha Afram, Ruza Agnew, Ryan Ahmad, Anwar Akhmadi, Gempur Alvarenga, Iris Alvarez, Juana Anderson, Cassandra

Andrade, Omar Angulo, Alberto Arango, Lizza Avery, Brian Bailey, Chris Baires, Ana Baires, Carlos Barber, Aimee

Barr, Adam Barrera, Jorge Barrett, Amy Beecher, Roxanne Belot, Jean-Max Beltain, Nelson Benitez, Boris Benitez, Alba

Bernardo, Valerie Berrios, Erik Billings, Leslie Bolden, Daniel Bonilla, Carlos Bonilla, Jose Bonilla, Lenin Bonilla, Wendy

Bort, Bryson Boutah, Alina Boyd, Andre Bridgett, Travis Brown, Emma Bryant, Eric Bui, Tu-Anh Calhoun, Eric

Campbell, Kara Campos, Sonia Canales, David Cantor, Veronica Centeno, Jose Charoenpanich, Chali Chautard, Andre Cherry, Leslie

Chevez, Jose Chopra, Sandhya Clements, Whit Clyburn, Clayton Coil-Quispe, Daniel Covarrubias, Veronica Craver, Josh Crawley, Jamilla

Cruz, Jose Cruz, Norma Cui, Christopher DeFillippi, James De Souza, Alexander Deleon, Eugenia De Sousa, Wilson Djabatey, Henry

Doggett, Travis Doheny, Nick Durishin, Micheal Eberhart, Jessica Espinoza, Carla Evans, John Evans, Sean Feinstein, Matt

Fischer, Alex Fitzgerald, Jamie Flamenco, Franklin Florero, Cesar Freeman, Ebony Garcia, Marvin Garcia, Mathew Gasque, Cheryl

Gearheart, Nathan Genie, Jose Gomez, Jose Gomez, Maria Gonzalez, Victor Granados-Ruiz Nelson Griffing, Alexander Groleau, Jaime

> Guadalupe, Cynthia Guadique, Jose Guerra, Marleny Guevara, Glenda Gutierrez, Veronica Guryansky, Melanie Guzmoir, Daisy Habtesion, Nat

Hachana, Tim Hardy, Mary Harmon, Reed Hartman, Laura Hem, Chaay Hennighan Shawneece Hernandez, Maria Hernandez, Narnra

> Henriquez, Ana Hildt, Amanda Horn, Andrea Huff, Steve Irigoyen, Jasmine Jaldin, Cynthia Jan, Ahmad Kaim, Amit

Kaim, Preet Key, Damon Kittleman, Florence Kirkland, Lashawn Koehl, Robert Kramer, Jenny Lanos, Juan Laranjeira, Melissa

Lemon, Amanda Lewis, Nicole Loerich, Melissa Luangkhoth Samantha Lynn, Jesse Malloy, Daniel Marquez, Sandra Martinez, Vanessa

> McFail, Jarreau McManus, Lauren McSwain, Chris Medrano, Cruz Mejara, Ana Mendez, Helen Miranda, Josue Morales, Aylet

Moran, Tom Morgan, Joni Morland, David Naranjo, Gloria Nguyen, Christine Nquyen, Le-My Nina, Maria Niner, Chuck

Juniors

Dreaming in A World of Our Own

Did you ever dream of sunny beaches, iced tea with a pink umbrella and crystal clear waters stretching out before you? Everything seemed so serene, then the teacher had to wake you up and turn your attention back to the lesson.

It was a common sight to see the junior class nodding off some of their free time. It's no wonder that with all the added pressures of junior year (PSAT's, SAT's, sports, clubs, grades, jobs, etc.) that more activities meant less sleep. So what better time to catch up on lost snooze time than in break time?

"Sometimes I had to work 'til 11:00. Sleep is scarce and 1 get it when I can," said Denisha Pelham.

Jobs were becoming a necessity among juniors to pay for cars, gas or just spending money on the weekends. Of course, one of the requirements for these jobs was the that you had to have availabile time to complete homework.

This year when teachers came across a snoozing junior, they let them sleep just a few moments longer to dream in a world of their own.

-Melanie Guryansky

Tu-Anh Bui catches a quick nap during photo class, after working late the night before.

Sleepy Junior. David Morland, catches some zzz's while keeping an ear cocked for any useful information.

Junior year is hard and getting enough sleep is even harder Kim Philley demonstates a common sight among juniors.

Homecoming, Junior Style

Spirit week, football games, new dresses, hall decorating, float building. What do all these things bring to mind? Halloween? No--homecoming of course. This year, the class of '96 put on a good show for homecoming. Exciting themes were tried for the float and hall and a lot of imagination added to the great turnout of junior spirit.

Spirit week kicked off the festivities with a week-long agenda of wacky attire. Juniors made up a large majority of the students seen wearing long johns and slippers along with college sweatshirts and hippie apparel (but not at the same time). Clash day was a different story.

Hall decorating was a successful event that brought a second place win to the well-deserving juniors. The theme "Don't Wager on the Majors" was used and a casino atmosphere was constructed with oversized dice and slot machines.

Disappointment was felt by all at the news that the junior float was disqualified for being late to the judging. Much work went into the making of the float, with the theme "Generals predict a major loss." The float still had a place in the halftime parade with a fortune teller and dried ice adding to the overall moral victory of the junior class.

-Leslie Billings

Juniors, Amanda Hildt, Aimee Barber and Wendy Putnam, pose for a picture (all decked out in their spirit week atire).

Laura Hartman and Kim Philley developed their true identities as hippies on Blast-fromthe-Past Day, during spirit week.

Ruza Aframdoes her part in the hall decorating contest, as she tapes a "slot machine" to the wall for the casino theme.

Homecoming attendants, Emma Brow Eric Calhoun, chat before the outdoor rally.

Reed Harmon and Vania Villanueva combine artistic talents to create the banner that will hang at the entrance of the junior hall.

Tim Trahant fools around with articles to be used in the hall, adding to the light-hearted atmosphere.

Nisha Abreu and Fatima Valdez (teddy bears in hand) pose for a spirit week picture.

At the outdoor pep rally for Homecoming, a crowd of juniors get involved in the excitement—cheering and clapping for the W=a=s=h=i=n-g=t=0. Lee Generals.

Leslie Billings and James DeFillippiwork hard, painting a banner for the Junior Hall.

Vrooom, Vrooom! Yup, That's the Sound of Juniors Behind the Wheel.

Getting your learner's permit, weeks of sitting in a driver's ed. class and the fear of taking your driving test are all a part of getting your license. Most juniors experienced these things first hand. All those weeks of watching driving videos and whining to your parents to take you driving finally paid off.

Think of the world that was opened up to us. No more nagging upperclassmen for rides, no more having your mom escort you on dates, no more biking everywhere. The only thing remaining to make this new world a perfect one is a car of your very own.

Many juniors this year were sporting the '94-'95 ketchup and mustard colored parking permits on their own personal transportation vehicle. Their own car presented a passport to an entirely different world; one where anyone could sneak off campus for lunch if they had a car. Juniors were also exposed to a policeman and tickets. Avoiding trouble was impossible for some juniors. It also opened a world to police and tickets, where juniors had their share of trouble.

Christine Stewart drives around the W-L parking lot, happy to finally get her license.

Tim Trahantsports his party van, as he has a great time driving it around town.

O'Connor, Chris O'Rear, Chris Ogbe, Philipos Oo Ye, Naung Orellana, Jorge Palmer, Veronica Parra, Dolores Partman, Asia

Patsel, Anna Paredes, Litzi Pelham, Denisha Pence, Kevin Phoul, Charanpreet Philley, Kim Phuong, Son Pineda, Paulo

Poplin, Beth Portillo, Jorje Powell, Brian Pradham, Sumita Prazin, Jason Pulliam, Katherine Puryear, John Putnam, Wendy

Qazei, Najibullah Quintanilla, Jose Randall, Kimberly Remington, Cecile Rente, Claudia Reisner, Gabrielle Rivera, Delmy Rivero, Walter

Robinson, Kathy Rodriguez, Karen Romero, Edgar Romero, Edgar Rooney, Kathy Rosado, Neftali Rose, Lakisha Rose, Tiffany

Rose, Towana Salvatierra, Jackie Sanchez, Mikili Sands, Jorge Schiller, Bilik Sharma, Dhruv Shukla, Sidd Severich, Gabriel

Sirikan, Nityaporn Smith, David Soliz, Wendy Sotelo, Flor De Staats, Jeanette Stamps, Peter Stanley, Anthony Stewart, Christine

Strack, Peter Stylianos, Faye Swartz, Eric Sypula, Magda Taylor, Barbara Taylor, Monique Tenequer, Tawnya Tefera, Tsebaot

Thompson, Chanta Tiglao, Larry Torres, Franklin Torrez, Richard Torrico, Johnny Trahant, Tim Uffen, Jordan Urratia, Jose

Juniors Gabrielle Reisner, Jessica Eberhart and Emma Brown, take a relaxing break during lunch. Nice days are spent-out-of-doors on the steps leading into the school.

Denisha Pelham sits in the W-L cafeteria, taking a breather from the typical hard day of a junior.

Valdes, Christina Valdez, Fatima Valenzuela, Fabian Van Orman, Marja Ventura, William Villenueva, Vania Walker, Chris Wang, Pei-Yan

Watts, Kevin Williams, Bethany Wilson, Kristen Yabar, Juliessa Zenteno, Gonzalo

Lunch

Juniors take joy in the thought of this being the last year of being required to eat lunch on campus. In other words, it's the last year of sneaking out to lunch in the trunks of cars, parking in the 66 lot to avoid the lunch pass patrol or just hitting the floorboards when you drive by. The more adventurous junior would give good of Scott and Rick a big wave and smile.

Whether juniors decided to risk in-school suspension or spend the period relaxing with friends, lunch is a time to catch up. Some spent the time doing homework for afternoon classes or last minute studying for an upcoming test, while others would spend this free time gossiping with their friends. In good weather, everyone can be seen outside. Many juniors enjoyed getting into a game of Hackey Sack.

"Lunch is always the first long break we have in the day. It gives us a chance to breathe, and catch up on the latest," says junior on-campus luncher Laura Hartman.

Back in 1984, they let everyone go out to lunch. However, as teenagers are bound to do, they broke the rules and the privilege of off-campus dining was limited to seniors.

Next year, juniors are finally going to be able to enjoy the world of fast-food dining in addition to being able to ride out of the W-L parking lot in dignity.

Chris O'Connor and Sean Evans take time to chill for awhile before returning to class.

Some juniors, with relaxed expressions ponder the meaning of life and also some homework that is due the next period.

Claudia Renteconsorts with Emma Brown on some school work. Lunch is a good time to compare notes with buddies for upcoming tests, or even just to discuss a problem in math class.

Sophmores demonstrate their school spirit by dressing up for Pajama Day during Spirit Week.

Jason Lope de Haro-Salleh pauses to show just how cool one can be while clashing so bad it makes ones eyes hurt.

Jody Wright finally gets a chance to sit down after taking care of all the things she needs to get done to get ready for Homecoming.

The Sophomore class of 1994-95 made the transition from being freshmen last year to being 10th graders this year--looking pretty smooth! Being a Sophomore was more than just a title; it gave the class a small taste of the luxury of being an upperclassman.

Some of the minor steps that the sophomore class took might have seemed pretty insignificant to others, but were a big deal to many students. Some of the experiences the sophomores got to enjoy were bigger lockers, NO Freshman Day and, of course, driving. Driving was always on the minds of sophomores. Several students had their learners' permits, while others actually got a driver's license.

Sophomores were much more familiar with the routine of special events that occur during the school year. Therefore, you saw many more students participating in Spirit Week, float and hall decorating and the Homecoming game and dance. It has to be mentioned that it was really delightful to see how beautifully dressed the Sophomore Attendants were Homecoming night. They added Pizazz to the whole event.

Several sophomores commented that they were not only happy about the social activities that are available to them here at W-L, but they are also appreciative of the academic challenges they are exposed to on a daily basis. Given a choice, most sophomores would choose W-L for a high school all over again.

Abris, Sharon Abris, Sherwan Adams, Joyce Adkins, Robert Aguilar Carlos Ahmad, Shuiab Ahmed, Shabaz Alicea, Cristina Akhmadi, Agni

Aliou, Hela Anderson, Anne Ardon-Munoz, Dany Arguallo, Gustavo Atnell, Curt Ayers, Paul Barber, Tammie Barlou, Velinda Bautista, Vicky

> Baron, Tony Becerra, Zodraya Benitez, Juan Blanco, Daysi Blount, David Blitgen, Jennifer Bond, Amanda Briscoe, Anthony Broas, Jessica

Burch. Paul Burton, Chns Cabrera, Kanna Caldron, Ricardo Camacho, Luis Calloway, Kesha Campos, Daniel Casillas, Sierra Caudron, Jean-Bruce

> Caza, Suzanne Chavarria, Yesica Chavez, Larry Clark, Jason Clark, Step Calguin, Mauricio Contreras, Milton Cortez, Francis Courbois, Renee

Bora Lee dresses up for Pajama Day but doesn't forget her studies as she is eating lunch.

Christie Watson, Bianca Ronguillo, and Erica Lopacinski show their school spirit by dressing up for clash day.

Spirit Week

W-L students had their own annual showing of spirit when Spirit Week rolled around again this school year. The Sophomores showed their spirit on Monday by wearing shirts illustrating their favorite colleges. The most prominent college shirts seen on Monday were of local colleges such as William and Mary and Gerorgetown.

On Tuesday, students were asked to wear their clothes that clashed the most. Clash Day was introduced this year during Spirit Week in place of Crazy Day. Clash Day was a big hit.

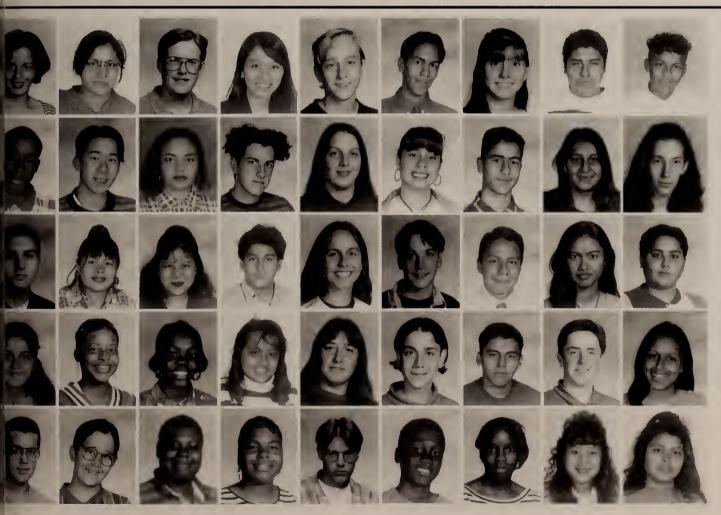

Wednesday was Pajama Day. Instead of dressing up, students just rolled out of bed and went to school. Some favorite costumes were bath robes, slippers, and long-johns. Thursday was Blast From the Past Day. On this day, students rummaged through their attic and wore their parents' old clothes from "back in the day." Blast From the Past Day had costumes from early Roman times, such as togas, to bellbottoms and halter tops from the '70's. Blast From the Past Day is a W-L tradition that everybody enjoys.

Friday was Blue and Gray Day and that is when the school spirit comes through. Students wear clothes with Washington Lee's traditional colors. In the end, the school spirit shown by the students helps everybody get charged up for the Homecoming game.

Enc Klintberg

Jerry Poplin and Rob Knapik take a break from class to show off their spirit with their favortie college shirts.

Courtney, Lavonda Cruz, Silvia Dalrymple, Derek Dela Cruz, Melissa Denny, Robert Deyines, Witham Dominick, Leila Dominguez, Emilio

Drayton Maurice Duong, Lu Echewarna, Jenniler Eddy, Joseph Edwards, Enn Eleane, Genie Elquaradia, Mohamed Escalante, Karla Fernandez Nicholas Franco Reina Fuentes, Guillermo Fulton, Carne Gaines, Benjamin Gaitan, Edwin Games, Catherine Ghannam, Mousa

Gill, Nindy Gillespie Adia Glover, Patrina Gomez, Claudia Gottschalk, Lisa Greenblatt, Noah Guevara, Albert Guevara, Edith Hadary, Michael

Hadip, Nessim Halliday, David Hammond, Travis Harvey Charmain Hawley Jeffrey Heatley Jack Herbert, Nela Hernandez, Bessy Hennquez, Alicia

Homecoming

The 1994 Homecoming was an exciting time for this year's sophomore class. The Sophomores really got into the spirit of it all. Without the stigma of being Freshmen anymore, they could have fun and show their school spirit.

For many Sophomores, this was their first Homecoming. Everyone seemed to be having lots of fun. Tony Valdivieso said, "W-L's Homecoming was a great experience. It was better than Yorktown's, which I also went to. The TV screen and DJ made dancing easier and it was very entertaining."

Representing the class of '97 this year as Homecoming attendants were Tammie Barber, Kate Seikaly, Luis Camacho, Jerry Poplin, and Joe Eddy. When we asked Jerry about what he thought about being a Homecoming attendant he sarcastically answered, "It was a great privelege... just kidding, it was cool!"

The Homecoming football game this year was a nail biter in which W-L almost pulled out the win in the fourth quarter. The W-L students all came to cheer on their fellow classmates and the other football players. The final score was 16-13 in favor of the visitng team, Mount Vernon.

Homecoming will definitely be a fond memory of Sophomore students. As they look back on their long high school years, they'll remember that they were once in "A World of Their Own" right here at W-L Homecoming in 1994.

-Sierra Casillas

Luis Camacho and Tammie Barber, two of the sophomore attendants, are escorted by the JV cheerleaders to the football game.

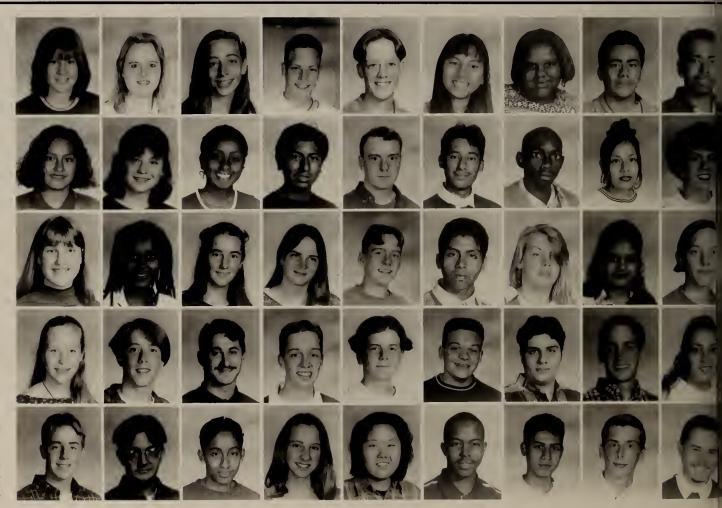

Howard, Erin Hollis, Jessica Hollar, Gillian Holland, Paul Hogan, Michael Ho, Trang Hill, Themicka Herrera, Aroldo Hernandez, David

Irigoyen, Claudia Inge, Amy Hussein, Mona Hurtador, Marco Hunter, Chris Hugo, Diaz Huff, Dejuan Huapaya, Lisbeth Iames, Patricia

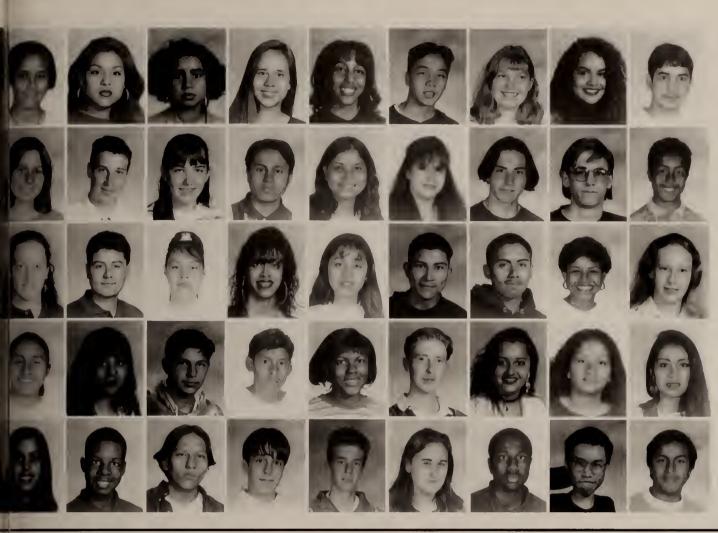

James, Tricia Jarik, Muna Jensen, Anne Jenson, Kristin Jensen, Mark Jimenez, Jose Johnson, Elizabeth Juarez, Evelyn Keating, Owen

> Keller, Mary Kikel, Jay Kirton, James Klintberg, Eric Knapik, Rob Knott, Eric Ksaybati, Tarek Kunze, Patrick Labriny, Laila

Larson, Arnie Lassell, David Lazo, Michael Lederle, Joanna Lee, Bora Lee, Raymond Leiva, Edwin Lengle, Michael Leon, Roberto

Lewis Jelena Lezana, Maggie Liverette, Barbara Lopacinski, Enca Lowery, Kon Lu Jimmy Lugn, Rachel Lina, Jenny Mabood, Razal

Mahaley Tory Mallon Patrick Mallor Christine Manuela Vallejos Marquez Elsy Martin Louis Mason Lawerence Mature Issac

McNomee Kathleer Medrano Jesus Megia Ins Mena Brenda Mercado Carla Melgar, Oscar Mendez Omar Mendez Gaudia Mever Meredith

Mijango, Reyna Mirandaj Sophia Monvalvo Sergio Montero Amilear Moten, Larnice Musser Rob Najarro, Karina Naranto Yasnin Mayuri, Sadid

Newman Rachel Nicholas, Pelzer Nina, Gary Norton, Bhan O'Bonen, Sean O'Connor Lydia Odie, Lynn Oh, Chin Ovando, Marco

Nate Talley shows the school colors as he is sitting with the football team at the home-coming pep rally, trying to concentrate on the upcomong football game

Joe Eddy, Kate Seikaly, and Raymond Leeare getting ready to go to the Homecom ing football game as the sophomore attendants.

Paddock, Crystal Page, Ronald Pak, Jin Woo Palacios, Elsy Purocai, Sean Patel, Achyut Penazola, Isneal Penning, Anna Perez, Asper

Petta, Alicia Pilot, Brad Pino, Michael Poplin, Gerald Postigo, Edmundo Puryear, Anthony Raminez, Ana Ranero, Hector Rangaratna, Parndak

Ranquillo, Bianca Razina, Akhter Reyes, Leonora Reyes, Lenor Ricks, Lakeba Rivera, Michel Robinson, Theus Rodriquez, Jeimy Rodriquez, Jose

Romero, Norma Romero, Oscar Rose, Troy Rouse, Phillip Roy, Jason Ruiz, Barbara Ruiz, Luz Russell, David Ryan, Gina

Saiquita, Aerel Salazar, Kerrie Salgado, Gloria Salinas, Alivia Salinas, Peter Sanchez, Azael Sanchez, Maria Sari, Steven Sayareth, Ty

P.T. Burch, Rachel Newman, Kerrie Salazar, Cristina Alicea, and Jason Salleh show their sophomore unity.

Class Officers

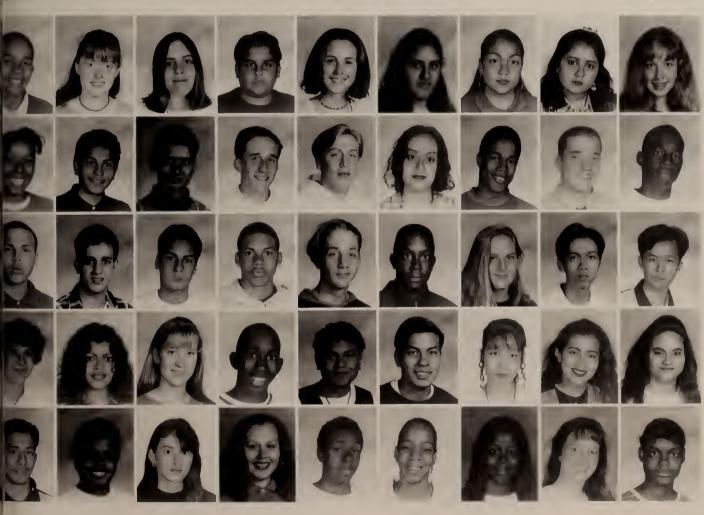

The Sophomore class is involved in all school activities throughout the year. The class officers are elected and they try to meet the needs and desires of their fellow classmates. To raise money for their class, the officers and other sophomores had—carwashes and other fundraisers.

The elected officers of the Sophomore Generals this school year were: Raymond Lee, President; Kerrie Salazar, Vice President; Lakeba Ricks, Secretary; Leila Dominick, Treasurer; Bora Lee, Cassie Turner and Igor Yuzefovich were the Senators and Charmaine Harvey was the School Board Representative.

Getting ready for the Homecoming weekend was a tough task for the officers. They had to oversee Homecoming weekend. This was a tough task for the officers. They had to oversee themaking of the Sophomore float and the participation of fellow sophomore students for the homecoming dance. Vice President Kerrie Salazar said. " There's so much to do, but it all gets done. Above all, it's a good experience and a lot of fun." It was a tough task organizing nearly 400 sophomores but they did it. The 1994-1995 sophomore class officers are worthy of their positions and represent W-L well.

Enc Klintberg

Cassie Turner, Raymond Lee, Kerrie Salazar and Leila Dominick show how much fun it is being a class officer.

Schiller Mika Scholes, Tiffany Scorza, Sara Schmi, Mantej Seikaly Kate Sejas, Mariela Sera, Addinanna Shafi, Rukhsiana Shapard, Cory

Shorter, Leela Sibrian, Efrain Singh, Balder Snider, Wesley Solander Adam Sona, Bonnie Spinner Derrick Standard, Jason Stewart Marcus

Stroble, Tim Subhan, Fazal Sura, Luis Talley, Nate Taylor Brendan Tebnon, Melvin Thomburgh, Glona Train, Minh Hoan Truong, Minh

Tschetter Matt Turcois Blanca Turner Cassie Tyre, Chris Urbina, Oscar Valdivieso, Tony Van Cam, Huynh Vargas, Mariela Vargas, Yesenia

Vasquez Gary Vasquez Juan Ventum, Delmy Villatoro, Jackie Walker Ryan Walton, Johann Ward, Calundra Watson, Christie Wats, Michelle

The World of Sophomores

Remember last year when the sophomores were little, scared, intimdated freshmen? There wasn't hardly any criticism when they realized they weren't freshmen anymore and they really fit in quite well this year.

Sophomores were very involved in extracurricular activities and school clubs. A member of the Girls Tennis team Joanna Lederle said, "Participation in sports teams is a great social activity. You get to know people from different grades and it's something to do after school."

We asked a few sophomores what was on their minds. Their answers were similar; they all had the same response--driving! Sophomores are atthat age where they refuse to be chauffeured around by their parents, but unless you know an upper- classman, you find yourself walking a lot. Erin Howard said, "Not being able to drive is awful. But, until I turn 16, I will be alright because of Red Top Cab."

There's nothing worse than not being able to be able to drive. Who wants their mom to drop them off at a party, or to cruise by Mcdonalds to see what's going on? All in all, sophomores agree, that while being sophomores has been cool, they can't wait to be juinors, when they can experience driving to school for themselvs.

- Sierra Casillas

P.T. Burch and Michel Rivera hang out together in the Commons after school. They think the Commons is a pretty cool place to chill when you aren't in class.

Sophomore Rob Knapik takes a break at lunch time to pose for the camera.

Brendan Taylor takes a break from class and hangs out in the parking lot.

Wells, Kathryn Williams, Jynan Wilson, Alethea Whitley, Josh Wright, Jody Xinyola, Marta Yabar, Eric Yanez, Rhina Young, Tycie ores energetically show their class spirit outdoor pep rally.

These JV cheerleaders look on as the out-door pep rally gets under way

Lu Duong takes a break after a long and hard first peroid class.

Sophomore Activities

The Sophomore class was anxious to get back to school this year.

These students had a lot to look forward to this year. After going through a full year of being tormented by the upperclassmen, they admitted that it felt good not being the underdog.

After going through one year here at W-L, the sophomores were familiar with all the events they would have to get ready for. The year started off slow, but before you knew it they were preparing to participate in all the activities that happened during the fall semester.

Homecoming is an exciting school activity and the sophomores were full of school spirit every day leading up to the Homecoming game and dance. Several students eagerly participated in the special theme days that take placeduring Homecoming week--College Day, Clash Day, Pajama Day, Blast From the Past Day and Blue and Gray Day. Most would agree that the sophomores have come a long way since last year. Everyone here at W-L considers this class a definite asset to the school.

Raj Patel doesn't know what to say as he is caught in the hall after the bell rings.

David Lassell shows his mettle along with his school spirit as he plays a solo.

Two sophomore students receive help after school with the W-L tutoring program.

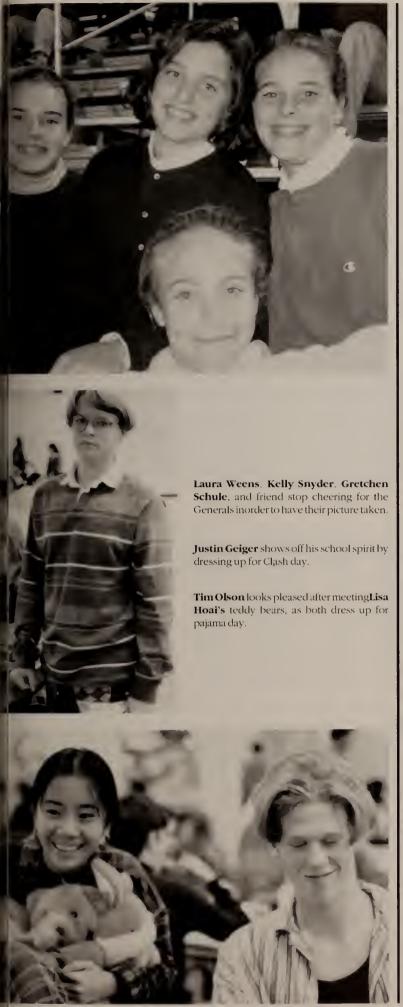

Phil Rouse takes time out in front of his locker to get his picture snapped.

Alicia Petta and Mantej Sehmi shout to their fellow Generals as the football game begins.

Members of the sophomore class show their school spirit as they prepare for the judging of the sophomore float.

In a world of their own, the Freshmen class was not. They quickly made the transition to high school and assimilated into our world. The Senior class left signs welcoming them, and the Welcome to W-L Club did everything necessary to help the new freshmen as much as possible. The tricky part for these new students on the first day was finding their way through the building. Once they got that down all other things started to fall in place.

The freshmen reacquainted themselves with old friends from Middle School and made new friends in their new school. The Freshmen Connection was there to assist the freshmen in dealing with their new class, building, and Guidance Counselors.

The freshmen quickly picked up on the different events that were provided for them by the school's student body. Freshmen were seen at most events this year—football and basketball games, plays, club activities, and car washes. After electing their class officers the class quickly organized and placed fourth in hall decorating, and an outstanding second in the float competition. To raise money for future events and their Prom in four years, the class had bake sales, car washes, and participated in the Holiday Bazaar.

Throughout the year the freshmen were very active in school activities and made a worthwhile addition to our world.

A World On Their Shoulders

Being a class officer is a tough job. So why would anyone want to do it? This year's freshman officers had their own reasons for running for office. Treasurer, Monique Lewis, said, "I ran because it was something new for me."

The freshman class officers for this year were: President, Graham

McBride, Vice President, Sopita Lapsomphop, Secretary, Lisa Hoai, Treasurer, Monique Lewis, Third Vice President, Kelly Snyder, Senators, Michael Newmann, Laura Weems, Gretchen Schule and Courtney Wyckoff, and School Board Representative, Candice Brown.

Lisa Hoai and Johanna Stamps laugh about the ideas that are going around the room at a freshman class meeting.

Kelly Snyder listens in amazement to some of the ideas that come up during a freshman class meeting.

Ahmed, Yamin Alarcon, Hector Aldrich, Nielah Ali, Ragon Alvarado, Lillia Alvarez, Ana Amaya, Beyna Amaya, Wilbert Amin, Shahriar Argueta, William Arias, Edwin

Arias, Wilner Armistead, Jennifer Ashraf, Mehnaz Atoigue, Davin Avisai, Arias Azizkeya, Maria Bacasse, Oliver Baig, Nadeem Balutis, Julie Baron, Richard Barrera, Ana

Batista, Wilfredo Battocchi, Keith Bautistaa, Juan Beck, Andrew Becker, Katie Benjamin, Oscar Bettis, Ben Bilal, Zeshan Blount, Kevin Bort, Jarad Bowers, Melissa

Brown, Candice
Bui, Anh-Yen
Burke, Sean
Byroade, Joby
Calagua, Cynthia
Camacho, Erika
Camacho, Ximena
Campbell, Cindy
Campos, Francisco
Canales, Ben
Canales, Raphael

Candia, Juan
Cannon, Jamar
Cantor, Otto
Cardenas, Isabel
Cardenas, Jonathan
Carter, Benito
Carter, Tina
Castellanes, Jeronimo
Castro, Carlos
Caza, Dorothy
Centeno, Digna

The class officers from 1 to r Gretchen Schule, Kelly Snyder, Laura Weems, Michael Newman, Candice Brown, Sopita Lapsomphop, Monique Lewis, Lisa Hoal, Courtney Wyckoff, and Graham McBride.

Ben Betts waits patiently to contribute his ideas and help his class get organized.

Chandler, John
Christman, Catherine
Chumpitaz, Sandra
Coca, Claudia
Coca, Mauricio
Coles, Thomas
Contreras, Jose
Cook, Stephen
Coppage, Pat
Corea, Brenda
Covarrubias, Cindy

Cruz, Emclin Cruz, Ever Cruz, John Curry, Jan Dailey, Sarah Danforth, Ben Davis, Tamika Davis, Toyre Dawkins, Ronald Decarlo, Kara

De Jesus, Padlo Deck, Juhan Denney, Lakeisha Deras, Ludwin Derham, Chris Dewitt, Jill Diaz, Oldrin Dominguez, Walter Douglas, Russell Droppers, Geoffrey Domkley, Lashawn

Earner, Latoya Ebbitt, Colin Ebert, Wilham Eisenberg, Matt Eldridge, Hal Elezovic, Lena Enriquez, Julio Eppes, Marie Escobar, Edwin Eshlanan, Frie Espinoza, Franz

Feidler, Alex Felker, Frin Fernandez, Carlos Ferrando, Lisa Ferrufino, Ada Flores, Josue Flores, Sandra Florido, Carla Flong, Richard Francois, Taria It looks like Laura Weems, Sopita Lapsomphop, Courtney Wyckoff, Gretchen Schule, and Kelly Snyderdon't have to worry about making new friends.

Monique Lewis looks pretty stressed about being a freshman.

Garate, Cesar Gaito, Joseph Garcia, Angela Garcia, Cecilia Garcia, Juan Garcia, Nelson Gaskill, James Geiger, Justin Ico, Elaine Geter, John Giles-Kelley, Elizabeth

Graham, Markehia Groleau, Linda Grendon, Julie Gutierrez, German Gutierrez, Mauricio Guzman, Maria Hall, Heather Hamilton, Dominique Hardy, Busha Hazelwood, Eddie Hern, Chhoeun

Hendrick, Nicole Henriquez, Elvis Henriquez, Rafael Herbert, Scott Hernandez, Daniela Hernandez, Jose Hernandez, Jose E. Hernandez, Marleni Herrera, William Hertwig, Annette Hinton, Neonta

Gonzalez, Roberto Hiuldt, Lula Hoai, Lisa Hollinden, Lisa Hollman, Laura Hossam, Masrur Hughes, Josh Hunter, Melissa Huntley, Heather Hurdle, Susan Hurtado, Scott

Hussein, Hoda Huynh, Thiet Iglesias, Liqia Iraheta, Olga Jaldin, Jose Jaspers, Rosalena Jeffrey, Steven Jemigan, Elizabeth Jimenez, Gina Jiran, Scarlett Johnson, Greg

It's A Big World After All

Smaller lockers, bigger halls, more classrooms, and SENIORS! High school is a big place—and can be pretty scary for the new freshmen. The class of '98 had some pretty standard fears this year. Erin Felker admitted she was afraid of getting lost. Another fear was not having any friends.

Tim Olson had a unique fear. Tim said, "I'm afraid of the soda machine, it's taller than me."

Most freshmen fears proved groundless. After a few days of confusion things became logical, and the freshmen didn't look so lost. But, yes, the cafeteria food was as bad as they feared!

Pat Valdes looks pretty scared about being alone.

Shariar Amin and Laura Perulan seem pretty worried about what is being said

Johnston-McIntosh, Jamie Kains, Ty Kangethe, Ruth Kao, Peter Karaus, Bryn Kebede, Asmeret Keister, Jennifer Kelso, Richard Khan, Debbie Kirton, Thomas

Lamas, Leslie Lapsomphop, Sopita Lavere, Suzanne Lazevnick, Andrea Ledinh, Wayne Lee, Thomas Lengle, Christopher Lewis, Jovan Lewis, Monique Linares, Gary Linares, Katherine

Linares, Shirely Lucas, Pete Linsangan, Ana Lumives, Jay Ly, Trinh Lynch, Brian Machjavello, Richard Mahmood, Anne Malloy, Kevin Malloy, Kevin Manning, Cedric

Mardakis, Anthony Maroquin, Melissa Marshall, Lisa Martinez, Cristina Martinez, Maria Matute, Jose Maxwell, Santiago McBee, Antoine McBride, Graham McCall, Jenell McDermott, William

McGill, Daniel McLain, Brandi Medina, Francis Mejia, Omar Mohrmann, Jeff Moore, Tonalina Morales, Ana Moran, Frin Moreno, Michelle Morgan, Evan Munck, Suzanna

It's A Different World

There are major differences between W-Land middle school. Here are some of the advantages to high school the freshmen came up with: more freedom; more class choices; more activities; more people; more friends; ... in general, just more! But there can be some disadvantages. Freshmen Susyn Hurdle said, "We have much more work!"

The freshmen and their class sponsors discuss how different high school is.

The general feeling seemed to be that middle school is more like a "big family," while high school is more impersonal.

So, do the freshmen like W-L? Johanna Stamps put it best when she said, "If the rest of high school is as much fun as freshman year has been, I can't wait to advance to each new grade."

Beth Giles and Johanna Stamps react to something unexpected in a new school.

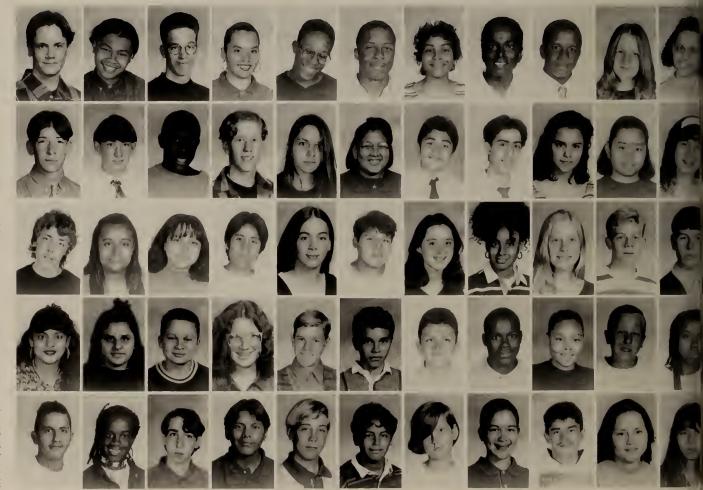

Murray, Benjamin Nacalaban, Marco Nader, George Navas, Jessica Neighbors, Travis Nelson, Natasha Newman, Michael nichols, David Novak, Lara O'Neal, Kellie

O'Rear, Douglas O'Rourke, Ian Obunwo, David Olson, Tim Omartian, Cassie Orala, Patricia Ovando, Pablo Pacheco, Lucas Packett, Jessica Pangilinan, Carla Paqulan, Laura

Payne, Bryan Pereira, Flor Perera, Magaly Perez, Robert Pioutz, Erin Pierola, Jaime Pons, Julia Powell, Lauren Pride, Jessica Puffinger, James Quattlebaum, Matthew

> Rahman, Bokul Rafiq, Taheid Ramirez, Jose Reed, Abby Rekstad, Erick Reyes, Erico Richardson, Charles Richards, Awisha Richter, Rudy Rimson, Ife

> > Rivero, Rey Roach, Yashonta Roberts, Richard Rivas, Julio Rogers, Steven Romero, Walter Rortvedt, Victorici Salgado, Juan Salguero, Carol Sanchez, Beatriz

Ian O'Rourke, Damon Talbot, and Nicki Pfoutz seem to be enjoying a new experi ence--Friday night football

Jill Dewitt has a ball on the moon bounce at the senior carnival.

Sanchez, Orfa Sanchez, Yesenia Sanjines, Veronica Santiaro, Luis Sarris, Minas Sayarath, Soundara Schaefer, Eliot Schule, Gretchen Setule, Summer Sevench, Carla

Sevilla, Jose Sewell, Mark Sharifi, Haider Sineriz, Yurn Singh, Vileram Smith, Valene Snyder, Kelly Sorto, Sonia Sothy, Nich Spring, Adam Stamps, Johanna

Stauffer, Chrissy Steinkamp, Paavd Strong, Kurt Talbott, Damon Thompson, Jason Torres, Barbara Toum, Socheata Trahant, Chris Tran, Tan Trillo, Rosa Trujillo, Giovanna

Tober, Michelle Turcios, Carmen Uffen, Elizabeth Urdininea, Marienela Uti, Micah Valdenegro, Maria Valdez, Sandra Vanorman, John Vasquez, Mark Villalba, Elizabeth

Vasquez, Nichole Vargas, Rafael Vasquez, Rosa Verney, Toshiba Villarroel, Fabio Villatoro, Raul Wasse, Keith Weaver, Emily Weems, Laura Wentzell, Craig Beth Giles, Elizabeth Jernigan, Jill Dewitt, and Debbie Khan look comfortable and stylish on Pajama Day.

Tim Olsonwent wacky on Clash Day with a striped jacket and a crazy tie.

These freshmen took advantage of Pajama Day to chill in their PJs.

Whitehead, Kenneth Whittaker, Adam
Wilson, Seth
Woodson, Robaleen
Wurfel, Steve Wyckoff, Courtney
Xu, Jin
Yin, Yunan
Zalkind, Robert
Zapata, Karen
Zelaya, Rubidia

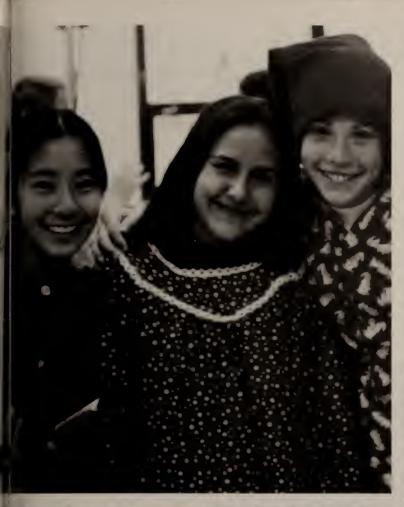

A World Gone Wacky

College sweatshirts, striped shirts busy freshmen came to school and floralties, flannel pajamas, and a dozen more strange looks could be "spotted" on the class of '98 during Spirit Week '94.

Some freshmen went so crazy that they wore themselves out. Kelly Snyder said,"You haven't even seen my whole outfit." Even ready to sleep on Pajama Day Blast from the Past Day was a psychedelic flashback. The classic Blue and Gray Day brought out more people than anything else. After a slow start one thing became very clear--bell bottoms and freshmen seemed to go together.

Lisa Hoai, Angela Garcia, and Kelly Snyder show their sleepy school spirit

Kayti Welsh shows of I her teddy bear to Anthony Mardakis on Pajama Day

Beth Giles, Tim Olson, and sJohanna Stamps look pretty comfortable in their pajamas.

Outta This World

There was a knock at the door and two sheepish looking freshmen wandered in with a, "Sorry we're late, we couldn't find the room," story. Freshman year, Homecoming week just seems to go that way. It's hard to get organized and figure out what's going on, but the class of '98 did better than most.

At the first class meeting, ideas for hall and float decorations flew across the room. Ben Betts suggested "We're not tame, we're going to win the game." Eventually the class settled on the theme of 'Generals March On' for their float, and 'Generals Invade Mount

Vernon' for their hall. Class sponsors Mr. Peters, Ms. Tichian, and Mr. Stroebel helped to get the freshmen rolling, with very successful results. Although the freshmen finished fourth in the hall contest, their float came in second, beating the juniors and sophomores. "It was almost enough to help us overcome our disappointment when we found out we hadn't won the hall competition, as was originally announced," saidGraham McBride. Their strong showing in the float contest seems to indicate great things in the future from the class of 1998. At the game, the freshmen made up a large part of the crowd. A boisterous class to begin with, they cheered for their attendants and officers at halftime. The Freshman Homecoming attendants were Benito Carter, Harold Neely, Erica Camacho, and Lisa Hollinden, all of whom glowed at halftime. Many freshmen took advantage of their first Homecoming dance to party until the last strains of music faded away. Most seemed to agree with Bryn Karaus when she said, "Dancing the night away was so much fun."

-Ruza Afram

The Freshmen Cheerleaders line up to "take a bow" at the Homecoming Game.

Johanna Stamps and Micah Utt rush to finish the freshmen hall by the deadline.

Attendants Lisa Hollinden, Benito Carter and Erica Camacho smile for a picture before the Homecoming parade

Bryn Karaus and Beth Giles showed their spirit by dressing up to be on the freshmen float.

Justin Geiger and Nich Sothytake a break to pose for a picture during hall decoration.

Joby Byroade and Brian Lynch work hard to create part of the freshmen float.

Dear Seniors,

Finally, you feel you have made it to the top and you have! This year, more than any other year of high school, has great expectations by you and for you. You are ready to be the leaders that everyone expects you to be.

Within this book you will find those memories that you will treasure for as long as you will live. Your girl friends and boy friends will always be a part of your thoughts when you look through this book. There will be happy moments remembered and, I am sure, a few unhappy ones also but the happy ones will far outweigh the others.

You are ready to move to another stage of your life. I hope we have prepared you well and that you will always feel that the years you spent in high school were "worth the effort".

Best of Luck and may your future bring you much happiness.

SincereTy)
William J. Sharbaugh

Mr. Crawley is proud of his positio Assistant Principal and Dean of the Ju Class. He is also proud to display his No State University sweatshirt.

The Administrators of Washington-Lee time out of their busy schedules to smil the camera.

Mr. Shumaker is the new Athletic Director at W-L; and we are proud of the great job he has done so far.

At the Senior Carnival, Mr. Bethel shows his dedication to the senior class by volunteering to get soaked in the dunking booth.

After a hard day of enforcing the rules. Officer Peralta takes a few moments to relax.

Mr. Crawley and Mrs. Bratt show off their school spirit by dressing up during Spirit Week.

Mrs. Bratt is one of the Assistant Principals and the Senior dean.

School Spirit

Every year here at W-L, there is a Spirit Week in which students and teachers show their school spirit. It takes place the week of Homecoming.

Each day of the week is a separate party. On each day, you have to dress according to the theme of that day.

On Monday, Mrs. Ledyard, Miss Barclay, Mrs. Woods, Ms. Leverton, and Miss Harmon dressed themeselves properly for College Day. All of them were wearing various sweatshirts with the name of their favorite college on the front.

On Tuesday, Mrs. Bassler became color blind when she dressed herself for school on Crazy Day.

Mrs. Jeens is totally spirited for Blue and Gray Day, All she knows is that Washington-Lee is the best.

It looks as though Mrs. LaBarbara is ready to crawl back into bed on Pajama Day.

Are Mrs. Ledyard, Miss. Barclay, Mrs. Woods, Ms. Leverton, and Miss Harmon trying to recapture some memories of their College Days?

She tried to clash and succeeded.

On Wednesday, Mrs. LaBarbara crawled right out of bed for Pajama Day. When asked what she thinks about spirit week, she replied, "It's a time for students and teachers to be able to express their school spirit. It gives everyone an opportunity to participate, regardless of their afterschool commitments."

On Thursday, Ms. Osso entered a time warp when she stepped into her closet to get dressed for Blast From the Past Day.

On Friday, Mrs. Jeens dug out all of her Washington-Lee paraphernalia for Blue and Gray Day.

As you have read, the Faculty takes great pride in showing their school spirit during spirit week.

ART Bicklehaupt, Joan Crockett, Kevin BUSINESS Dawson, Denise Levine, Joann Massaro, Melinda

Moorhead, Lucy PHYSICAL ED Auerbach, Colleen Belk, Anthony Harris, Brenda Mulhern, Jim

MATHEMATICS
Southard, Arlene
Southard, Gary
Thoburn, Carl
Uveges, Rod

MUSIC Jenkins, Theresa

Klontz, Mary-Hannah Robinson, Alexander -Chair

SCIENCE Delacy, Margaret Kenefake, Tom McMahon, Dawn

McNamara, Rich Rodger, Chris Saieed, Alfred Sotak, Anne Varn, Celita

Walden, Tom Weinhardt, Fred - Chair

SOCIAL STUDIES
Albers, Lester Grove, Doug
Jeens, Peggy

Leeb, Marilyn Murray, Mike Paterson, Ron - Chair Schelstrate, Tom Spicer, Audrey

Wyatt, Tim

SPECIAL EDUCATION

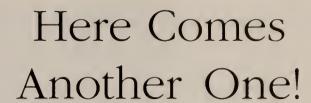

Bentley, Tony - Asst. Brown, Bernard - Asst. Clyburn, James Geer, Sylvia

LaBarbera, Marilyn, Senior Adviser Mason, Beth Pleas-Humbert, Irene Thomas, Susan VanKirk, Christine

Washington-Lee High School is one of the schools that has teachers who have taught at this school for a long period of time. Most of the teachers say that it's a pleasure and an honor to teach at Washington-Lee High School for a long time.

Mrs. Jeens, for example, has taught at this school for 28 years and she says, "I have taught the parents of students I now have in class or have had in class. It has been an extremely meaningful experience for me to be able to watch my "kids" grow, mature, and turn into responsible adults."

Mrs. Jeens continued to comment as follows, "I have had an exciting life as a teacher at Washington-Lee and I consider it to be a wonderful experience in every way. I love this place, my "kids", and my colleagues. They are like a family to me."

Mrs. Kackley, Mr. Hatch, and lots of other teachers have been teaching at this school for a long time, and they also think it is a pleasure teaching the children of their past students.

-Fatin Al-Mobarak

Mrs. Frankel neverfogets to show her school spirit.

Both Mrs. Delacy and Dr. Weinhardt have had the pleasure of teaching an older brother or sister of many of the current students

Ms. Harmon has given guidance to many pairs of brothers and sisters during her career here at Washington-Lee.

SPECIAL EDUCATION

Whelan, James Weisand, Pam White, Ben

GUIDANCE

Barclay, Clare Harmon, Margaret

Ledyard, Ann Lopez, Carole JOB PLACEMENT Hill, Eric LIBRARY Varga, Lisa Grady, Yvonne- Chair

Excuse me, where is...

Being a new student is one thing; being a new member of the teaching staff is another story. Imagine, it is your first day and you need to ask a fellow educator where a certain room or the bathroom is. Embarrassing, right? Perhaps!

Thanks to the friendly faculty, the new teachers this year felt very welcome. It is also safe to say that the outstanding student body made these teachers feel welcome.

One of the new teachers this year was Mrs. Wagner, who teaches Business Law. When asked what her first impression of Washington-Leewas, she said, "Students and staff seem content here at W-L. Most students are committed to their purpose of getting an education."

Mr. Peters, a new addition to the English department, was asked to comment on his experiences here so far. He said, "My experience here has been a positive one. The staff has been very supportive and they go out of their way to make a new teacher feel comfortable."

I thought that as a part of the student body we were supposed to make new teachers dread coming to school. What happened?

-Mindy Trigger

Mrs. Wagner is the new Business Law teacher, and hopes she stays here for a long time.

Mr. Belk is the new P.E. teacher and also the new Varsity Football Coach. He has done a fine job in both areas.

SECRETARIES Adams, Jennifer Bonaccorso, Nancy Bratton, Shirley Cardozo, Odalis Harris, Margaret

McDonough, Pat Rojas, Patricia Watson, Judy Woods, Judy SPECIAL SERVICES Garcia, Bob

CUSTODIANS Adams, Brenda Chapman, Andre Chicas, Maria Gill, Thomas Lam, Son Ngoc

Nguyen, Uyen Ramirez, Orlando Smith, Linda Trinh, Huong Ngo CAFETERIA Calandra, Kay

Conrad, Nancy Fawcett, Irene Landaverde, Maria Miller, Virginia Norton, Mary

The following faculty and staff members are not shown:

Art: Robyn MeGonegal, Gary Spicer; Business: Tucker Freeman, Peggy Wagner; Health & Physical Ed: Lori Grimm, Shelli Wooldridge; English: Wathen Kackley, Joan Nester, Ken Strobel; HILT: Felicia Meier, Marilea Rabasa, George Spanos, Julio Torrico; Home Economics: Theresa Celusniak; Interlude: Leon Shelnutt, Dr. Debra Stoll; Foreign Language: Lucy Dilger, Betty Rivera, Karen Wilde; Mathematics: Lorenzo Crandle, Meg Gibbon; Special Education: Pamela McCloud, Ailenda Mangan - Chair, Charles Philips; Guidance: Rosa Colello, Leonard Goldblatt, Geraldine Hawkins; Library: Valerie Avancena; Secretaries: Charolette Brown, Joyce Fall, Dorothy Wilson, Marianne Leverton, Gladys Matos, Carole Thomas, Kathy Williams; Special Services: Nancy Harrington, Maria LaRue, Christine Rhyne, Andrea Shoham; Clinic: Suzanne Nole, Marryanna Machacek; Cafeteria: Tam Nguyen, Mary Ann Pelham, Ana Prudencio, Rosa Rivero, Hanh Vuong; Swimming Pool: Robert Snow, Jim Thomas; Custodians: Scott Andrews, Sunday Aytolye, Manuel Cardoza, Debbie Wooten; HVAC: Ed Haynos; Alternative Program: Tom Chisnell; Resource Assistant: Rick Cauthen, Scott Forbes.

Mr. Southard will never tire of assisting a student with a math problem.

Officer Joe Peralta has always been there to provide assistance and saftey for all.

Mrs. Lopez has always brought lots of cheer to the Guidance department, and every chance she gets to show off her school spirit she takes full advantage of it.

How long has it been?

Every now and then, lots of students wonder how long it has been for some of the teachers that still teach here at Washington-Lee High School. Well, now it's time for you to know. Almost every teacher thinks that it's a big honor and pleasure for them that they are still teaching at Washington-Lee High School.

Many teachers appear like they haven't been here long. For instance, Madame Beaston, who teaches French, has been teaching at this school for 12 years. What she likes about teaching most is helping the students who want to learn.

Mrs. Southard is another teacher who has been teaching here for a long time. She has been here for 10 years and when asked what she likes best about W-L she replied. "My husband."

The fact that many teachers have been here for a long time makes me feel at ease. They know all the right techniques to making teaching fun.

-Fatin Al-Mobarak

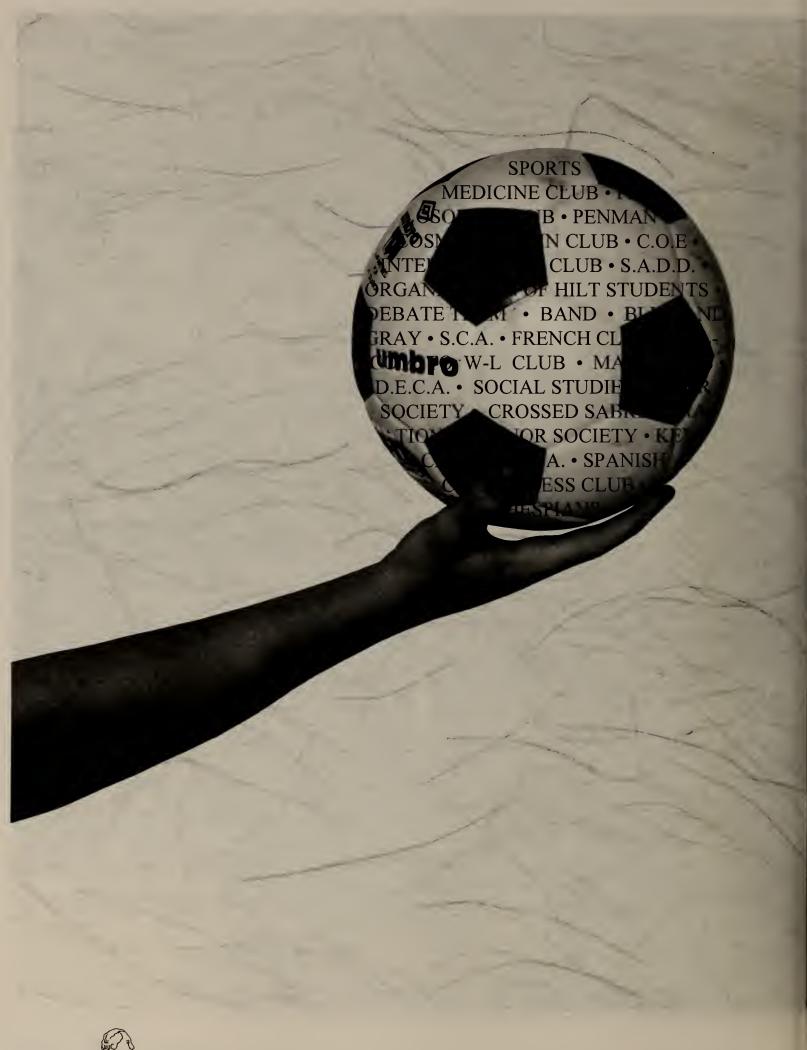

After being at Washington-Lee for many years, Mrs. Bassler still takes pleasure in dressing up for crazy day.

Though not a senior staff member.Mr. Grove is still able to capture the students' attention for an entire period.

Mrs. LaBarbera, Mrs. Dawson, and Mrs. Van Kirk will always love dressing up on Pajama Day, no matter how many years they teach.

One of the senior staff members at this school, Mr. Hatch, still enjoys teaching and inspiring students.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson addressed the student body during an African Awareness Month Assembly. He spoke to the students on varying topices, with a main emphasis on staying in school—and "Hope over Done."

Nicole Lewis, Ana Reyes, and Molly Felker posed with Rev. Jackson before the school assembly started. After the assembly, Nicole thanked Rev. Jackson for coming and gave him a present and a certificate of appreciation.

Mrs. Spicer gets a welcoming hug from Rev. Jackson—It was through hard work by Mrs. Spicer, Mrs. Thomas, and Mrs. Jeens that Washington-Lee was able to have Rev. Jackson come and speak to the student body.

The clubs and other organizations here at Washington-Lee High School are numerous and reflect the diversity of the student body. Most students get involved with one or more of these organizations and, as a result, interact with and assist other students or members of the community that they would not otherwise have the opportunity to meet. Involvement in an organization allows our students to learn about people and cultures from all over the world. In addition, they are taught skills that they may not learn in subject classes throughout the day such as fund raising, leadership skills, coordinating and overseeing various events with other club members.

The staffs of Blue and Gray, Crossed Sabres, and Penman did an outstanding job producing material for students and faculty to read once again this year. The Environmental club demonstrated a real concern about recycling and provided boxes for teachers to recycle all used white paper. The Key Club members were the hosts of a special breakfast for teachers. The academic clubs invited guest speakers to talk to students about topics that were decided upon by club members during meetings. The many language and ethnic clubs exposed students to multicultural activities related to dance, music, and drama.

The African Awareness Society, under the direction of Mrs. Audrey Spicer and Mrs. Irene Pleas-Humbert, was responsible for inviting the Rev. Jesse Jackson to our school on February 24, 1995. Mrs. Susan Thomas was also influencial in helping to bring the Reverend Jackson to Washington. Reverend Jackson spoke to the students at an all-school assembly on topics ranging from staying in school, African American history, racism, self-respect, and voting, to having "HOPE OVER DOPE." Reverend Jackson provided inspiration to all who attended this event. This was one of the highlights of the year in our world here at Washington-Lee.

Fatin Al-Mobaraktakes a quick break.

A group of Key Clubbers pose after a long strenuous walkathon which benefitted diabetes.

The Key Club is a popular club here at Washington-Lee, which is concerned with community service. Aside from weekly afterschool meetings, students in this club volunteer their time and effort attending club-sponsored events. Various walkathons, and acting as guides in public places, are common occurrences for Key Club members.

Key Clubbers can often be seen selling candy throughout the year and the money earned is contributed to charity. Both the Oyster Roast and the Halloween Food Drive were extremely successful. The biggest highlight of the year, however, was the Annual Key Club Convention where most of the Key Clubs on the east coast congregated to exchange information.

Every member of the Washington-Lee Key Club seemed to agree that there was a feeling of satisfaction that came from caring for others and helping their community to be a better place. Lieutenant Governor Laura Hartman exclaimed, "Key Club is great! We have lots of fun while serving the community!" The other officers this year were: President Ruza Afram, Vice President, Tu-Anh Bui; Treasurer, Robyn Sampson; Secretary, Andre Chautard; Press Secretary, Christy Carl and Kiwanas Liason, Nindy Gill.

EQUAL

Valktoberfest

The Key Club is concerned with making their world a better place.

LUDEN'S

Robyn Sampson and Tu-Anh Bui, both Key Club officers, work at the Oyster Roast, a very popular activity.

the times they spend together as totals.

The advanced Thespians doing what they do best -- Getting Creative.

Thespians

It must be said that the Thespians are the heart of the entertainment at W-L. They produce plays and render technical assistance at school assemblies that make drama fun and enjoyable to all W-L students. The purpose of the Thespians is to encourage students to participate in all aspects of the theatre and to foster an appreciation of drama

This year the Thespians produced two major plays. The fall play was "The Bulter Did It", a murder mystery played by W-L's top drama students, and the early spring play was "Lost In Yonkers," both of which were directed by Mrs. Filpi. This year the advanced Thespians participated in the Virginia Theatre Association Conference in Richmond, with the one act play "Goodbye to the Clown." They also took part in the Virginia High School League one act play festival.

Shawn Northrip enjoys "acting up" just about any time.

Jody Olsen and Neat Sothy starred in the Fall play, "The Butler Did It."

Taking Care of Our World

This year the Environmental Club got off to a great start. With Nindy Gill and Molly Felker as Co-Presidents, Rania Anwad as Vice-President, Andre Chautard serving as Treasurer, and Mrs. Sotack as sponsor, the club was able to achieve a number of their goals. Since the beginning of the school year, the Environmental Club was in charge of white paper recycling at Washington-Lee. They also participated in the "Adopt A Highway" program on Glebe Road. They made field trips to look after their highway by picking up litter and keeping the streets clean. Many of the attractive grounds can be attributed to the care the Environmental Club gives the trees and shrubbery. Beneath all of their much appreciated efforts, the essential purpose of the W-L Environmental Club is to foster envirometal awareness by thinking globally and acting locally.

On one of their many nature walks, club members spot something in the sky.

Tree-hugger Emma Brown is always eager to take care of our environment.

It's A Philosophy Thing

Washington-Lee high school has an unsung group of students who want "to promote thought, to share ideas, and to come to terms with life." However, unlike the various other clubs, this group stands out because of their enthusiam to establish their own library. This is, of course, the W-L Philosophy Club, and leading this young group of facilitators are Seniors Sarah Riggs and Erin Pfouz. Along with their sponsor, Mrs. Martin, they plan to participate in many activities throughout the year, such as pooling dues funds and contributions, and participating in a learning style survey and right-brain\left-brain\ activities. They have also rounded up a few guest speakers to add to their list. This group has many things in store for the 1994-1995 school year. This year the club has many other activities to add to their list that will make this group never be forgotten. Mrs. Martin has high expectations for this group as well as the club members themselves. Sarah Riggs and Erin Pfoutz and the other club members try hard to keep this club on top. When you think of the Philosophy Club just think of their motto: "To promote thought, to share ideas, and to come to terms with life." One would probably ask, "How does one come to terms with life?" If you happen to see one of the club members, just go right up to them and ask.

Emma Brown and Melissa Byroadeenjoy a friendly chat during class.

Philosophy Club members, Erin Pfoutz and Kim Philly, listen intently as Sarah Riggs reads aloud.

The Philosophy Club talks about what's next on the agenda.

The Debate Team

This year's Debate team, sponsored by Mr. Harocopos, has much to give to the students of this school. This program gives students experiences in junior varsity and interscholastic debates. The team meets once a week to prepare themselves for the tournaments which take place October through April. The team participates in all of the interscholastic debate tournaments of the Washington-Arlington Catholic Forensic League.

This young group of combatants also attends the George Mason University Invitational Debate Tournament, and all of the Virginia High School League competitions. To add to this list of stimulating activities, each summer a number of the Debate Teams's members attend the George Mason University Summer Debate Institute for one or two weeks--and longer if they actually like it there. (Just kidding you guys)! But on a real tip, this young group of students are being exposed to various activities which will definitely enhance their academic careers. There were numerous scrimmages throughout the year, and Mr. Harocopos is once again proud of the team's performance.

Of course there may be nothing like seeing a target, or planning a strategy, because that's verbal argument,(moderated by a neutral party). Whatever your interest, there is always a General interest in such a contest of wit.

The Debate Team, doing what they do best--"Debating."

James Defilippi, Jeff Geiger, Jodie Olson, and Rania Awwad all ask questions in this heated conversation.

listens to hear what will happen next.

as the class discussion goes on.

Emma Brown, David Morland, andRuza Afram represent W-L, as they compete against two other local high schools.

Jin Woo Pak thinks studiously before ringing in and answering the question correctly

It's Academic

It's Academic is one of Washington-Lee's competitive clubs. Twice a week, eight committed members of the club gathered before school for a while to answer trivia questions. Under Patricia Wilkerson's expert guidance, the members of the club learned how to apply knowledge on a competitive level.

After six grueling weeks of practice, three students were chosen to represent W-L at a televised match against two other local high schools. David Morland, Ruza Afram, and Emma Brown appeared on television on December 10, although the taping took place a month and a half earlier. Every member of the band and cheerleaders came to the studio to give their support. A few dedicated fans from W-L also showed up to cheer the team on. Our team placed second behind Wilson High School, but winded up well ahead of Marshall High School. One alternate Andre Chautard declared, "We have many gifted students and everyone of us will be back next year to be even more successful."

Throughout the rest of the year, club members participated in other competitions in which they acquired even greater success. When asked what she liked best about the club, Ruza Afram replied, "It's a good way to learn things and make friends at the same time,"

Andre Chautard, Emma Brown, and Larry Chavez are ready to ring in.

NHS sponsors, Dr Weinhardt and Ms. Nocera, smile at the goings-on at a NHS meeting.

NHS President, Michelle Yi, goes over the agenda at a meeting.

On Top of It All

They exhibit scholarship, leadership, and service. They are the ones who always seem to have it all together, and they're pretty decent people (after all, the fourth qualifying characteristic is character). Who are these mysterious, incredible people? They are the members of the Washington-Lee National Honor Society.

The NHS is one of the oldest clubs at Washington-Lee, and for years it has been honoring the school's best and brightest. This year's NHS was no exception. Students had to maintain a 3.5 grade point average and be involved in various activities in and out of the school. That was pretty tough considering most NHS members took advanced courses during the 1994-1995 school year.

Students seem to like NHS for a variety of different reasons. Junior Amanda Hildt said, "I like NHS because it's geared toward helping the local community." Each member had to have ten hours of community service, so beyond this, students were involved in a variety of community projects. For many, helping others was its own reward. Others feel being in NHS is a reward in itself.

This year's president was senior Michelle Yi, Vice-President was junior Sidd Shukla, and the Secretary and the Treasurer were seniors Robyn Sampson and Matt Wells, respectively.

-Ruza Afram

.....

Liz Eldridge and Hua Dai get involved at an NHS meeting.

Riesner, Emma Brown, and Sarah ick go over an agenda for an SCA ing.

Mrs. Morris and Sarah Harrick talk about an upcoming event.

Running Our World(SCA)

They were there to "provide the structure and organization." They were there to oversee and sponsor Washington-Lee activities student-style. Most of all they were there to help. Who were they? Obviously, they were the Student Council Members.

This year's Student Council Association was headed by President, Sarah Harrick(senior); First Vice President, Emma Brown (junior); Second Vice President, Patrick Kunze (sophomore); Third Vice President, Kelly Snyder (freshman); Secretary, Ria Riesner (senior); Press Secretary, Jennifer Ocampo; and three senators from each class.

While it was a big responsibility, being on the Student Council Association was also a lot of fun for the officers. Kelly Snydersaid. "You wonder if you're doing everything the way others want because they voted for you. Things usually work out." The officers enjoyed what they were doing, and the student body enjoyed the results of their labors. Brown, who has been on SCA each of her three years here, said, "Given the chance, I'd do it all over again." The Student Council had a tremendous workload this year, as in past years. As usual they did a superb job with all events.

Laura Weems, Emma Brown, and Gretchen Schule smile for a picture at a meeting.

Igor Yusefovich looks over a plan for an SCA event.

Social Studies

Honor Society

The one and only Social Studies organization (the Social Studies Honor Society) provides W-L students with time to share with simalarly interested peers. The elaborate induction ceremony included a prominent speaker who addressed old and new members about a political topic.

To become a member of the club, W-L students must demonstrate scholarship, honor, character, and maintain an A/B average.

At the quarterly meetings, Social Studies Honor Society members discuss current events and plan who they would like to host as a guest speaker. MemberLeslie Billings stated, "The Social Studies Honor Society is a wonderful club where I can share my political views and gain information from others." This club is an excellent way for students to enhance their knowledge about current events outside of the classroom.

The officers this year were President, Liz Eldridge; V-President, Eric Calhoun; Secretary Melissa Byroade; Treasurer Emma Brown.

Matt Wells, Robyn Sampson, and Andre Chautard listen and help the officers plan which speakers they would like to hear.

Jody Olsen, Leslie Billings, and Nindy Gill enjoy discussing current events.

What in the World?

Two organizations at Washington-Lee have members that are dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge in science. These organizations are the Science Research Club and the Science Honor Society.

The Science Research Club conducted weekly meetings to keep students informed of year-round science competitions. In addition, students in this club received assistancein doing research. It is a common occurrence to see members dropping by the science classrooms to discuss various scientific

Meredith Meyer contemplates which science competitions she would like to enter

Tu-Anh Bui, Science Research Club V-President, tries to organize the many scientific activities.

Sidd Shukla and Ryan Agnew walk down the hall, following a Science Research Club Meeting topics. Many of these topics are directly related to the students' science projects.

The culminating activity of the year was the Virginia Junior Academy of Science. This took place at a Virginia university. Students submitted a research paper, then took three days off from school to give a presentation in front of a panel of judges. Cash awards were given—out for outstanding research.

Officers were President, Rebecca Bladen; V-President, Tu-

Anh Bui; Tresurer, Andre Chautard, and Co. Secretaries Ryan Agnew and Joseph Eddy.

The Science Honor Society's purpose was to acknowledge the students who excelled in science. Any Washington-Lee students who consistently earned A's and B's in science classes were eligible to join. Members of this club have the opportunity to develop further science interests by participating in field trips and listening to scientific speakers augment their science knowledge.

French Among Our Own

Because of the amazing cultural diversity at Washington-Lee, the French Club and Honor Society are popular organizations. The French Club, sponsored by Mr. Hadiji, participates in a number of culturally influenced activities. Among these activities are movie festivals, candy sales of different types of French candy and selling French Crepes at the annual Christmas Holiday Bazaar. At the head of this club are President, Andre Chautard; Vice President, Cecile Remington : Secretary, Maria Hernandez & Treasurer, Francisco Carranza.

The French Honor Society is an unique group of individuals in the French Department. This prestige arrives from students who work hard and put forth extra time and effort to maintain a B or better average in French II or higher level courses. Under the sponsorship of Madame Beaston, this society decided not to participate in the election of class officers simply because they enjoy sharing the responsibilites, fun, and enjoyment together. Participation in this or any other language honor society is an exciting experience which allows students to have in-depth involvement with other cultures.

-Chriissy Hall

French Club president Andre Chautard and Maria Hernandez discuss their upcoming activities.

After a meeting, Renee Curbois and Jody Wright talk and laugh about how much fun they have being a part of FHS.

French Honor Society members relish in the excitement of their achievements

The fun one can have in being a of the French Club is obvious looking at Cecile Remington

Ann Tonakarn, a member of the Spanish Honor Society thinks about all that must be done

These students vote for officers of these two organizations.

Eric Calhoun takes the minutes of the meeting for the Spanish Honor Society and Spanish Club.

Español en Nuestro Mundo

To learn more about the Spanish culture and language, students here at W-L can turn toward two organizations. The Spanish Club and Spanish Honor Society meetings both are gatherings which are popular with students who speak, or are learning to speak, Spanish.

The Spanish Club is known for fostering cooperation and friend-ship between members. Among the biggest events that the club participated in were the Christmas Bazaar and International Night. The Winter Holiday Celebration was another highlight. This year's officers were President, Sidd Shukla; V-President, Sarah Harrick; Secretary, Matt Kikel; Tresurer, Whit Clements; and Publicity Students Tu-Anh Bui and Matt Kikel.

The Spanish Honor Society honors students who have demonstrated excellence in the understanding of the Spanish language. Club members perform activities to enhance their knowledge in Spanish culture and language. Members also enjoy tutoring other Spanish students.

Officers were President, Sarah Harrick; V-President, Eric Calhoun; Secretary, Kathy Rooney; Tresurer, Laura Hartman; and a Publicity Students Jimmy Baker and Tu-Anh Bui.

Both of these organizations are good ways to find out what the Spanish language is all about.

Sponsor, Mrs. Pleas-Humbert, takes a break from reviewing the agenda to smile for the camera.

The members of the African Awareness Society gather for a group picture.

African Awareness In Our World

In a school as diverse as Washington-Lee, it is important that students have a way to understand different ethnic groups. For black students and others, this year's African Awareness Society attempted to help increase the understanding of African and African American culture in a variety of ways.

The Society met twice monthly to discuss issues facing African American students at Washington-Lee and in society as a whole. The society was headed by President, Nicole Lewis (junior), Vice President, Angel Mayo (senior), Treasurer, Yolanda Peele (senior), and Secretary, Chelsey Culley (junior). The club was sponsored by Ms. Audrey Spicer and Mrs. Pleas-Humbert. The club was very active, sponsoring W-L's Talent Show, Gospel Fest, and the African American History Month Program. The club also ran several fundraisers to allow them to attend cultural activities in the metropolitan area.

Ms. Spicer said, "I feel this was a very successful year for us. We've gotten several students involved and interested in really understanding what's going on. Our school needs that."

. -Ruza Afram

Sudie Wentling smiles before talking to AAS sponsor, Mrs. Spicer.

Felker, president of the Welcome To llub, begins the meeting.

Emily Mardakis is caught off guard as the meeting begins.

Welcome To W-L

The Welcome To W-L Club is an organization that tries to help orient new students to the school. It does this by giving students a big brother or sister to answer their questions and assist them as they become familiar with the W-L way. This club met every third Thursday of the month in room 235. The sponsor of the Welcome To W-L Club was Mrs. Carol Lopez.

The Welcome To W-L Club had many officers who helped to keep order in the meetings and run the club. The Presidents were Rania Awwad and Molly Felker. The Vice Presidents were Monica Villanueva and Emily Mardokis. The Secretary was Rebecca Bladen. Eileen Mcgill was in charge of Public Relations.

The Welcome To W-L Club is a very special organization that really helps new students become a part of W-L. Without it, many students would be lost. "Our purpose is to facilitate new students' joining sports and participating in extra-curricular activities at W-L," Mrs. Lopez said.

This club is one of many special clubs here at W-L. It helps students and it helps to make the atomosphere at school a lot more pleasant. Without clubs such as "Welcome To W-L," and the numerous other clubs here at W-L, education and learning would not be enjoyable for most students.

-Enc Klintberg

Welcome To W-L Club members and officers report their latest news.

The members of Welcome To W-L. Club take time out of a meeting for a group photo.

LASA

LASA is an organization that is committed to increase student participation in all school activities. The other purpose of LASA is to teach and give a positive image of Hispanic students as a whole. Preparation for the Hispanic students toward leadership roles is yet anothergoal stressed by LASA.

The officers of LASA met every Wednesday during lunch time in Mrs. Dama Vasquez's office. The meetings with other members were every other Wednesday after school.

LASA had many special events and activities for their members. One activity involved presentations by the members about the situations of Hispanic students in universities. To go along with this activity, LASA members met with Hispanic students from several universities.

To further help the Hispanic students here at W-L, LASA set up car washes, candy sales and bake sales to raise money. A LASA member was quoted as saying, "LASA members have to have devotion, determination and enthusiasm to accomplish their goals."

Jaquleine Via, Silvia Cruz and Maria Munoz receive instructions about the objectives for that meeting's assignment.

Josmine Irigoyen looks over the worksheet she was given concerning LASA.

Organization of HILT Students.

The Organization of HILT Students is in its third year here at W-L. This valuable club has many functions and sponsors numerous activities. The main purposes of the organization is to build leadership qualities among students who have come to the U.S. from different countries and to help involve these students in all school activities. The club gives out weekly information to HILT Students in order to involve these students in everything from sports to school dances.

The sponsor of the club this year was Ms. Osso. The club was unique in the fact that it didn't have a set slate of officers. Instead, a new group of officers was selected each month. This way, a greater number of students got a chance to practice their leadership skills. The club met every Thursday afternoon after school. These meetings were spent making new friends and planning end-of-the-month activities. These activities included volleyball, softball, movies, dances and parties.

-Leslie Billings

Club sponsor, Ms. Osso, instructs the club about the manner in which the club will be run. The club was unique in that there was a rotating slate of officers.

The meetings are not only a time to plan upcoming activities, but also a time to socialize and make new friends.

The Muslim Youth Club

The Muslim Youth Club is one of the most valuable clubs at W-L. This Club has helped our diverse population recognize their backgrounds and produce a pride for their culture. It was one of the many clubs where there were no prerequisites for membership. Anyone was invited to join and encouraged to participate in the club's activities.

The club met every Friday after a slow start at the beginning of the year. The club started out small, but, with its enthusiastic members, the club grew throughout the year. The sponsor for the year was Dr. Hadiji.

Many activities were available to the members of the Muslim Youth Club. Some of these activities included learning Arabic, listening to cultural music, celebrating birthdays, listening to speakers, and members were given the chance to meet people with a common background.

"The purpose of the Muslim Youth Club was to celebrate the Muslim Religion through different organized activities," commented Dr. Hadiji.

At the first meeting of the year, the club members elected Fatima Valdez and Nisha Abreu as President and Vice-President. During the year these students had the hard job of holding club meetings on a regular basis and organizing the many activities that the club was involved in.

Ahmad Jan expresses his dissapproval of the small size of the Muslim Youth Club.

A member of the Muslim Youth Club adds his name to the list of members.

Members of the Muslim Youth Club pay close attention at the first meeting of the year.

Fatima Valdez and Nisha Abreupopicture after being elected Presiden Vice-President of the Muslim Youth

Audrey Spicer, the sponsor of the Vietnamese Club, takes a moment out of her busy day to pose for a picture.

The Vietnamese Club gathers together for a group picture during one of their meetings.

Two members of the Vietnamese Club talk before a weekly meeting.

The Vietnamese Club

The Vietnamese Club is one of the many clubs at Washington-Lee that encourages the diverse population to realize their backgrounds. The Vietnamese Club helps the students to produce a special pride for their culture.

The Vietnamese Club was sponsored again this year by Audrey Spicer. The club met every Thursday after school. Some activities that the club has sponsored were car washes, candy sales and cultural performances for various audiences.

The culminating events for the year included many fun-filled activities that all club members participated in.

The president this year was Tri An Nguyen, the Vice-President was Minh Duc Troung, the Secretary wasMy Le Nguyen and the Treasurer wasThuy Van Phung.

The Vietnamese Club had its own table at the Holiday Bazaar this year. Various members of the club made native dishes to sell. The Vietnamese had an enjoyable and saccessful year.

The Chess Club members gather for a meeting to discuss the fundamentals of chess.

Freshman, Stephen Cook, enjoys typing on the computer.

Mr. Uveges presides over both the Chess and Computer Club meetings.

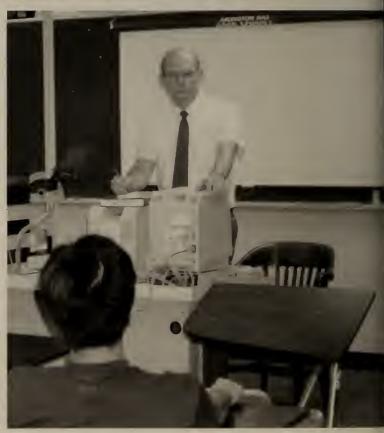

The Chess and Computer Club

Many students at Washington-Lee have interests that range outside of the regular school curriculum. Clubs such as the Chess and Computer Clubs help to encourage these pursuits. Uveges sponsored both of these clubs.

The Chess Club started off slow this year but soon got into the swing of things. The members of the club met every Thursday. A typical meeting of the Chess Club consisted of instruction about the fundamentals of chess, but mostly the time was spent competing with fellow club members. On occasion, the club would venture out and challenge other schools to a competition.

Each year, the Chess Club plays in the Virginia State Championships as a part of the Metro Area Chess League. The club's favorite phrase is: CHECK MATE!!

The Computer Club also had a slow start this year, but in no times, they were typing and programming. Their fearless leader, computer wiz Mr. Uveges, led the club through various activi-

Clark, a member of COE and A expressed how happy she was a part of both clubs.

Nicole Black, Fina Malave, Jerry Krammer, Thao Vo, Lauren McManns, Sara Jaen, Cheryl Gasque, and Pooja Khanna are proud to be members of COE

The Business World

This year Washington-Lee's business clubs made a real difference and effort in the world around them. Cooperative Office Education is a co-curricular club which stems from the Office Technology II class. The club sponsored several activities, including an annual COE luncheon for all COE employers which they finance through fund raisers. COE also conducted activities recognizing personnel at Washington-Lee during education week and national secretaries' week. The officers this year have been President, Aristo Vinayak; Vice-President, Sara Jaen; Secretary, Thao Vo and Treasurer, Fina Malave. Cooperative Office Education was sponsored by Mrs. Joanne Levine.

Distributive Education Club of America, or DECA, is also a co-curricular club with extra monthly meetings after school that was sponsored by Mr. Al Rosser. DECA conducted several civic activities, such as Personal Hygiene for the Homeless, Sullivan House and Adopt-A-Highway. This organization is also credited with the success of the W-L fashion shows. DECA was not only able to offer promising students a better understanding of marketing principles, but also made all activites fun and memorable.

-Chrissy Hall

DECA members Crystal Johnson, Ebony Freeman, Kenuana Engram, Jorge Orellana, Chantee Charles, Sumita Pradhan, and Karla Escalante pose for the camera

Sophisticated DECA members prepare for a business orientation.

S.A.D.D.

Students against drunk driving, SADD, is an organization for students who want to know when to play it safe when it comes to drinking and driving. S.A.D.D. is a club that encouraged students to avoid driving while under the influence of alcohol, regardless of peer pressure and other factors in high school.

S.A.D.D. had many activities that went on throughout the year. Trips to the Arlington County jail for S.A.D.D. members and government classes gave the students a perspective on the effects of drunk driving. The use of alco-sensors in driver's education classes and viewing alcohol-related videos, furnished by the State Farm insurance Company, also helped the students.

Annually, around the holidays S.A.D.D. ties red ribbons on many cars parked around W-L. These ribbons and reminders are placed under wind shield wipers as a reminder that students should not drink and drive.

Hopefully, the efforts of the club will teach students that drinking and driving do not mix.

SADD members took time out before dinner, while on their cruise last year, to smile for the camera.

SADD members stop their conversation to glance toward the camera before their activities start.

Easin' the Pain

It was sixty degrees outside, it was raining, and you forgot your jacket. You're not playing, you're not even on the team, but you can't leave. Why? Because you've got school spirit, you're dedicated, and you're a student trainer...

This year's student trainers were a rare breed. They were willing to give up their time everyday after school, attend all sporting events, and meet every two weeks to discuss what they had done. They were also the largest group of student trainers Washington-Lee has seen in many years. There were about fifteen student trainers this year. The club was sponsored by Ms. Wooldridge, Washington-Lee's first year Athletic Trainer. The student leaders were Head Student Trainer, Miki Sanchez and Assistant Head Trainers Julie Grandon and Sopita Lapsomphop.

The club was started to provide students with the opportunity to gain knowledge and experience in Sports Medicine. Lisa Hoai said,

"The best thing about being a trainer is that you know you're helping someone, and you're learning "stuff" too."

There were other rewards for the trainers' hard work. This summer, in June, some of the trainers planned to attend a state-wide convention in Virginia Beach. Scholarships are also awarded each year to outstanding student trainers by the Sports Medicine Organizations in Northern Virgina.

Ruza Afram

Ms. Wooldridge smiles on the sideline of one of the Generals' home games.

A student trainer races out during a break with water bottles for the players.

Head student trainer, Miki Sanchez, helps Neftali Rosado to the sideline.

The International Club

The International Club was a great success again this year. Given the ethnically diverse population of Washington-Lee, it was bound to be a success.

The club sponsored the annual International Club Night where a Mr. and Miss International were chosen. Food from many different countries was served. Students could be seen wearing elaborate costumes from their native countries. A fun time was had by

Other activities that the club participated in was a table at the Holiday Bazaar and fundaisers in the form of candy sales. The money the club raised went directly to a neighborhood Hospice.

Andre Chautard, a charter member of the International Club, expressed his opinion of the club as follows, "The meetings of the club bring together the various factions of the ethnically diverse population here at Washington-Lee."

All kinds of students attend the meetings. The attendance crosses all grade boundaries as well as international ones. Mrs. Irene Mangan was the club sponsor again this year.

-Leslie Billings

International Club member Alina Boutah has a conversation with club sponsor, Mrs. Mangan.

benefit the International Club.

Mobarak

Tu-Anh Bui, a dedicated member International Club, stops by to ask abo club's candy sale.

Members of The Cosmopolitan Club pay close attention at one of the monthly meetings.

Club sponsor, Senor Simone Contreras stands among some of the regular members of the Cosmopolitan Club.

Members sign up to help in an upcoming Cosmopolitan Club event.

The Cosmopolitan Club

The Cosmopolitan Club met on the last Tuesday of every month this year. The club was sponsored by Senor Simone Contreras.

In the words of the sponsor, "The purpose of the Cosmopolitan Club was to bring all the different cultural groups at Washington-Lee together."

Elected officials of the Cosmopolitan Club were Maria Galvez, President; Ana Melara, Vice-President and John Gilreath conquered the title of member-at-large.

The biggest accomplishment of the Cosmopolitan Club was the sponsorship of Hispanic Heritage Month. In other words, the Cosmopolitan Club was behind all those tidbits of information read over the PA in the morning announcements. The club also set up displays throughout the halls of Washington-Lee.

Another achievement of the Cosmopolitan Club was the publication of Voces Hispanoamericanas. The Cosmpopolitan Club did a great job once again this year.

Madrigal President, Emila Guevara, and Gillian Hollander study their music.

The Madrigals practice a performance piece.

Kathleen Deuel, Ana Reyes, Richard Sullivan and Brad Pilot sing their hearts out.

A Madrigal World

Every day this year, sixth period, a sound filled the music hall. One student described it as, "a sound you wish you could capture in a photograph and hold onto. This described the just plain beautiful sound of the 1994-95 Washington-Lee Madrigals.

This year's Madrigals, headed by President Emilia Guevara and sponsor Mrs. Klontz, consisted of 19 sophomores, juniors, and seniors. The returning members were Ana Reyes, Erin Pfoutz, Emilia Guevara, Steve Huff, Stewart Jeffrey, Sidd Shukla, Jody Olson, Richard Sullivan, and Chris O'Rear. Marja Van Orman was the 1994-95 student director.

The Madrigals worked hard throughout the year, and performed at such school functions as Back-To-School Night, the Holiday Bazaar, and seasonal school assemblies. The Madrigal singers, as they are known outside of Washington-Lee, are W-L's select singing group, and they focus on a capella (without accompaniment) music of Renaissance, secular, and contemporary form.

The many practices and hard work this year paid off for the Madrigals. They won the prized WGMS Young Artists Recital Award, presented to the top performing groups in the area. The group performed at the Kennedy Center this spring. Chris O'Rear summed it up when he said, "It made us feel like we had really accomplished something and we had a lot of fun."

eAlicea slaps Matt Kikel in the heat of emoment.

 $\begin{tabular}{ll} Shawn Northrip & steals the scene, with backup from Robert Zalkind. \end{tabular}$

A World Gone Girl Crazy

The second W-L play this year included ten men, eight women, and an awful lot of laughs. Adapted from the musical comedy, Girl Crazy was a three act comedy about Danny Churchill and his trials and tribulations with eastern girls, western guys, and the one western girl who stole Danny's heart.

The lead characters in Girl Crazy were Molly (played by Nicole Alicea) and Danny (played by Jody Olson). Other main characters were Jake, Louie, Lank, Tess, Rose, and Sam Mason played by Shawn Northrip, Robert Zalkind, Tim Olson, Kerrie Salazar, and Matt Kikel, respectively. Rhianna Ayers served as stage manager for the play, and the director was the venerable Mrs. Gerrie Filpi, with help from Tom Holland.

The play was strengthened by a mix of fresh talent and old veterans. Seniors Jody Olson, Shawn Northrip, Nicole Alicea, Matt Kikel, and Liz Eldridge made their final appearances on the W-L stage, with a crew of juniors, sophomores, and freshmen joining in the fun. Junior Laura Hartman said, "the play was a lot of hard work. All actors rehearsed every day from 2:30 to 5:00 for six weeks! But it was worth it!" The play was a comic success.

The cast of Girl Crazy gathers on stage.

Robert Zalkind and Amy Barrett converse during Girl Crazy.

Jazz Band

Jazz Band is one of the many great organizations Washington-Lee has to offer. Sponsor, Alex Robinson, takes pride in helping many talented students perfect their musical abilities.

The main purpose of Jazz Band is to promote jazz education and awareness. Though they only meet about two times a week, they have performed superbly this year. The W-L Jazz Band performs at various places and during certain school assemblies, including the Thanksgiving assembly. They even traveled to Anaheim, California to attend a jazz convention in order to learn more about jazz techniques and also to observe some of the nation's best jazz musicians.

Ricardo Calderon said, "We are young musicians, and our goal is to help perpetuate this form of music." This year they have done a great job introducing W-L students to different forms of jazz music.

Marja Van Orman performs brilliantly on the piano.

Ricardo Calderon, Ian Fric-Tortella, Chris Walker, and Nicole Nelson warm up before a big performance.

Mr. Robinson and David Lassell prove to be a great combination during practice.

Jazz Vocal Ensemble

This year every Monday and Friday after school the sounds of swing, jazz, and pop emanated from Mrs. Klontz's room. This year's Jazz Vocal Ensemble worked hard to create a sound which won them recognition throughout Arlington.

This year's Jazz Vocals were headed by student leaders Emilia Guevera, Marja Van Orman, and Chelsey Culley. Students became members through volunteer auditions the previous spring. Chris

Tyre said, "Auditions aren't that bad, and being in Jazz Vocals is so much fun that it's worth it."

The Jazz Vocal Ensemble performed at this year's VocFest (Vocational Festival) at Ballston Commons Mall, as well as other locations around Arlington. They also traveled to the Virginia Beach competition, along with many of the other music groups from Washington-Lee. For many, the trip was one of the year's highlights. It was a reward for all the hard work, both this year, and in years past. For many, it was one of the final and best memories about singing for Washington-Lee. Senior Emilia Guevera said, "I'm going to miss some of the things about W-L, and music will definitely be one of them."

> Tony Valdivieso and Ruza Afram

Marco Ovando, Sidd Shukla, Chris Tyre, and Mike Hadary listen attentively as they prepare for another wonderful performance.

The Jazz Vocal Ensemble members pose for a picture before they begin practicing.

Ricardo Calderon is one of Washington- Jeanette Staats and friends smile in an Lee's most talented soloists.

pation of the show to come.

Reed Harmon struts his stuff while leading the drum line at a boisterous pep rafly

Looking sharp, the band prepares to give an amazing performance during halftime.

Amanda Hildt and Eugenia DeLeon laugh at all the good times they have in band.

A Musical World

Some drums, some clarinets, some music and some magic was a good way to describe W-L's band this year. Directed by Mr. Robinson, the band is a 60 piece music ensemble (including far more than just clarinets and drums) within which are a marching band, concert band, jazz band, and jazz combo.

Mr. Robinson, as usual, did an outstanding job promoting music education among students on the intermediate, high school and college levels this year.

The band served as a link between the school and community by performing at all home football games, annual winter and spring concerts assemblies and an east coast tour.

This year the student conductors and field commanders were Kathleen Deuel and Nicole Nelson. These students did a tremendous job this year and have a lot to be proud of. The Band has been very successful at competitions for the past three years when competing with other students from Virginia and the East Coast. The Band brought home many awards, including a Grand Champion award, which is displayed in the W-L trophy case. Band students practice often to prepare for all the events. The Concert Band meets daily, sixth and seventh periods. The Marching Generals meet every day after school during the first semester. The Jazz Band and Combo meet Tuesdays after school during second semster. The dedication these students showed was an essential part of W-L's school spirit this year.

Neat Sothy, Maureen Isha, and Erin Pfoutz gather around the famous Popcorn Machine.

Sarah Harrick and Rania Awad go over one of the submissions to Penman.

Josh Krepon and Michelle Yi review some entries to Penman.

Imagining Our World

Imagination, creativity, and originality abounded at Washington-Lee this year. The result was a very productive year for Washington-Lee's award winning literary magazine, Penman.

This year's Penaman staff was headed by Editor-in-Chief Rania Awad, Associate Editor-in-Chief, Sarah Harrick, and was sponsored by Mr. Harocopos. The staff members were Erin Pfoutz, Poetry Editor; Christine Carl, Associate Poetry Editor; Melissa Byroade, Non-fiction Editor; Nicole Nelson, Associate Non-Fiction Editor; Andrea Mink, Fiction Editor; Nicole Nelson, Associate Fiction Editor; Maureen Isha, Secretary; Josh Krepon, John Gilreath, and Emilia Guevara, Business Managers; Emily Mardakis, Circulation Manager; and Michelle Yi, Copy Editor.

The Penman staff met everyday during fifth period. They put out two highly successful issues; one in the winter and one in the spring. Emily Mardakis felt the year was a good one for Penman because, as she puts it, "It was a great how we were all great friends. I enjoyed talking with everyone, but the best part was listening to Mr. Harocopos's stories and jokes.

--Ruza Afram

s Molly Felker and Nicole Alicea up with ideas for the next deadline.

Sarah Harrick and Claudia Rente put together a layout as Glenda Atchley looks on.

Our World in Print

Once a month when fourth period rolls around students at W-L know a little more about what is going on at Washington-Lee, thanks to The Crossed Sabres. Editorials, newsworthy notes, sports scores, and other bits and pieces of information helped to make this year's editions of the paper entertaining, while keeping the W-L community in touch with what is happening.

This year's newspaper was headed by Senior Editors Nicole Alicea and Molly Felker, who were supported by sponsor Mrs. Morris. A crew of veteran reporters, including Ria Riesner, John Gilreath, Andre Chautard, Sarah Harrick, and Cecile Remington helped things along. These students also played a role in providing the students at W-L with entertaining and pertinent information. This year's editions included the traditional Homecoming edition and five other editions. The articles covered everything from the new dress code, to the Homecoming Pep Rally, (where the infamous "Junior Girls" got hit with water balloons), to saying goodbye to the graduating class of 1995. Never at a loss for news, The Crossed Sabres managed to stimulate the interests of everyone.

This year was a successful one for the Crossed Sabres. The hard work each day and after school helped make the paper very popular among the student body. Molly Felker put it best when she said, "This year was great because we had sensational editors and a dedicated staff."

Melissa Loerch and Cecile Remington discuss ideas for stories in the next issue.

The Crossed Sabres staff gets a chance to be on the other side of the camera.

Our World In Blue and Gray

Yearbook students can be seen all through the halls of W-L during deadline time. Yearbook students live their lives on the schedule set by the deadline. "A part time job, full class load and college applications together take less time than the work required for yearbook," said senior yearbook student Chrissy Hall.

Yearbook was taken a step further this year, with layouts done completely on computer. "I love my computer. It rules my life," said yearbook Co-Editor Matt Wells. Other students agree. (Vegas style anyone?--inside joke).

Yearbook students were the most informed about clubs, bazaars, and dances. In fact, they have been compared to a well organized army, led by the senior Co-Editors, Matt Wells and Jeff Geiger, and the sponsor, Mrs. Dawson, on an assignment to cover as many stories as possible by deadline. Editors were designated for each section, and they dedicated extra time in order to make sure that everything was perfect at deadline time. Sports editor Jimmy Bakersaid, "I live in the computer lab at deadline time!"

All in all, it was a successful year for the yearbook, although Matt and Jeff had their hands full with a fairly inexperienced staff. The dedication they (along with the rest of the staff) displayed in getting the yearbook finished was truly amazing. Hats off to Matt and Jeff!!!

--Leslie Billings and Ruza Afram

Chrissy Hall and other members of the organizations group decide on the best way to organize the layout.

Editor Jeff Geiger designates authority and makes a few corporate decisions.

Sarah Harrick shows off her grace and skill as she swings and hits the ball during practice.

The girls basketball team fends off their opponents inside the key for a two point shoot.

Jennifer Coello leaves the ground while cheering for the Generals

The Washington-Lee Generals' sports teams have always been extremely good at everything that they do. Throughout the year, the school is always hearing of how great their varsity sports teams are doing. Students, and several teachers, show their school spirit by coming out to the games and cheering the teams on to victory.

This year the Generals' school pride was particularly noticed. With the reorganization of the sports districts, we played many teams that that we knew nothing about. But the Generals fans did not let the teams down; they were out there for every game, tournament, meet and regatta.

An unusually large number of students participated in the sports programs this year and demonstrated their school pride in one way or another. Generals were seen on the sports scene as participants, managers, student trainers and fans.

We have attributed this high level of involvement to the fact the W-L students have some of the best coaches in the county. Most students were eager to express their appreciation toward the coaches and trainers for providing this type of encouragement and leadership that stimulated interest in this WORLD OF OUR OWN.

Front: M. Tipan, G. Poplin, W. Barquero, J. Clark, D. O'Rear, M. Elouradia, N. Hadiji, A. Mirro 2nd Row: C. Wentling, J. Lynn, A. Galicia, G. Melo, A. Vendig, E. Calhoun, A. Boyd 3rd Row: J. Donnell, C. Velasquez, M. Garcia, J. Stanard, A. Burless, N. Talley, S. Clark, F. Shamma 4th Row: J. McFail, S. Tsimaris, G. Talley, C. Lampard, A. Solander, P. Mallon, J. Baker, P. Hildt 5th Row: T. Churchill, S. Zanders, A. Barr, J. Gilreath, R. Sullivan, T. Stroble, J. Hutchinson, S. Cook 6th Row: E. Mardakis, E. McGill, S. Woolridge, M. Cachine, T. Bentley, R. Belk, P. Ayleas, J. Lynch, B. White, L.J. Brown

Charles Lampard hustles off the field to consult with Coach Belk about the next play.

The Generals defense tries to contain Marshall.

Boris Benitez turns up field for a first down.

<<Get 'em up!>>

Jason Hutchinson sits in exhaustion.

Sam Zanders looks on as he waits to get back on the field.

While most people were still at the beach working, or scrambling to finish summer assignments, the football team was out in the August heat practicing two and sometimes three times a day. Coach Belk was quoted as saying, "There was tremedous competition between the players," which resulted in intense practices.

Coming off a strong 7-3 season with many returning starters, and a new coaching staff, the Generals had a lot to be excited about. Coach Belk came to W-L with a whole new staff, coaching style, defense and expectations. He brought with him the experience of actually playing in college, as well as in the NFL. The Generals were led by seniors Sam Zanders, Charles Lampard, Tim Churchill, Christian Velasquez, Giovanni Talley, Willy Baquero, Jason Hutchinson, James Baker, John Gilwreath, Allan Garcia, and Gilberto Melo.

-James Baker

Nate Talley fights off a Yorktown defender.

Senior Beto Melo sprints for positive yardage against Yorktown.

<<<Football's

Future>>>>

An important part of the football program is the Freshman team. Through the careful guidance of Coach Mon young players learn both offense and defense (what it takes to play each position). This guidance, plus the hard work that goes into practices, will only help for preparation to play varsity. Coach Mon was quoted as saying, "There are only 7 freshman who have played football in team play, but we plan to win and win with respect for ourselves and to others. It is a game. Win or lose, only the journey counts."

The 1994-95 team was led by quarterback Eliot Shaefer who said," The season had its ups and downs, we didn't win much, but we learned the game. We have the next years to improve on this experience."

What many people don't realize is that freshman football is an important part of Washington -Lee's future.

-James Baker

First Row: Richard Fong, Stephen Cook, Elliot Schaefer, Josue Flores, Benito Carter, Charles Richardson, John Chandler

Second Row: Ben Danforth, Pat Valdes, Steven Jeffreys, Najm Baig, Oliver Baccasse, Ian O'Rourke, Ed Hazelwood

Third Row: William McDermott, Keith Battocchi, Alex Fielder, Franz Espinoza, Thomas Coles, Francisco Morales, Jeronimo Castellanos

Fourth Row: David Nichols, Palol DeJesus, Oldrin Diaz, Keith Wasse, Jeromoe Mayo, Tyrone Anderson, Mark Vasquez

Jerome Mayo evades a Yorktown defender.

The Generals offense sets up for action against Yorktown.

The middle of the freshman defense hauls down yet another tackle.

Elliot Schaeferthrows over rival Yorkti

<<<On the Fareway>>>>

In 1994, the Washington-Lee golf team had a very optimistic view going into the season. The golf team performed to the best of their ability, thus pleasing head coach Mr. Hatch.

The team was led by Captain Derek Dalrymple. Throughout the season the golf team practiced three times a week. The Washington-Lee golf team participated in the National District of the Northern Region, which consists of seven teams. The Golf team finished the season with a 1-6 record, but finished 5th in the district playoffs.

Regardless of what the record might imply, they still put a lot of effort into their matches and were pleased with their results.

-Joshua Craver

vidently clear that Mr. Hatch, in this Paul Holland swings for the green. s proud of David Russell.

Scott Herbert watches his shot go far off into the distance.

Brad Pilot lines his shot up to go right into

<<Go Blue and Gray!>>

The 1994-1995 Varsity Cheerleading Squad carried on the tradition of W-L pride. Whether it was cheering at the football games, planning pep rallies or decorating the school for spirit week, the varsity cheerleaders worked with dedication. Captain Glenda Atchley said, "The squad had its up's and down's, but when it really mattered we all pulled together to make it work."

Though this year's football team didn't do so well, the squad kept the crowd enthusiastic and involved in the game. The cheerleaders didn't give up cheering even when the crowd did.

Besides cheerleading the girls displayed important leadership qualities by decorating the gym and bleachers outside for the pep rallies, coming to school at 6:30 a.m. on home football games to cheer in the halls, and showing spirit by wearing their uniforms every Friday.

Captains for the 1994-95 team wereGlendaAtchley and Kenuana Engram.

-James Baker

During the Homecoming Game, Glennda Atchley cheers for the football team.

Kenuana Engram and Ebony Freeman jump for joy as the Generals score a touchdown.

Kim Randall dances to a General cheer.

Ebony Freeman smiles at the crowd during the Homecoming Pep Rally.

Varsity Cheerleading: From left to right: Nykolle Black, Bethany Williams. Maureen Isha, *Glennda Atchley, Ebony Freeman, *Kenuana Engram, Nicole Alicea, Jennifer Coello, and Kim Randall.

*Captain

hange a glance during the game.

I.hany Williams and Kenuana Engram The Varsity Cheerleaders lead their crowd in a cheer.

Ebony Freemansmiles for the camera during a cheer.

Coach: Loranzo Alexander; From left to right:Top Row: Joanna Lederle, Blair Russell, Jody Wright, Sarah Bott, Tory Mahaley, Amanda Gibbon, Bot $tom\,Row; Jennifer\,O\,{}^{\backprime}Campo, Michelle\,Tober, Sarah$ Harrick, Valerie Bernardo, Sudie Wentling, and Sarah Gortenberg.

Number one doubles team, Sudie Wentling Coach Loranzo Alexander gives encourageand Sarah Harrick, anticipate where the next shot will land.

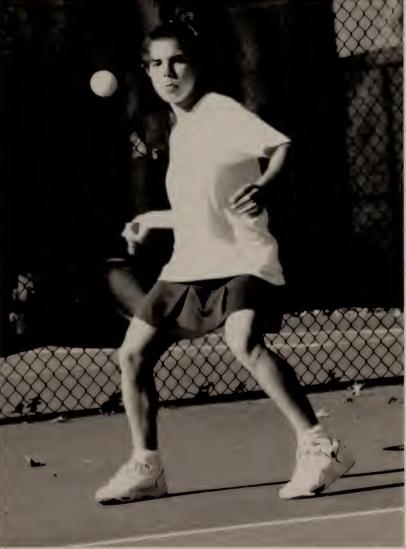

ment and strategy before doubles matches start.

'Em!>>>>

Valerie Bernardo aces 'em on her serve, despite the blinding sun.

 ${\bf Michelle\, Tober}\, keeps\, her\, eye\, on\, the\, ball.$

"You go, girl" was written on the backs of the '91 tennis team's shirt fittingly. This year's team did the best that Washington-Lee girls' tennis has done in over 16 years. Placing 2nd in the district and getting a bye into regionals, they did the best out of the fall sports. "This was the best team I've had the pleasure of coaching. They were hardworkers, and willing to learn and improve from their mistakes," said coach Loranzo Alexander, who won coach of the year this year.

Co-captains Sudie Wentling and Sarrah Harrick led their teams through practices every day starting August 22. It paid off with their 11-2 record. Making the district team were senior Sudie Wentling, senior Sarrah Harrick, and freshman Michelle Tober Sudie also recieved 2 district silver medals, one playing singles and one playing doubles with Sarah Harrick as the #1doubles team. Also recieving medals were Jody Wright and Michelle Tober for their #2 doubles team.

"This is the best team experience I've ever had. My freshman year, Sudie and I were the only ones who consistently won. Our team record was 11-1, quite depressing. This year we had a well-rounded team at every position, and our record showed it. We won most matches 9-0, and the ones we lost, we lost closely," said senior Sarrah Harrick. When asked to comment on the season Sudie Wentling said, "Out of all the four years I've been here, this was the best season I've ever had."

This was the first year of the national district. The girls' tennis team is off to a good start.

The 1994-95 girls varsity tennis team singles players were (in order of rank, respectively): Sudie Wentling, Michelle Tober, Sarrah Harrick, Jody Wright, Jennifer O'Campo, and Valerie Bernardo. Varsity doubles players not listed above included: Joana Lederle and Amanda Gibbon.

-Amanda Hildt

Sudie Wentling readies for a backhand shot.

Tory Mahaley reaches hard for a return.

<<No Pain, No Gain>>

This year's cross country team started practicing in the grueling heat of August. With practice at 7:30 A.M. they ran to ensure that they would be in top condition for the tough season ahead. After school started, the teams practiced at 2:30 every day. A normal practice workout included 3, 5, or 8 miles on the Curtis Bike Trail. Races were all 3.1 miles (5km) long.

Captains for the guys, team were Michael Durishin and Kidane Habtesian, and Kathy Rooney and Mindy Trigger for the girls team. The captains led their teams through the injuries and the rewards of the season. The guys' team did particularly well, taking 3rd in the district. The girls' team started out as one of the largest teams in Washington-Lee's history but, because of injuries, ended up too small to hold a seat in districts. Individually, Emma Brown and Edith Guevara both qualified and did well at regionals.

Rerouting the district made this year especially interesting. The competition seemed harder, but we gave it our all and we proved to be a threat to other teams," said Mike Durishin, Co-cap-

"This season was especially tough for the girls because everyone had to run, even with injuries. Some members were only able to cheer from the side," said girls Co-captain Kathy Rooney, who was sidelined because of knee surgery she underwent before the season had even started."Out of the ten girls we started out with only three were healthy enough to compete in districts."

This years boys' team included: Greg Bucholtz, Mike Durishin, Ian Curry, Chris O'Rear, Jason Prusen, Robert Koehl, Bryson Bort and Kidane Habtesian. The girls' team members were: Edith Guevara, Emma Brown, Amanda Hildt, Amelia Guevara, Edith Harbaugh, Jessica Eberhart, Kathy Rooney, Mindy Trigger, Charlotte Young, and Katherine Nichols.

-Amanda Hildt

Robert Koehl finishes strongly as Chris O'Rear tries in vain to catch him.

Amanda Hildt races with determination toward the finish line.

his pace.

TOL WOL WOL TOL

From left to right, Top Row: Amanda Hildt, Amelia Guevara, Edith Guevara, Emma Brown. Bottom Row Robert Koehl, Jason Prusen, Micheal Durishin, Kidane Habtesion, Bryson Bort, and Chris O'Rear. (Not shown in this picture are: Jessica Eberhart, Mindy Trigger, Edith Harbaugh, Kathy Rooney, Katherine Nichols, Charlotte Young, and Ian Curry.)

i Guevara and Emma Brown sprint or the finish.

Kidane Habtesion leads the pack at the All-County Meet.

Greg Buchholz races to overcome the leaders at the All -Arlington meet.

<<<<Stick To It!>>>>

The Washington-Lee fi hockey team entered the seaso cited and enthusiastic about chances. In their third year varsity sport, the team got a l start on the season by starting I tice four weeks before cla began. The team was led by tains Lindsay Smith, Chris Stewart, and Harginder Other key contributors were I Campbell, Kelley Snyder. Kyla Robinson.

The team defeated Yorktown second place Stuart this year nior Lindsay Smith commer "Had the conditions and pla been as they were at the end o season we would have been car of coming in second place ir district. The team was coache Melissa Phillips. The team three players this year, so loo for a strong season next year!

Fourth Row from left to right: Manager: Corey Shapar players Jessica Broas, Renee Courbois, Marcy Rizz Maggie Senn, Debbie Boudavois, Erica Munson, Gretche Schul; Third Row: Eugenia Deleon, Lauren McManu Kyla Robinson, Bisi Onisile, Kelly Snyder, Stephan Nichols, Michelle Yi, Erin Moran; Second Row: Veroni Cavarrubias, Manuela Vallejo, Gillian Hollar. Daw Mirro, Megan Gregory, Sarah Jackson, Aimee Barbo Kara Cambell; Front Row: Christine Sewart, Linds. Smith, Harjinder Gill. (Not shown in this picture:Lau Hartman, Vania Villanueva, and Cindy Covarrubias

Stephanie Nichols hustles down the field.

Captian Lindsay Smith drives past Stuart Aimee Barber expects a pass. with the help of her teammates.

The Lady Generals take a break.

<<<Out of the blocks>>>

This year's Indoor Track team was coached by Eric Hill, with some assistance by Edward Findler and Lloyd Brittain The team leaders for the boys' team wereKidane Habtesion and Mike Durishin. The girls' team was headed by four-year veteran, Mindy Trigger, and second-year veteran, Kathy Rooney.

The team was divided into groups that participated in various events. These three events were sprints, long distance, and field activities.

The runners practiced every day at Thomas Jefferson Community Center for about two to three hours. Practices included stretches, warmups, "the workout," then a warm down. "Practice is hard and it takes a lot of dedication, but if you win a race, it was worth the pain," said Jessica Eberhart, a first year runner.

First Row: (left to right): Victoria Mahaley, Allison Brown, Edith Harbaugh, Katherin Nichols, Bora-Lee, Edith Guevara, Mindy Trigger

Second Row (left to right): Thomas Laughlin, Clyde Wentling, Noah Greenblatt, Brad Pilot, Matt Stubbs, Leslie Billings, Jessica Eberhart, Lan Curry

Third Row (left to right): Jack Heatley, Michael Pruzin, Kidane Haotesion , Steven Clark, Andre Boyd, Mike Durishin

Not Pictured: Jason Hutchinson

fo Laughlin.

Coach Brittain explains the finer points of the 4 x 200 meter relay to Andre Boyd

Fourth year starter, Mindy Trigger, sets up in the blocks

Jason Hutchinson and Andre Boyd explode out of the blocks

Top Row: Coach Grove, Coach Dobson, Tim Churchill, Henry Djabatey, Gevonne Talley, Marcus Stewart, Troy Moore, Tony Puryear, Tony Stanley, Sam Zanders, Coach Bentley, Coach Adkins.

Front Row: Jamar Lomax, Bill Scheller, Noah Bezuayehu, Jarreau McFail, Nate Talley, Chris McSwain, Nat Habtesian.

 $\textbf{Troy Moore} \, scores \, two \, \, points \, for \, the \, Generals \, on \, a \, layup.$

The Generals make a swift transition from defense to offense in a game against Herndon High School.

During halftime, Coach Dobson gives words of inst to the team.

<Reaching New Heights>

Sam Zanders concentrates on making another successful shot.

Nat Habtesian plays great defense as the opponent fakes to the side.

The Generals Varsity Boys! Basketball Team established their dominance early in the season by rolling over the competition. Their winning ways continued throughout the season due to strenuous practices every day and an excess of talent.

The team was led by coach Bobby Dobson whose innovation and encouragement contributed largely to the team's success. Leadership was provided by the captains: Tony Stanley, Tim Churchill, Troy Moore, and Sam Zanders During tough games, the captains knew just what to say and do to inspire their teammates. Churchill commented, "It was the best basketball experience I've ever had. I've never played on a team that works harder and better together."

Point guards Jarreau McFail and Nate Talley played great defense, which was an integral part of the basketball team. Tony Stanley was W-L's scoring machine, crushing anyone who got in his way. Practice, including many different drills, helped bring the team together. With a stingy defense and a powerful attack, Generals Basketball lifted their game to new heights.

Tony Stanley prepares for a pass to a team-

Nate Talley keeps his eyes on the ball, ready for a steal.

<<<Learning the Game>>>

While most of the attention and focus goes toward the Varsity Team, Washington-Lee's JV and Freshman teams are vital parts of the Boys' Basketball program.

With Coach Bentley calling the plays and Captains Jason Lope, Jason Stanard, and Eric Klintberg leading the team, the Generals began the season strong and ended the season with cross rival Wakefield on February 17.

"The practices were strenuous but I think they brought us closer leading to more team unity and trust," stated sophomore Tony Valdivieso.

Freshman were coached by Horace Willis on the fundamentals of basketball to build a strong base for the next level. By playing together now they will build a strong corps of players for later varsity

Achyut Patel, Eric Klintberg, Ted Top Row: Holland, Batbaatar Badangiin, Paul Holland, Tim Strobel, Ricardo Calderon

Bottom Row: Alan Zebrak, Jason Lope de Haro-Salleh, Tony Valdivieso, Coach Bentley, Jamal Zaggout, Arnold Larson, Anthony Briscoe

Not Pictured: Andy Vendig and Jason Stanard

Jason Lope de Haro-Sallehpenetrates Herndon's defense

Ty Kaing starts another General's fast break.

Top Row: Coach Horace Willis, Graham McBrid Matt Eisenberg, Kenny Whitehead, Jarad Bort,

Middle Row: Thomas Coles, Jimmy Caracas, I O'Rourke, Chris Trahant, Matt Quattlebaum Bottom Row: Wayne Ledinh, Scott Herbert, Do O'Rear, Charles Rogers and looks to score.

Not Pictured: Daniel McGill

Batbaatar Badangiin goes down low, posts up, and pates the pass.

Shots Heard Around Our World

This year the Rifle Team had a very successful season. Shooting a rifle is a lot harder than most may think, and this year's team worked hard to prepare for competition. The team met every Tuesday and Thursday from 4:30 to 7:30 to train. Each member practiced shooting from three different positions: prone, standing and kneeling. The coaches emphasized discipline and concentration as each team member practiced shooting at a Imm target 50 feet away.

Although there were several students on the team this year, only six students were able to attend each match and, therefore, everyone practiced hard to increase the possibility that they would be selected each time. The team's home matches were held at Yorktown.

This year's team members received much support from both their coaches, Mr. Harris and Mr. Stephen. The team was led by Captain Skip Norton, as well as returning members Florence Kittleman, Rebecca Bladen and Darek Dalrymple.

(Bottom Row, left to right): Florence Kittleman, Brian Norton, Rebecca Bladen (Top Row, left to right): Jason Roy, Eric Horton, Derek Dalrymple, Jimwoo Pak

F ence Kittleman takes aim.

Brian Norton sits ready to shoot a perfect ten.

Skip Norton aims low for the target.

These shooters take their best shot as the coaches look on.

Watt, Delshawn Ray, Casey Robinson, Lindsay Smith, Shawneece Hennighan. Bottom row from left to right: Pepper Murray, Eugenia Deleon, Lauren McManus, Sudie Wentling, and Kara Campbell.

Sophmores Kyla Robinson and Michelle Watts use teamwork to get the ball down the court.

Lauren McManus, Kyla Robinson, Eugenia Deleon and Sudie Wentling may take a break from the game, but their eyes never leave the court.

Casey Robinson looks for a pass to make.

<<Up and Over!>>

Kara Campbell makes a break for the basket.

Michelle Watts concentrates on dribbling down the court.

Experience was the key to the success of the 1994-95 Girls Varsity Basketball team. "We compensate for limited height and quickness by playing intelligent and aggressive ball," said coachKen Strobel With heights averaging only 5ft. 6in., the girls had an obstacle to overcome. Despite this fact, the team had a winning season.

Many games came down to the buzzer. "One thing that I've learned in this game is that every second counts," said senior Lindsay Smith. "By giving it our all from the start, we had no problems when it came down to the buzzer. "To play hard, one must practice hard. The girls team practiced every day starting in November, including Saturdays.

Building a sense of togetherness is also important in a team sport such as basketball. Commenting on this Eugenia Deleon said, "With such rigorous practice schedules it was hard not to become a close team.

All in all the 1994-95 team was something the generals could be proud of.

Delshawn Ray goes up and over the opponent to score a lay up.

Coach Strobell quietly gives sound advice from the sideline

<<<Makin' the Shot>>>

To a basketball player, there is no better sound than "Swish" when the clock is about to run out. In addition, there is no better feeling than making the last shot of the game and leading your team to victory.

For the Girls' Freshman Basket-ball Team, they know the feeling of hard work and victory. "These young girls progressed during the season and were always working as a team. They also had a lot of fun doing it," commented Coach Lisa Koenecke.

The Girl's JV Basketball Team, led by Coach Rick Cauthen, practiced six days a week and were also victorious this season.

The team was also led by captains Christine Malloy and Kelly Snyder. The team competed in eighteen games this season and carried themselves well.

Coach Cauthen said, "My girls worked hard to win and also to become better. I am very proud of their accomplishments this season."

-Mindy Trigger

Back Row: Julie Balutis, Ada Ferrufino, Kelly O'Neil, Coach Lisa Koenecke, Erin Felker, Jessica Price, Linda Cortez

Front Row: Carla Pangilinan, Sopita Lapshomphop, Jamie Johnston-McIntosh, Candice Brown, Melissa Bowers, Vashonta Roach

Kelly Snyder dribbles around an opponent in an attempt to score.

Back Row: Litzi Parades, Anne Marie Anderson. Carrie Fulton, Christine Malloy, Kelly Snyder, Stephanie Nichols, Sophia Miranda, Coach Rick Cauthen

Front Row: Carla Mercado, Tawnya Tenequr, Alicia Petta, Jasmine Irigoyen, Olivia Salanis, Glenda Guevara

Not Pictured: Maggie Senn

Kelly Snyder menacingly attempts to steal the ball awfrom the enemy.

<<< Balancing Act >>>>

Once again, Washington-Lee can be proud of its Girls' Gymnastics Team. The beginning of the season turned out to be more than the team members expected. "I thought I was in good shape, even after the off season. After our first day, however, I was really sore," said Melissa Loerch.

Although troubled by the small number of team members they began with, they learned to work well as a team. "Even though gymnastics is an individual sport we've learned to work well together and help each other, said Laura Hartman. "The team was led by returning members Veronica Covarrubias, Melissa Loerch, Andrea Mink, Beth Poplin, Ria Riesner and Laura Hartman."

Gymnastics is a difficult and demanding sport. The team finished the school year successfully, and most team members were happy to be involved once again.

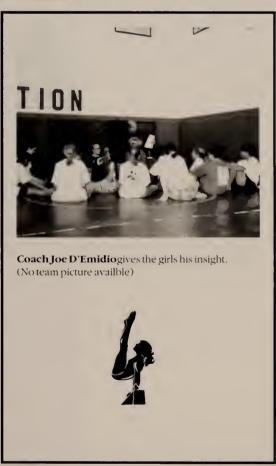

r ie Watson works on her routine il cheerful disposition.

This gymnast works on upper body strength. Laura Hartman smiles at her flexibility.

The team warms up for practice.

J.V Wrestling Team: First Row(left to right) Jessie Sanchez-Mgr., Travis Neighbors, Carlos Fernandez, Willy Amaya, Mohammed El-ouradia, Julio Rivas, Carla Severich-Mgr. Second Row: Ahmed Jan, Efrain Ebrian, Damon Talbott, Emanuel Benites, Roberto Leon. Not Pictured: Jenween Rumsey-Mgr.

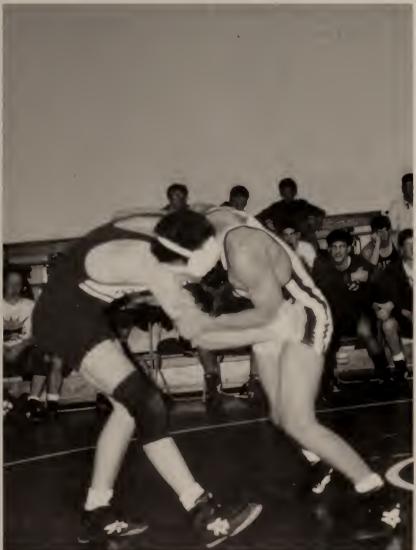

Peter Strack fights hard to get this determined wrestler off of Hugo Camacho is close to "pinning" his opponent. his back.

<<Shoulders Down>>

Coach Mon prepares to get on the bus and travel to a Washington-Lee Wrestling match.

Franklin Torres goes for the attack, as he strains to push his opponent to the floor.

"I am proud of every young person who has wrestled for W-L," remarked James Mon, coach of the Washington-Lee wrestling team. Coach Mon had every right to be proud of the young wrestlers. The requirements for this sport involved dedication. skill, and endurance. Practices were daily and consisted of the young men (especially the newcomers) getting the moves down pat. These maneuvers included escapes, take-downs, reversals, and most importantly, pinning. When a wrestler placed his opponent in a "predicament," the opponent's shoulders broke a 45 degree plane.

The 1994-95 wrestling team contained thirteen weight classes which ranged from as low as 103 lbs, all the way up to 275 lbs. At the opening of the season, the team was not full, but as Coach Mon commented, "The other teams respect us for our skill, not our numbers."

The next best thing to a coach is a captain. The W-L wrestling team's captains were seniors Willy Barquero and Hugo Camacho. These leaders were essential to the team because they were able to improve their teammates skill and knowledge by sharing their wrestling expertise. Willy Barquero explained that W-L's wrestling team was all about determination when he stated, "Pride and Ambition; No Guts--No Glory."

This comment proved true for the strong Generals as they sweated out long practices. As Hugo Camacho said, "The practices are so exhausting that, at times some want to quit. But if they tough it out until the first meet, they find that the hard work pays off."

Varsity Wrestling Team, First Row (left to right) Jessie Sanchez-Mgr., Robert Koehl, Willy Barquero, Hugo Camacho, Ben Gaines, Carla Severich-Mgr. Second Row-Peter Strack, Michael James, Paul Ayers, Jose Cruz. Not Pictured: Franklin Torres, Rhianna Ayers-Mgr., Magda Sypula-Mgr.

<<<Makin' a Splash>>>

The W-L Swimming and Diving Teams got off to a great start this year. One of the largest sport teams at W-L, the swim team had a full schedule of competitive meets. Practices were everyday after school from 2:45-4:00 p.m. The only day that the team did not practice was Friday because meets were Fridays evenings. The new district made the season an interesting one. "Swimming against the new teams was a new experience," said senior boys Co-captain, Matt Wells. "The change was for the better."

One of the frequent problems of large teams is that some team members don't get to know each other's names and remain strangers throughout the season. To prevent this from happening the team got together for pizza or pasta the night before the meets. This not only allowed team members to get to know one another, but the team truly became a family and had proper nourishment at the same time.

Captains led the team and were responsible for organizing team activities. They also organized the meets. One of the unique things about the Swim and Dive Teams is that the coaches don't make cuts; everyone has a chance to participate in the meets.

Coaches Jim Thomas and Robert Snow had a lot to handle. Jim Thomas said, "The Swim and Dive teams are one of the largest competitive sports teams at the school. It is an excellent sport for conditioning. If you have any experience in swimming, it is the right choice for a winter sport."

When speaking of the dive team, Jim Thomas said, "This year's team was the largest team in a long time. I have confidence that its strength can only increase, as our team is young and many students don't have very much experience. I look forward to next year's team."

Kathleen Deuel smiles after finishing a hard set at practice.

Mike Lengle, Greg Buchholz, Matt James Deflippi concentrates on im-Tschetter, and Marco Ovando take a proving his breast stroke.

Weems swims a determined, but

ful butterfly.

Front Row (left to right): Matt Tschetter, Eddie Hazelwood, Lu Duong, William Deynes, Daniel Novotny, Marta Xinxola, Corinna Shepard, Jil DeWitt, Tina Carter, Liz Uffen, Johanna stamps, Bryn Karaus, Second Row (left to right): James Defillippi, Blair Russell, Matt Wells, Kathleen Deuel, Pat Kunze, Kristen Wilson, Katherine Wells, Jordan Uffan, Anne Jensen, Gillian Hollar, Erika Munson, Kristen Jenson, Third Row (left to right): Amanda Hildt, Greg Buchdz, David Russell, Mike Lengle, Gretchen Schule, Emma Brown, Laura Weenis, Jody Wright, Amy Inge, Amanda Gibbon, Travis Doggett

Bottom Row (left to right): Aaron Mirro, Brian Burr, Alan Zebrak, George Martinez, Chhay Hem, Julio Rivas. Middle Row (left to right): Eliot Schaefer, Frankling Torres, Jesse Lynn, Raphael Aguilar, Boris Benitez, Dan Walker, Manny Rivas, Luis Aguilar.

Top Row (left to right): Coach Doug Grove,

Top Row (left to right): Coach Doug Grove, Chris O'Connor, Jeff Horwitt, Kirk Gray, Larry Tiglao, Steve Clark.

Senior Captains Dan Walker and Manny Rivas show the proper way to complete a cutoff.

Junior First Baseman, Jesse Lynn, throws over to third during infield warmups.

<<<Full Count>>>

Freshman catcher Raphael Aguilar throws a runner out at second base during infield warmups.

Senior #1 pitcher Kirk Gray fires a strike during pregame batting practice

As spring marches in, baseball marches with it. Fresh off their Potomac District Championship season of 1994, the Generals had high expectations for the upcoming year in 195.

In his first year as head coach of the varsity team, Doug Grove coached the Generals to perfection. The Generals returned to their pitching staff their senior, all-region, #1 pitcher Kirk Gray as well as their #2 pitcher, a sophomore, Steve Clark (who was all-district as a freshman).

The core of the infield also returned their superior players. Seniors Manny Rivas (shortstop) and Dan Walker(second base) possibly played the best defense together than any other combination in the state.

The other returning starter was Jeff Horwitt, a junior, who was an essential part of the lineup. In addition to these veterans came many new and exciting players. From Venezuela, the varsity team was lucky to add two excellent brothers, Luis and Raphael Aguillar. George Martinez transferred from New Mexico. He is

-Dan Walker

Junior outfielder Boris Benitez hits one a mile during batting practice before a game against Wakefield.

Junior pitcher Jeff Horwitt, warms up his arm prior to an important district game

<She Shoots, She Scores!>

The Girls Varsity soccer team started off the national district with one of the strongest teams in years. With twelve returning players, the team was at a great advantage. "Many players knew each other to begin with, so team unity factored into our success," said Jeanie Bhuller. The squad filled out to a roster of eighteen, including freshmenKellySnyder and Andrea Lazernick, sophomore Amy Inge, juniors Melanie GuryanskyandYvanaCordova and senior Julie Nelson. All proved to be great additions to the team.

"We rely on a strong defense and a quick counter attack by the whole team," remarked head coach, Judy Watson. Captains Lindsay Maher and Katie Nichols agreed that determination was the key to the teams success. The captains pushed the team extra hard, especially during the first two weeks of practice. Much of the first three days was conditioning, which commenced with a half hour run. With the help of Aldo Zito, the guys' Varsity coach, Mrs. Watson continues to build some of the strongest most confident athletic teams W-L has ever had. This years team is just another fine example of outstanding sportsmanship at W-L.

The twelve returning varsity members are seniors: Lindsay Maher, Casey Robinson, Jeanie Bhuller, Lindsay Smith, Katie Nichols, juniors: Eugenia DeLeon, Amanda Hildt, Emma Brown, Lauren Mcmanus, sophmores: Stephanie Nichols, Kyla Robinson, and Amanda Gibbon.

Kelly Snyder shows hustle for the ball, with Emma Brown in close pursuit.

Amanda Hildt drives the ball upfield away from Annandale.

Goalkeeper, Lindsay Smith, punts the ball down field.

Middle row left to right: Kyla Robinson, Amanda Hildt, Amanda Gibbon, Casey Robinson, Yuana Cordova, Amy Ihge

Bottom row left to right. Andre Lazevnick, Katie Nichols, Lindsay Smith, Lindsay Maher, Kelly Snyder

na Brown makes her move on Annandale.

Sweeper, Lindsay Maher, clears the ball up the field.

Casey Robinson heads a potential shot out of the Generals' end.

(Top Row: left to right) Abadi Amin, Kose Torres, Manuel Rogne, Alex Fielder, Cesar Florero, Marvin Centenos, Nixon Flores, Hugo Camacho, Jorge Sanets, Jimmy Paredes.

(Bottom Row: left to right): Isac Matute, Andy Vendig, Omar Romero, Mike Roschke, Patrick Hildt, Elmer Juarez, Erland Trigo, Madkour Abdelkader, Matt Garcia

Erland Trigo juggles with his head at practice.

Hugo Camacho hustles past an opponent and up the field. These bosses know the importance of conditioning

Goalkeeper, Jimmy Paredes, makes a save during a scrimmage.

Madkour Abdelkader takes a goal-kick.

The District changes this year made it a tough season for the boys' soccer team, but that didn't stop them. The guys exhibited poise, skill, and strength in all areas. The team was led by cocaptains Patrick Hildt, Jimmy Paredes, and Hugo Camacho Coach Aldo Zito lent his veteran leadership to the team yet again.

At 3:00 everyday the team met to practice. They worked especially hard at ball control skills and passing. As in the past, the team members were from different backgrounds, yet they pulled together to support each other. Working together improved the skills of all players.

Patrick Hildt described this season as one of, "A lot of work, a lot of fun, and a lot more work. But soccer made it worth it." All in all, the season was a successful one for the Boys' Varsity Soccer Team. Coach Zito stated, "I hope we will be able to build on our experience from this year."

This player shows the correct form for kicking a rocket.

Patrick Hildt works on his moves.

The varsity boys' eight coasts in under Key Bridge.

The J.V. eight concentrate on perfecting the fundamentals.

Leslie Billings and Blair Russell find time to crack a smile in the rigorous workouts.

Kate Siekly shows her determination on a cold March morning.

Standing: Ana Vallejo, Megan Gregory-Morley, Erl Munson, Ann-Marie Anderson, Edith Harbough, Sar Riggs, Kristen Allen, Sarah Harrick, Blair Russell, Kathle Deuel, Julia Pons, Erin Felker, Liz Effen, Johanna Stam Jill DeWitt, Annie Kellog; Kneeling: Coach Nancy Bu Kristen Wilson, Jordan Uffen, Ann Tonakam, A Jenson, Jillian Hollar, Bora Lee, Christy Watson, Krist-Jenson, Tori Mahaley, Sophia Esterman, Joana Leder Debbie Boudouvas, Sarah Bott, Denisha Pelham, Ren Corbois, Kate Seikaly, Jody Wright, Gretchen Schul Victoria Ramsey, Elaine Gerald, Gwen Standard; Sittin Lisa Gottshalk, Carla Escalante, Jessica Eberhart, Claud Rente, Leslie Billings, Wendy Putnam, Amy Barb-Heather Hall, Kim Philley, Katherine Christman, Er Moran

st Row: Euan Rodger, Thomas Kirton, Louis artin, P.T. Burch, Tim Trahant, Rob Knapick, dy Richter, Noah Greenblatt; Second Row: ach Schmit, Juan Carlos Llanos, Jason Stanard, lwin Leiva, Boss-Chief, Steve Huff, David oreland, Nick Doheny, Chris Parris, Keith Knot, rek Ksaybati, Joe Gaito, Coach Peter Dominick, ach Tom Chisnell; Third Row: Paul Holland, Ilson DeSousa, J.B. Cauldron, Matt Wells, Richd Sullivan, Whitt Clements, Pat Kunze, Brenton regory-Morley; Fourth Row: Jorge Orellana, m Oslen, Eric Klintberg, Ted Holland, James eFilippi, Brad Pilot

poys varsity eight go full pressure on a 1500 r piece.

or Sarah Harrick pushes her crew to the on the water.

<< Power

Ten>>

The W-L crew team started off the season with great expectations from head coach Nancy Butt and Tom Chisnell. Led by captains Kristen Allen, Kathleen Deuel, Sarah Harrick, Matt Wells, and Richard Sullivan, this young squad was determined to have a strong showing against other teams. Many of the rowers trained throughout the summer to prepare for this season's vigorous workouts.

The girls and guys trained both on and off the water by rowing, running, lifting weights, running up and down the "Exorcist stairs," and time testing on the rowing machines. These practices, which lasted from 3:30 to 5:30, were hard but developed strength, endurance, and mental toughness, which paid off later in the season. Co-captain Kristen Allen said of the workouts, "In crew, you have to accept the challenges and work hard so that you can feel the satisfaction of winning."

The team this year was larger than in past years, but was also younger. Most of the members of the squad were underclassmen. With such strong, but relatively inexperienced rowers, junior Ann Tonakarn expected, "a fast but shaky season."

The regattas were held on Saturdays, and with a new racing schedule, the teams raced in local, out-of-state, and national competitions. Next year's team will build on this season's progress and looks forward to even more success on the water.

Sarah Harrick

<<<Serve and Volley>>>

On any given day this spring, walking by the Quincy tennis courts, a person could hear Coach Alexander yelling, "Crosscourt, down-the-line, cross-court!" These words might not have made much sense to a passerby, but to the guys on the courts the words were just part of the daily routine of drills that helped build a strong 1995 Boys' Tennis Team.

The team was led by Captain Josh Krepon and returning members Sym Hadiji. Joe Eddy, Matt Kikel, Mike Durishin, Eric Calhoun, and Tony Stanley. New members were Alex Griffing, Jimmy Baker, Jay Kikel, and Clyde Wentling. As for Coach Alexander, Eric Calhoun said, "Coach Alexander is great because he is funny, knowledgeable, and an all-round great coach." The season was a challenge for the guys who had to compete in the new National District, but the season was a success nonetheless.

While the entire team played in singles and doubles matches in each tournament, only the scores from the top six-seeded players counted. Josh Krepon summed up the season when he said, "We had a great season with a solid top six and strong support from the remaining players."

Boys Tennis Team: From Left to Right Top Row: Coach Alexander, Jimmy Baker, Jay Kikel, Micah,Dave Kleighl,Michelle Tober; Second Row: Sym Hadiji, Matt Kikel, Tony Stanley, Alex Griffing, David; Bottom Row:, Aaron Hamann, Denise Bucholz, Joe Eddie, Josh Krepon, Eric Calhoun, Craig

Joe Eddy shows his determination to return the serve.

Tony Stanley backhands his opponents' volley.

Sym Hadiji shows his skill and speed with the racket.

Josh Krepon concentrates on kehis eye on the ball.

<<<Ready? Hit it!>>>

The great spring weather this year gave Washington-Lee's Softball Team members the chance to practice outdoors during most of the season. The grueling two and a half hours of practice, five days a week, showed as both the Varsity and JV. Softball teams had tremendous seasons.

The varsity squad was led by junior Kara Campbell, who was one of the top pitchers in the National District. With only one senior on the team, Mittpheap You, most of the team will return next year. Rick Cauthen, the head coach, managed to pull the team together and gave the team the foundation to achieve a great record. Aside from the team's success, softball players also enjoyed themselves. Being involved with an enthusiastic group of people made it all worthwhile.

J.V. Softball was one of the most spirited sports teams at W-L. Their excitement was understandable, as they bulldozed overtheir opponents. Sophomore Tricia James—said, "I was impressed by how well everyone worked together."

Washington-Lee Softball J.V. and Varsity Teams a throwing and catching drilf in practice.

Valerie Bernardo prepares to catch the ball. Valerie played both catcher and shortstop this year.

Mittpheap You shows her batting skills.

Laura Hartman stretches in the hope of striking out a runner at first base.

Tricia James sprints towards first base during practice

<<<To the Finish Line>>>

This year's Outdoor Track Team was coached by Eric Hill, William Findler, and Lloyd "Butch" Brittain. The team members practiced everyday after school, starting at 2:30 p.m.

The boys' team was headed by Captain Kidane Habtesion and Co-Captain Michael Durishin. The girls' team was headed by Captain Mindy Trigger and Co-Captain Kathy Rooney.

The teams competed in several meets and were successful in a few. Invitationals were attended but the highlight was the Jameswood Invitational in Winchester, Virginia.

Long distance runner, Matt Stubbs commented, "Practice was grueling and fast paced, but when practice was over and the team was sore we knew that we had done the best that we could."

-Mindy Trigger

Sam Zanders practices his form in throwing the shot put.

Captian Mindy Triger and third year veteran, Emilia Guevara, jog their one mile warm down at the end of practice.

Michelle Watts, and the other team members, practice coming out of the starting blocks.

Jason Hutchinson hands the baton to Sam Zanders in a relay sprint.

Captain Kidane Habtesion and Cotain Mike Durishin dash to the finisin a 400m run.

<<<Fli>Pin' Out>>>

Push-ups, pull-ups, curls... it sounds like a pretty normal work-out, but it's not over until the guys finish round-offs, handsprings, and flips. All of these exercises are included in a day's work for the guys' gymnastics team.

This year's team was led by coach Joe D'Emidio and senior Willy Barquero. Willy was the 1994 Potomac District All-Around Champion, and he worked hard to prove himself in the National District.

New members helped supplement last year's team, working hard to strenghten both their bodies and their skills. The new members this year were: Eric Knott, William Deynes, Marco Ovando, Hugo Camacho, Mauricia Costellon, Amit Kaim, Ben Gaines, Carlos Fernandez, Wilbur Amaya, Travis Neighbors, David Estes, Daniel Case, Steven Jeffery, Jason Thompson, and John Geter.

Barquero stretches out before prac-

Eric Knott shows off his upper body strength with a handstand.

1995 Guys' Gymnasts--from left to right: Steven Jeffrey, Jason Thompson, John Geter. Amin Kaim, and Eric Knott. Smile guys!

John Geter helps Jason Thompson get a good stretch.

Steven Jeffrey shows off his flexibility with a bridge.

A

Abadi, Amin 44 Abreu, Nisha 144 Abris, Sharon 92 Abris, Shirwan 92 Adams, Joyce 92 Adams, Hilsia 44, 71 Adanza, Joseph 44 Adkins, Robert 92 Adrade, Omar 81 Afram, Ruza 81, 84 Afwork, Netsanet 44 Agnew, Ryan 81, 137 Ahmad, Anwar 81 Ahmad, Jan 144 Ahmad, Shuiab 92 Ahmed, Shabazz 92 Ahmed, Yamin 104 Akhmadi, Agni 92 Akhmadi, Gempur 81 Alacorn, Hector 104 Albers, Lester 70 Alcalde, Christopher 44 Aldrich, Nielah 104 Ali, Evan 44 Ali, Nizam 44 Ali, Ragon 104 Alicea, Cristina 92 Alicea, Nicole 30, 31, 44 Aliou, Hela 92 Al-Mobarak, Fatin 44, 72 Alvarez, Ana 104 Alvarado, Lillia 104 Alvarez, Juana 81 Aly, Angela 44, 72 Amaya, Beyna 104 Amaya, Wilbert 104 Amin, Shahriar 104 Anderson, Anne 92, 182 Anderson, Cassandra 81 Angulo, Alberto 37, 81 Aquilar, Carlos 92 Arango, Lizza 81 Ardon-Munoz, Dany 92 Arguello, Gustavo 92 Argueta, William 104 Arias, Avisai 104 Arias, Edwin 104 Arias, Wilner 104 Armistead, Jennifer 104 Ashraf, Mehnaz 104 Atchley, Glennda 44 Atnell, Kurt 92 Atoigue, Davin 104 Avery, Brian 81 Awwad, Rania 44

Ayers, Paul 92 Ayers, Rhianna 44 Ayollon, Korina 44, 74 Azizkeya, Maria 104

B

Bacasse, Oliver 104 Badangiin, Batbaatas 178 Bailey, Chris 81 Baires, Ana 81 Baires, Carlos 81 Baker, James 42, 45, 67, 139, 160, 165 Barber, Aimee 28,37, 81, 84, 174 Barber, Tammie 12, 92 Barclay, Claire 118, 121 Barlou, Valinda 92 Baron, Tony 92 Barquero, Willy 3, 10, 13, 15, 35, 45, 66, 67, 185 Barr, Adam 81 Barrera, Ana 104 Barrera, Jorge 81 Barrett, Amy 30, 31, 81, 129 Bartel, Kim 45 Bassler, Sally 118, 119, 125 Bates, Kim 42 Batista, Wilfredo 104 Battocchi, Keith 104 Bautistaa, Juan 104 Bautista, Vicky 92 Beaston, Madame 138 Beck, Andrew 104 Becker, Katie 104 Beecher, Roxanne 81 Belot, Jean Max 81 Beltain, Nelson 81 Beltran, Marco 45 Benitez, Alba 81 Banitez, Boris 81 Benitez, Jenny 72, 44 Benitez, Juan 92 Benjamin, Oscar 104 Bently, Tony 120, 178 Bernardo, Valerie 12, 81, 171 Berrias, Erik 81 Beserra, Zodraya 92 Bethel, Mr. Darnell 114 Betts, Ben 104, 112 Bezvayehu, Noah 15, 45, 176 Bicklehaupt, Joan 118 Bilal, Zeshan 104 Billings, Leslie 81, 85, 136, 175 Birch, P.T. 15

141, 179 Blanco, David 37 Blanco, Daysi 92 Blitgen, Jennifer 92 Blount, David 92 Blount, Kevin 104 Bolanos, Tomas 25 Boklen, Daniel 81 Bonaccorso, Nancy 122 Bond, Amanda 92 Bonilla, Carlos 81 Bonilla, Jose 81 Bonilla, Lenin 81 Bonilla, Wendy 81 Bort, Bryson 81 Bort, Jarad 104 Boritah, Alina 81 Bowers, Melissa 104 Boyd, Andre 81, 175 Bratt, Mrs. Theresa 34, 117 Bratton, Shirley 122 Briscoe, Anthony 92 Brittain, Lloyd 175 Broas, Jessica 92 Brown, Allison 175 Brown, Bernard 120 Brown, Candice 104 Brown, Emma 12, 89, 130, 131, 135, 136, 172, 173 Buchholz, Greg 173, 186 Bui, Anh-Yen 104 Bui, Linh 45 Bui, Tu-Anh 128, 137, 139 Burck, Paul 92 Burke, Sean 104 Burnett, Natalie 45 Burr, Bryan 45, 72 Burr, Joe 45, 72 Burton, Chris 92 Byers, Neil 45 Byroade, Joby 29, 104, 113 Byroade, Melissa 29, 45, 131,

C

136

Cabrera, Karina 92
Calguin, Mauricia 92
Calhoun, Eric 81, 84, 136, 139
Callaway, Kesha 92
Camacho, Erica 12, 112, 113
Camacho, Hugo 45, 184, 185
Camacho, Luis 12, 92
Campbell, Kara 81, 174, 181
Campos, Daniel 92
Campos, Sonia 81
Canales, David 81
Candia, Juan 104

Cannon, Jamar 104 Cantor, Otto 104 Cantor, Veronica 81 Cardenas, Isabel 104 Cardenas, Jonathan 104 Cardozo, Odalis 122 Careea, Brenda 105 Carl, Christy 128 Carranza, Francisco 138 Carter, Benito 12, 104, 112, 113 Carter, Christina 111 Carter, Tina 104 Casillas, Sierra 21, 92, 161 Castellanes, Jeronimo 104 Castro, Carlos 104 Caudron, Jean Bruce 92 Cauthen, Rick 181 Caza, Dorothy 104 Caza, Suzanne 92 Centeno, Digna 104 Centeno, Jose 81 Chandler, John 105 Chaplin, Leland 22 Chapman, Andre 123 Charles, Chantee 14, 43 Charoenpanich, Chali 81 Chautard, Andre 81, 128, 130, 133, 136, 137, 138 Chavarria, Jessica 92 Chavez, Larry 92 Cherry, Leslie 81 Chetham, Rich 26 Chevez, Jose 81 Chicas, Maria 123 Chapra, Sandhya 81 Christman, Catherine 105 Chumpitaz, Sandra 105 Churchill, Tim 13, 165, 176, 177 Clark, Jason 92 Clark, Sara 147 Clark, Stephen 92, 175 Clements, Whit 81, 139 Coca, Claudia 105 Coca, Mauricia 105 Coello, Jennifer 163

Coila, Daniel 81

Coles, Thomas 108

Conrad, Nancy 123

Contreras, Milton 92

Contreras, Simon 119

Coppage, Pat 105

Carea, Brenda 105

Cortez, Francis 92

Courbois, Renee 21, 92

Courtney, Lavanda 93

Cook, Stephen 105, 146

Calderon, Ricardo 2, 92

Cantreras, Jose 20, 21, 105

Cui, Christopher 81 Cuiellas, Mareella 25 Culley, Chelsey 140 Curbois, Renee 138 Curry, Ian 105, 175 Dia, Hua 134 Dailey, Sarah 105 Dale, Marsha 119 Dalrymple, Derek 93, 107, 199 Dandridge, Nakita 105 Danforth, Ben 105 Davis, Tamika 105 Davis, Toyre 105 Dawkins, Ronald 105 Dawson, Denise 118, 125 Day, Torie 15 Decarlo, Kara 105 Deck, Julian 105 De Jesus, Padlo 105 Dela Cruz, Melissa 93 Delacy, Margaret 120, 121 D' Emidio, Joe 183 De Filippi, James 79, 81, 8 132, 186 Deleon, Eugenia 19, 80, 81 180, 181 Denney, Lakeisha 105 Denney, Robert 93 Deras, Ludwin 105 Derham, Chris 105 DeSouza, Alexander 81 DeSouza, Wilson 81 Deuel, Kathleen 11, 16, 18 Dewitt, Jill 10, 105, 109, 1 Devenes, William 93 Diaz, Jose 93 Diaz, Olderin 28 Diaz, Wilber 28 Djabety, Henry 81 Dodson, Robert 119 Doggett, Travis 81 Doheny, Nick 81

Covarrubias, Cindy 105, 1

Covarrubias, Veronica 81

Crawley, Mr. James 116, 1

Craver, Josh 81

Crawley, Jamilla 81

Crockett, Kevin 115

Cruz, Emelin 105

Cruz, Ever 105

Cruz, John 105

Cruz, Norma 81

Cruz, Silvia 92, 142

Cubillos, Claudia 65, 74

Cruz, Jose 81

Ayele, Samrawit 44

Black, Nicole 147

Bladen, Rebecca 45, 137, miniquez, Emilia 93 miniquez, Walter 105 minick, Seila 93 uglas, Russell 105 pppers, Geoffrey 105 yton, Maurice 93 ong, Lu 23, 93, 99 rshin, Micheal 32, 80, 81,

E

ier, Totoya 105 itt, Colin 105 rhart, Jessica 19, 81, 175 rt, William 105 evarria, Jennifer 93 v, Joseph 12, 19, 93, 137 ards, Erin 93 idge, Hal 105 ne, Genie 93 ovic, Lena 105, 8 idge, Liz 134, 136 iaradia, Mohamed, 93 nberg, Matt 105 ram, Kenuana 43, 168, quez, Julia 105 es, Marie 105 dante, Karla 93 bar, Edwin 105 E noza, Carla 81 rman, Sophia 93 ns, Astochia 119 rs, John 81 sis, Sean 12, 81, 89 Evis, Suzanne 117

F

Matt 22 cett, Irene 123 dstein, Matt 81 ter, Erin 28 cer, Molly 12, 13, 15,20, 42, 43, 70, 130, 141 gandez, Henry 72 Forandez, Nicholas 93 i, Geraldine 119, 129 Filler, Edward 175 ter, Alex 82 er, Christine 43 zerald, Jamie 82 nenzo, Franklin 82 ero, Cesar 82 ez, Ingrid 74 Flez, Jennifer 17, 42, 72,

Florey, Blanca 93 Franco, Reina 93 Frankel, Candy 119, 121 Frankenfeld, Marionella 119 Freeman, Ebony 10, 82, 168, 169 Fuentes, Guilleramo 93 Fulton, Carrie 93

G

Gaines, Benjamin 93

Gaitan, Edwin 93

Gaito, Joseph 106 Games, Katherine 93 Garate, Cesar 106 Garcia, Allan 165 Garcia, Angela 106, 111 Garcia, Bob 122 Garcia, Cecilia 106 Garcia, Juan 106 Garcia, Marvin 82 Garcia, Matt 82, 117 Garcia, Nelson 106 Gaskill, James 106 Gasque, Cheryl 82, 147 Gearhart, Nathan 82 Geer, Silvia 120 Geiger, Jeff 19, 132, 160 Geiger, Justin 103, 106, 113 Genie, Jose 82 Geter, John 106 Ghannan, Mousa 93 Gill, Harjinder 174 Gill, Nindy 128, 130, 93, 136 Gill, Thomas 123 Giles, Beth 106, 110, 111, 113 Gillespe, Adia 93 Gilreath, John 14, 17, 75, 165 Glover, Patrina 93 Gomez, Claudia, 93 Gomez, Jose 82 Gomez, Maria 82 Gonzalez, Victor 82 Gorman, Michael Gottschalk, Lisa 93 Grady, Yvonne 121 Graham, Markehia 106 Granados, Mario 111 Ganados-Pruiz, Nelson 82 Gandon, Julie 106, 149 Greenblatt, Noah 93, 175 Griffing, Alexander 82 Groleau, Jamie 82 Groleau, Linda 106 Grove, Doug 120, 125, 176 Guadalupe, Cynthia 82

Guadique, Jose 82

Guadique, Noris 111
Guerra, Marleny 82
Guevarra, Albert 93
Guevarra, Edith 93, 172, 173, 175
Guevarra, Glennda 82
Gutierrez, German 106
Gutierrez, Mauricio 106
Gutierrez, Veronica 82
Guryansky, Melanie 82
Guzman, Maria 106, 18
Guzmoir, Daisy 82

H

Habtesion, Kidane 172, 173, Habtesion, Nat 82, 176, 177 Hachana, Tim 82 Hadary, Michael 92 Hadiji, Mouldi 119 Hadiji, Nessim 93 Hall, Cristina 29, 160 Hall, Heather 106 Halliday, David 93 Hamilton, Dominique 106 Hammond, Travis 93 Harocopos, John 119, 132 Hargough, Edith 175 Hardy, Bushra 106 Hardy, Mary 82 Harmon, Margaret 118, 121 Harmon, Reid 82,85 Harrick, Sarah 9, 10, 12, 20, 42, 46, 43, 135, 139, 163, 170 Harris, Brenda 118 Harris, Margaret 122 Hartman, Laura 8, 9, 10, 30, 31, 128, 139, 153, 183 Harvey, Charmaine 93 Harvey, Ginger 20 Hatch, Jim 119, 121, 125, 167 Hawley, Jeffery 93 Hazelwood, Eddie 106 Heatley, Jack 175 Heatley, Charmaine 93 Hem, Chaay 82 Hem, Choeun 106 Hennighan, Shawneece 82 Hendrick, Nicole 106 Henriquez, Alicia 93 Henriquez, Ana 82 Henriquez, Elvis 106 Henriquez, Rafael 106 Hernandez, Bessy 93 Hernandez, Daniela 106

Hernandez, David 94

Herbert, Nela 93 Herbert, Scott 106, 167 Herrera, Aroldo 94 Herrera, William 106 Hertwig, Annette 106 Hildt, Amanda 82, 84, 134, 160, 172 Hildt, Patrick 8, 35 Hill, Eric 175 Hill, Themicka 94 Hinton, Neonta 106 Ho, Trang 94 Hoai, Lisa 111, 149 Hogan, Michael 94 Holland, Paul 94, 167 Hollar, Gillian 94 Hollinder, Lisa 12, 112, 113 Hollis, Jessica 94 Horn, Andrea 182 Horton, Eric 171 Howard, Erin 29, 94 Huapaya, Lisbeth 94 Huff, Dejuan 94 Huff, Steve 82 Hugo, Diaz 94 Humbert, Irene 140 Hunter, Chris 94 Hurtador, Marco 94 Hussien, Mona 94 Hutchinson, Jason 12, 42, 165, 175

Hernandez, Jose 106

Hernandez, Maria 82, 138

Hernandez, Marleni 106

Hernandez, Narnia 82

I

Ico, Elaine 106 Imbresia, Fran 119 Inge, Amy 94 Irigoyen, Claudia 94 Irigoyen Jasmine 82, 142 Isha, Maureen 12, 42, 43

J

Jane, Sara 147
Jaldin, Cynthia 82
James, Patricia 94
Jan, Ahmad 82
Jarik, Muna 94
Jeens, Peggy 118, 120, 221
Jenkins, Theresa 20, 120
Jensen, Anne 94
Jenson, Kristin 94
Jenson, Mark 94
Jernigan, Elizabeth 9, 10,110

Jernigan, Lillie 9, 75 Jimenez, Jose 94 Johnson, Crystal 93 Johnson, Elizabeth 94 Johnston McIntosh, Jamie 107 Juarez, Evelyn 94

K

Kao, Peter 107

Kacklkey, Wathen 121 Kaim, Amit 82 Kaim, Preeti 82 Kaing, Ty 178 Kangithe, Ruth 107 Karaus, Bryn 107, 112, 113 Key, Damon 82 Keating, Owen 94 Kebede, Asmeret 107 Keller, Mary 94 Kelsa, Richard 107 Kenefahe, Tom 120 Khan, Debbie 107, 110 Khan, Murad 14, 16, 17, 66, 74 Khanna, Pooja 147 Kikel, Jay 94 Kikel, Matt 30, 35, 139 Kirkland, Lashawn 82 Kirton, Thomas 107 Kittleman, Florence 82, 179 Klintberg, Eric 27, 94, 160 Klontz, Mary-Hannah 20, 120 Knapik, Rob 94 Knott, Eric 94 Koehl, Robert 82, 172 Koenecke, Lisa 182 Kramer, Jenny 82, 147 Kramer, Michael 107 Krepon, Josh 22, 67 Ksaybati, Tarek 94 Kunze, Patrick 94

L

LaBarbara, Marilyn
76,118,120,123
Labriny, Saila 94
Lam, SonNgoc 123
Lamas, Leslie 107
Lampard, Charles 165
Landaverde, Maria 123
Lane, Jennifer 34
Lane, Marissa 43
Lanos, Juan 82
Lapsomphop, Sopita 107, 149
Laranjeira, Melissa 82

La Rue, Mrs. 142 Larson, Arnie 94 Lassell, David 94, 102 Laughlio, Tom 175 Lavere, Suzanne 107 Lazo, Michael 94 Lazevnick, Andrea 107 Lederle, Joanna 94 Ledinh, Wayne 107 Ledyard, Anne 118, 119, 121 Lee, Bora 92, 175 Lee, Raymond 94 Lee, Thomas 104 Leeb, Marilyn 120 Leiva, Edwin 94 Lemon, Amanda 82 Lengle, Christopher 107 Lengle, Michael 94, 186 Leon, Roberta 94 Leverton, Marianne 118 Levine, Joann 118 Lewis, Jelena 95 Lewis, Jovan 107 Lewis, Monique 104 Lewis, Nicole 82, 140 Lezana, Maggie 95 Libsky, Richard 119 Lenares, Gary 104 Linares, Katherine 107 Linares, Shirley 107 Liverette, Barbara 95 Loerich, Melissa 16, 82, 175 Lomax, Jamar 176 Lopacinski, Erica 92, 95 Lope de Haro-Salleh, Aisha 39, 42, 66 Lope de Haro-Salleh, Jason 91, 178 Lopez, Carole 121, 124, 141 Lorenzo, Orliza 150 Lowery, Kari 95 Lozano, Nestor 111 Lu, Kimmy 95 Luangkhotk, Samantha 82 Lucas, Pete 107 Lugn, Rachel 95 Luia, Jenny95 Lumives, Jay 107 Ly, Trink 107

M

Lynch, Brian 107, 113

Lynn, Jesse 82

McBride, Graham 112 McDermott, Laura 119 McDonargh, Pat 122 McFail, Jarreau 82, 176, 177 McGill, Eileen 141
McMahon, Dawn 120
McManus, Lauren 82, 147, 180
McNamara, Rich 120
McNomee, Kathleen 95
McSwain, Chris 82, 176
Mabood, Razal 95
Mahaley, Tory 95, 171, 175
Malare, Fina 147
Mallon, Patrick 95

Mallon, Patrick 95 Malloy, Christine 95, 182 Malloy, Daniel 82 Mangan, Ailenda 24

Malloy, Daniel 82 Mangan, Ailenda 24 Manjue, Bablu 95 Manuela, Vallejos 95 Mardakis, Anthony 111 Mardakis, Emily 141 Marquez, Elsy 95

Marquez, Sandra 82 Marshall, La'Shawn 17, 43, 160 Martin, Mary 119, 131

Martin, Mary 119, 131 Martinez, Vanessa 82 Mason, Beth 120 Mason, Lawerence 95 Massaro, Melinda 118

Massaro, Melinda 118 Matute, Issac 95 Mayo, Angel 140 Mayo, Jerome 166 Mayuri, Sadid 95 Medlen, Anna 119 Mediano, Cruz 82 Medrano, Jesus 95

Megia, Iris 95 Mejara, Ana 82 Melgar, Oscar 95 Melo, Gilberto 165 Mendez, Helen 82 Mendez, Omar 95 Mercado, Carla 95 Merida, Claudia 95

Merida, Claudia 95 Meyer, Meredith 95, 137 Mijango, Reyna 95 Miller, Virginia 123 Mink, Andrea 18, 183 Miranda, Josue 82 Miranda, Saphia 95

Mon, Jim 119, 166, 185 Montero, Amilcar 95 Monyalvo, Sergio 95 Moore, Lina 29

Moore, Troy 29, 176, 177 Moorhead, Lucy 118

Morales, Aulet 82 Moran, Erin 8 Moran, Tom 82 Morgan, Joni 82

Morland, David 82, 83, 133 Morris, Barbara 26, 119, 135

Moten, Larnice 95

Mulhern, Jim 118 Munoz, Maria 142 Murphy, Matt 67 Murray, Bob 119 Murray, Mike 120 Musser, Rob 95

N

Nacalabian, Marco 108 Nadei, George 108 Najarro, Karina 95 Naranjo, Gloria 82 Naranho, Yasmin 95 Navarette, Jose 111 Nava, Jessica 108 Neely, Harold 12, 112 Neighbors, Travis 108 Nelson, Nicole 11, 20, 42, 46 Newman, Rachel 95 Nguyen, Christine 82 Nguyen, Le-My 82, 145 Nguyen, Tri An 145 Nguyen, Uyen Nicholas, Pelzer 95 Nichols, Kathern 175 Nichols, Stephanie 174 Nina, Gary 95 Nina, Maria 82 Niner, Chuck 82 Nocera, Wyatt 134 Northrip, Shawn 3, 30, 119, Norton, Brian 95, 175 Norton, Mary 123

O'Brien, Sean 95 O'Campo, Jennifer 74, 75, 170 O'Connor, Chris 87, 89 O'Connor, Lydia 95 Odie, Lynn 95 Ogbe, Philipos 87 Oh, Chin 95 Ojabatey, Henry 176 Olson, Jody 30, 31, 39, 129, 132, 136 Olson, Tim 7, 31, 103, 110, 111 Onisile, Bisi 11 Oo, Ye Naung 87 O'Rear, Chris 87, 172 Orellana, Jorge 87 O'Rourke, Ian 109 Osso, Jeannie 118, 119, 143 Ovando, Marco 95, 186

P

Paddock, Crystal 96 Page, Ronald 96 Pak, Jin Woo 96, 179, 133 Palacios, Elsy 96 Palacios, Gloria 119 Palmer, Veronica 87 Paravastu, Padmavathi 119 Paredes, Litzi 87 Parocai, Sean 96 Parra, Dolores 87 Partman, Asia 87 Pastigo, Edmundo 96 Patel, Achyut 96, 100 Patsel, Anna 87 Patterson, Ron 120 Peele, Yolando 70, 140 Pelham, Denisha 83, 87 Penazola, Isneal 96 Penning, Anna 96 Peralta, Joe 114, 124 Perez, Asper 96 Peters, David 112, 119, 122 Petta, Alicia 96, 101 Petty, Kenny 39 Pfoutz, Erin 131 Pfoutz, Nicki 109 Philly, Kim 79, 83, 87, 131 Phillips, Melissa 174 Philipi, Mrs. 30 Phoul, Charanpreet 87 Phung, Thuy Van 145 Phuong, San 87

Pino, Michael 96 Pleas-Humbert, Irene 120 Poplin, Beth 87 Poplin, Jerry 12, 96

Pineda, Paulo 87

Portilla, Jorje 87 Powell, Brian 87 Pradham, Sumita 87 Prazin, Jason 87 Price, Jonathan 39, 64, 70

Pilot, Brad 96, 167, 175

Pruzin, Michael 175 Pulliam, Katherine 87

Puryear, Anthony 96 Puryear, John 87

Putnam, Wendy 8, 28, 84, 87

Q

Qazei, Najibullah 87 Quintanilla, Jose 87 R

Rabasa, Marilea 119 Rafiq, Shahida 64 Ragon, Ali 104 Rahman, Mazlu 64 Ramirez, Ana 96 Ramirez, Orlando 123 Randall, Kimberly 87 Ranero, Hector 96 Rangaratna, Chakraph 64 Rangaratna, Parnchak 96 Ranquillo, Bianca 96 Ray, Delshawn 46, 64, 66, 18 Razina, Akhter 96 Remington, Cecile 87 Rente, Claudia 9, 19, 87, 89 Reyes, Ana 64, 66 Reyes, Lenor 96 Reyes, Paola 64 Ricks, Lakeba 96 Ridley, Sharon 71 Riesner, Gabrielle 16, 19, 80, Riesner, Ria 10, 35, 46, 135 Riggs, Jason 72 Riggs, Sarah 16, 33, 72, 131 Rivas, Manny Rivera, Delmy 87 Rivera, Michel 96 Rivero, Walter 87 Robinson, Alexander 120 Robinson, Casey 180 Robinson, Kathy 87 Robinson, Kyla 174, 180 Robinson, Theus 96 Rodger, Chris 120 Rodriguez, Jeimy 96 Rodriguez, Jose 96 Rodriguez, Karen 87 Rodreguez, Vladimir 64 Rojas, Patricio 122 Romero, Edgar 87

Roque, Manuel Rosado, Neftali 149 Rosales, Dania 64, 70, 71, 74 Rose, Lakisha 87

Rooney, Kathy 18, 139, 172,

Rose, Tawana 15, 87 Rose, Tiffany 87 Rose, Troy 96 Rosser, Alvin 147 Rouse, Phillip 96, 101

Romero, Norma 96

Romero, Oscar 96

Rondon, Irene 119

175, 187

Ronquilla, Bianca 92

R, Jason 16, 96, 179 Rz, Barbara 96 Rz, Luz 96 Rsell, Blair 29, 64, 72, 187 Rsell, David 29, 96, 267, 187 Rn, Gina 96

S

ed, Alfred 120
uita, Aerel 96
zar, Kerrie 30, 31, 96, ado, Gloria 96
ado, Jose 64
nas, Alivia 96
pson, Robyn 64, 128, 134, hez, Azael 96 hez, Maria 96 hez, Miki 149 hez, Mikili 87 ls, Jorge 87 ines, Veronica 109 an, Rodrigo 65 Steven 96 s. Minas 109 rath, Soundara 109 areth, Ty 96 efer, Elliot 109, 166 Istrate, Tom 120 cller, Blake 87, 176 cller, Mika 97 oles, Tiffany 97 Scile, Gretchen 109, 135 za, Sara 97 Scen, Shynette 17, 64

Seni, Mantej 97, 101

J., Mariela 97

Seen, Charles 64, 129

E. Addriana 97

a, Maria 65

e, Summer 109

rich, Carla 87

e la, Eduardo 14 e la, Jose 109 Se II, Mark 109

h , Rukhsiana 97 ₩ard, Cory 97

hbaugh, Dr. William 12, 25,

h fi, Haider 109 h ma, Dhrub 19, 87 cer, Lula 97 da, Sidd 87, 134, 137, 139 naker, Mr. 117 Stan, Efrain 97 Striz, Yuri 109 Sun, Balder 97

Singh, Vileram 109 Sirikan, Nityaporn 87 Smith, Brandy 65 Smith, David 87 Smith, Linda 123 Smith, Lindsay 174, 181 Smith, Taisha 11, 65 Smith, Valerie 109 Snider, Wesley 97 Snow, Robert 186 Snyder, Kelly 182 Solander, Adam 15, 97 Soliz, Wendy 87 Soriano, Edson 65, 70 Sokia, Bonnie 97 Sorto, Sonia 109 Sotak, Anne 120, 130 Sothy, Neat 7, 18, 30, 31, 34, 35, 65, 71, 75, 129 Sothy, Nich 27, 109, 113 Southard, Arlene 20, 120, 125 Southard, Gary 120, 124 Spicer, Audrey 21, 120, 140 Spicer, Gary 76 Spring, Adam 109 Spinner, Derrick 97 Staats, Jeanette 87 Stamps, Johanna 109, 111 Stamps, Peter 87 Stanard, Jason 13, 198 Stanley, Anthony 18, 87, 177 Staiffer, Chrissy 109 Stefan, Jessica 65 Steinkamp, Paavd 109 Stewart, Marcus 97, 176 Stewart, Christine 9, 19, 86, 87, 174 Strack, Peter 87, 184 Stroble, Tim 97 Stroebel, Mr. 112, 181 Strong, Kurt 109 Stubbs, Matt 20, 34, 39, 65,175 Stylianos, Faye 80, 87 Subhan, Fazal 97 Sullivan, Richard 7, 35 Sura, Luis 97

T

Suyo, Arcino 65

Swartz, Eric 87

Talbott, Damon 109
Talley, Givonne 65, 165, 176
Talley, Nate 97, 165, 176, 177
Taylor, Barbara 87
Taylor, Brendan 97
Taylor, Derik 65
Taylor, Monique 87

Tebron, Melvin 97 Tefera, Tsebaot 87 Tekie, Aaron 65 Templeman, Anthony 68 Tenequer, Tawnya 87 Thoburn, Carl 120 Thomas, Jim 186 Thomas, Susan 120 Thompson, Chanto 87 Thompson, Jason 109 Thornburgh, Gloria 97 Tian, Minh Hoan 97 Tichian, Patrice 112, 119 Tiglaa, Larry 87 Tipan, Yadira 68 Toler, Joyce 117 Tonakarn, Ann 80, 139 Torres, Barbara 109 Torres, Franklin 87 Torrez, Richard 87 Torrico, Borris 68 Torrico, Jhonny 8, 87 Toum, Socheata 109 Trahant, Chris 109 Trahant, Tim 18, 79, 85, 86, 87 Tran, Tan 109 Trigo, Erland 68 Trigger, Mindy 66, 67, 68, 160, 172, 175 Trujillo, Giovanna 109 Trillo, Roda 109 Trinh, Houng Ngo 123 Troung, Minh Duc 97, 145 Tschetter, Matt 97, 186 Tsimaris, Savas 68 Turcios, Blanca 97 Turcios, Carmen 109 Turner, Cassie 32, 97

U

Tyre, Chris 23, 33, 97

Uffen, Elizabeth 109 Uffen, Jordan 87 Urbina, Oscar 97 Urdininea, Marienela 109 Urratia, Jose 87 Utt, Micah 109, 112 Uvges, Rod 120, 146

Valdenegro, Maria 109 Valdes, Christina 88 Valdes, Pat 109 Valdez, Fatima 85, 88, 144 Valdivieso, Tony 97, 178 Valenzuela, Fabian 87 Vallejo, Ana 68 Vallejos, Manuela 32 Van Cam, Huynh 97 Vankirk, Christine 120, 125 Vanorman, John 109 Van Orman, Marja 22, 88 Varga, Lisa 121 Vargas, Lorena 72 Vargas, Mariela 97 Vargas, Rafael 109 Vargas, Yesenia 97 Varn, Celita 120 Vasquez, Dama 142 Vasquez, Gary 97 Vasquez, Juan 97 Vasquez, Mark 109 Vasquez, Nichole 109 Velasquez, Christian 7, 165 Velez, Marisol 68 Ventura, Patricia 68 Ventura, William 88 Venturo, Delmy 97 Vergara, Lorena 68 Verney, Toshiba 109 Via, Taqueleina 142 Villalba, Elizabeth 109 Villanueva, Monica 68, 75, 141 Villanueva, Vania 85, 88 Villarroel, Fabio 109 Villatero, Jackie 97 Villatoro, Raul 109 Vinayak, Aristo 147 Vo, Thao Xuan 68, 147

Wagner, Mrs. 122 Walden, Tom 120 Walker, Chris 26, 88 Walker, Daniel 27, 69 Walker, Malcolm 69 Walker, Ryan 97 Walter, Chris 35, 69 Walton, Johann 97 Wang, Pei-Yan 88 Ward, Calundia 97 Wasse, Keith 109 Watson, Christic 92, 97, 183 Watson, Tudy 122 Watts, Kevin 88 Watts, Michelle 97, 180, 181 Weaver, Emily 109 Weems, Laura 109, 135, 187 Weinhardt, Fred 120, 121, 134 Weisand, Pam 121 Wells, Kathryn 98 Wells, Matt 69, 134, 136, 160,

186 Welsh, Kauti 109, 111 Wentling, Clyde 175 Wentling, Sudie 3, 10, 12, 42, 43, 46, 69, 140, 171, 180 Wentzell, Craig 109 White, Ben 121 Whitehead, Kenneth 110 Whitley, Goshua 98 Whittaker, Adam 110 Wilkerson, Pat 119, 133 Williams, Bethany 88, 169 Williams, Jynan 98 Willis, Horace 178 Wilson, Alethea 98 Wilson, Kristen 87 Wilson, Seth 110 Woods, Judy 118, 122 Woodson, Robaleen 110 Wooldridge, Ms. 149 Wright, Jody 91, 98, 138 Wurfel, Steve 110 Wyatt, Tim 120 Wycoff, Courtney 110

Xinxola, Marta 98 Xu, Jin 110

Yabar, Eric 98 Yabar, Juliessa 88 Yanez, Rhina 98 Yi, Michelle 69, 134 Yin, Yunan 110 You, Mittpheap 46 Young, Tycie 98 Yaresaf, Zahid 98 Yuzefovich, Igor 98, 135

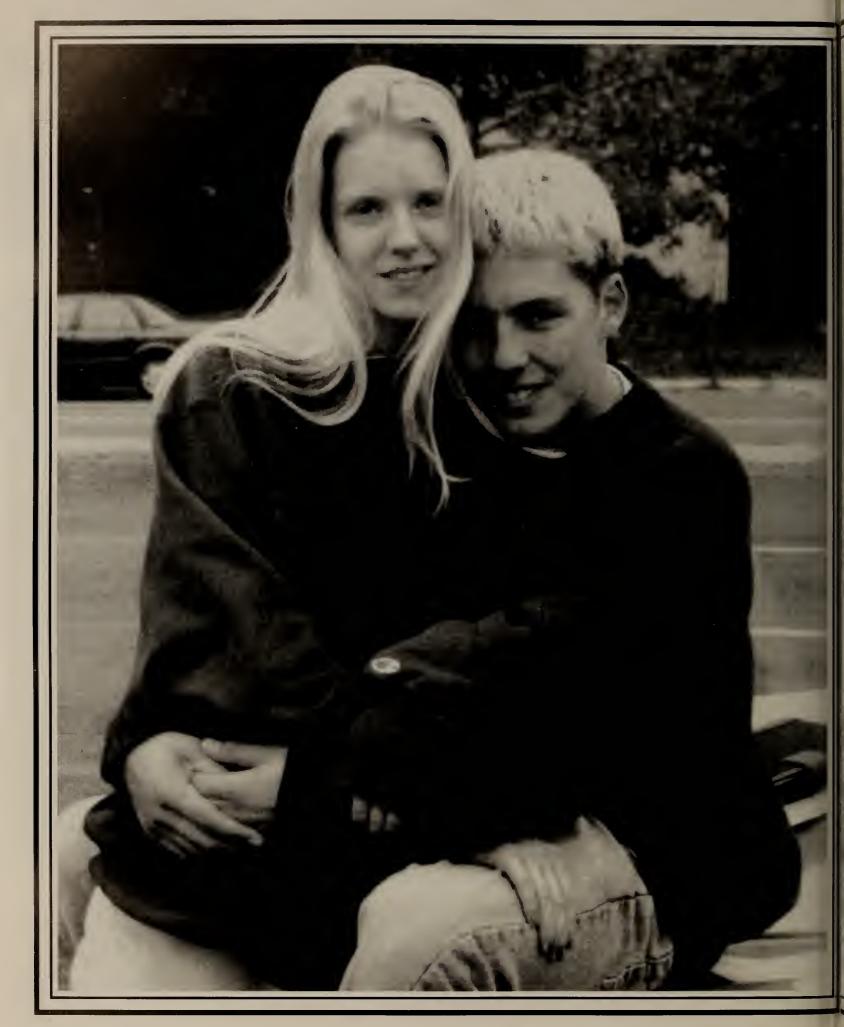

Z

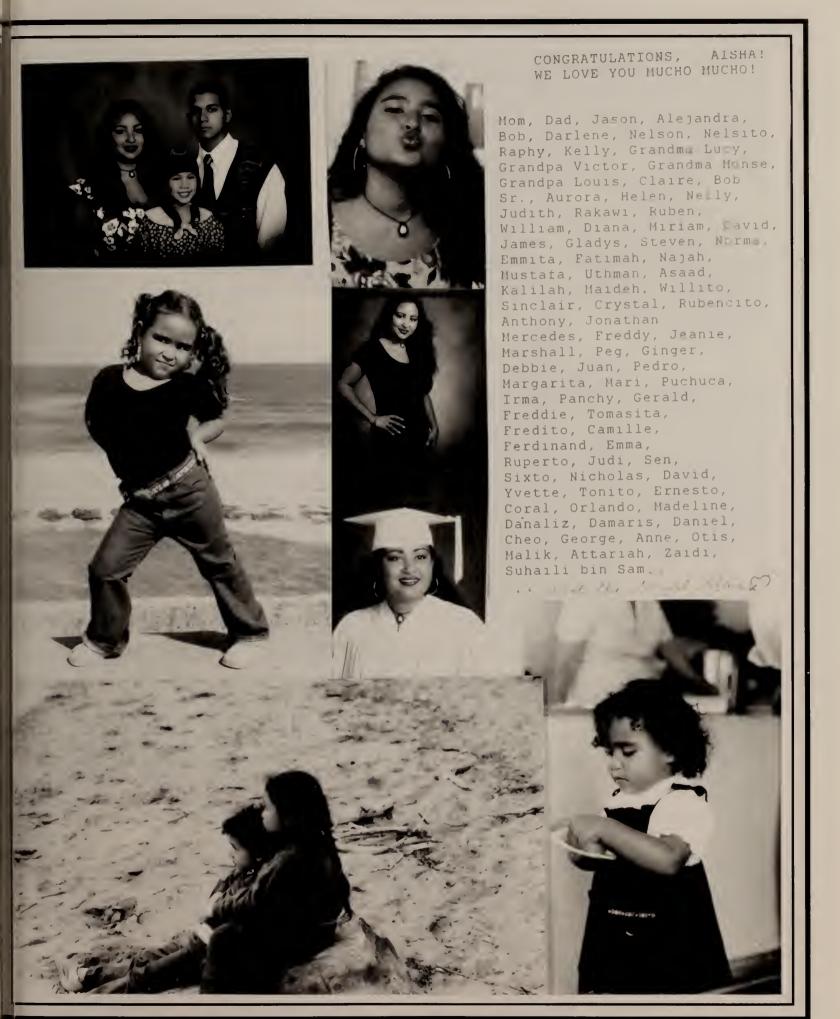

Zalkind, Robert 30, 31, 110
Zamora, Ericka 98
Zanders, Sam 12, 42, 69, 74, 176
Zapata, Karen 110
Zaqqout, Jamal 98
Zarceno, Geovanny 98
Zebrak, Alan 98
Zelaya, Jose 98
Zelaya, Rubidia 98
Zenteno, Gonzalo 88
Zourzoukis, Costadina 69

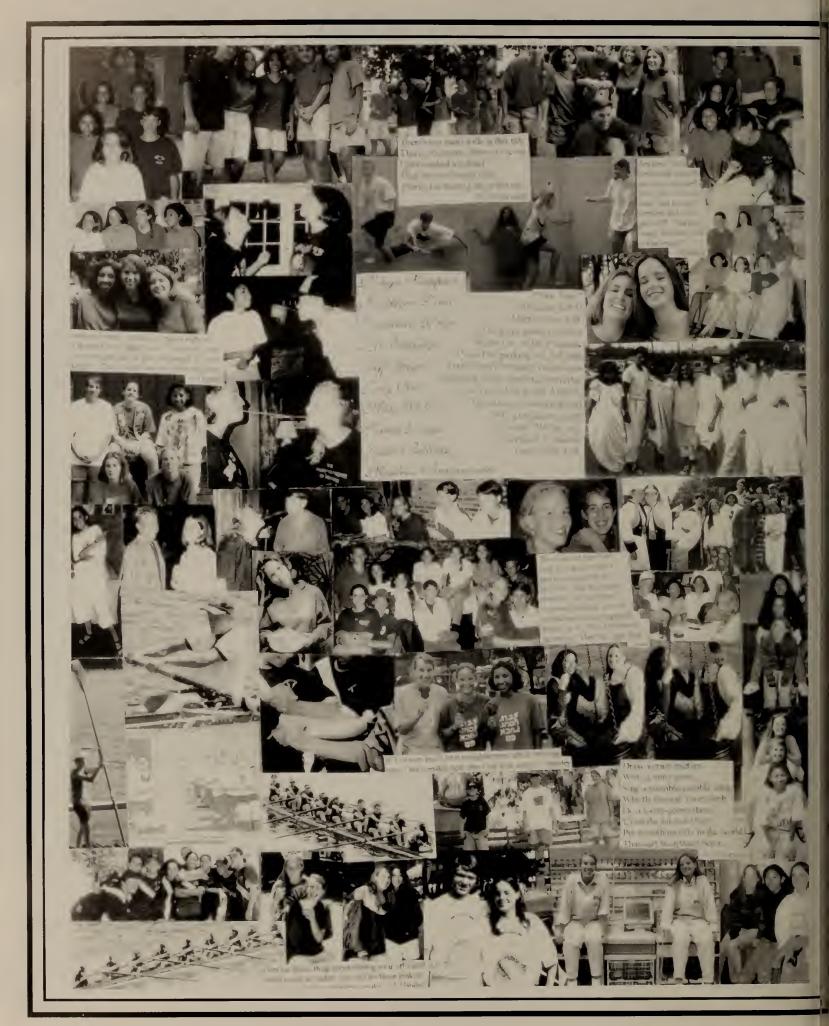

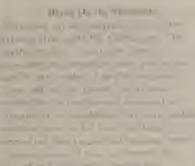

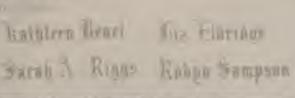

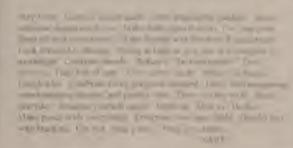

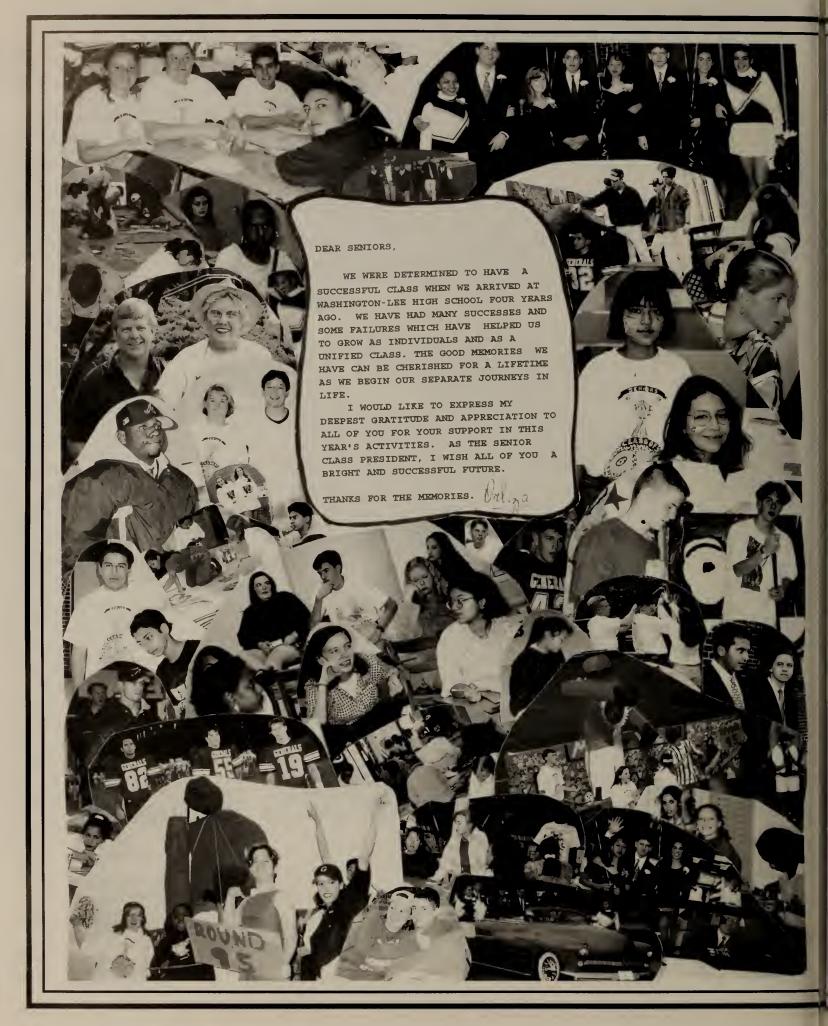

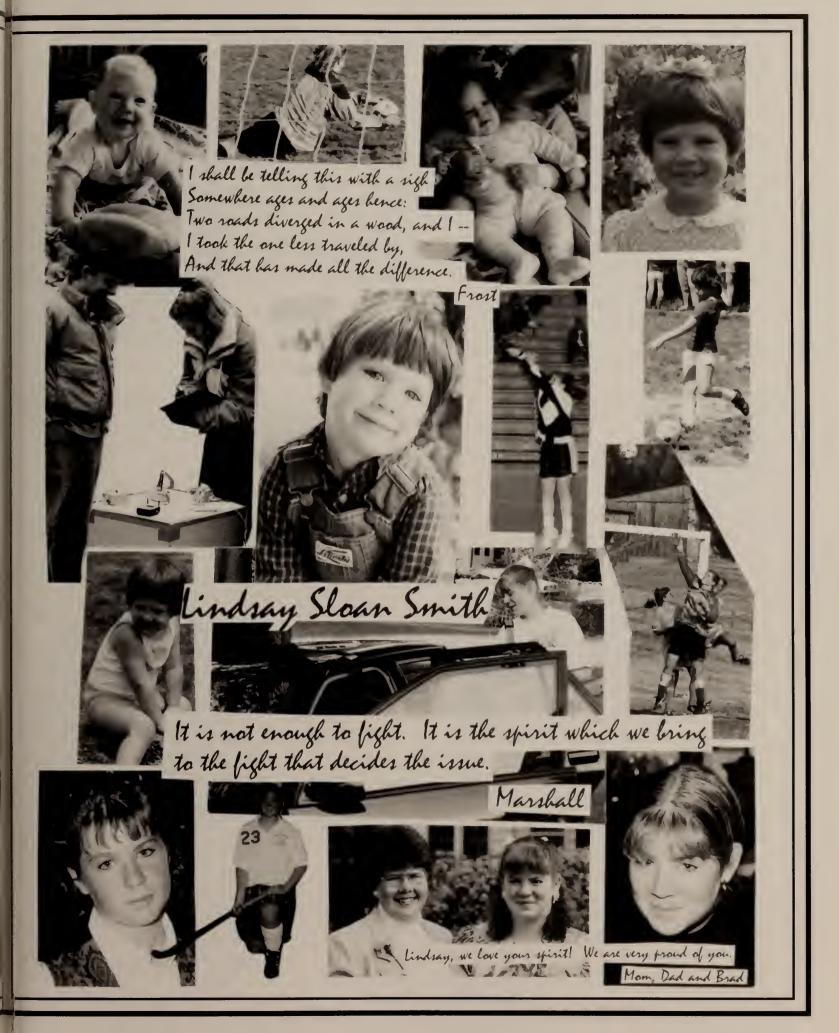

With Love, Mom and Dad and Miki

To Our Daughter Kathleen

"Possunt quia posse vindentur"
-Virgil AeneidTrans. "She will because she believes she will"

Love Mom and Dad 1995

Andrea- We did it! We made it through yet another incredible year at W-L I couldn't have done it without you. Don't worry, I have forgiven you for leaving me to fend for myself in the harsh world of the Arlington social scene. We have had our share of tough times but there was never a doubt in my hind that we'd make it. There aren't words to describe how much you mean to me. When you become the big college girl you better never forget me. Remember... Twin Day '94, (the accidental ones, too), the naming of Big Ol, Big Ol, Homecoming '94, the football game that you didn't talk for 9 min. and 45 sec., un dives through Georgetown, flips outside the boathouse, me hooking you up PHATLYIA could I please go on... Well, Andi, (Beavis, Charlie) I will love you always. Keep breathing! Kate (Amos, Butthead, Brown).

Sarah-God!What a year!! don't really know what to say We had some pretty cool times! Frakenstein was the best. Play-doh rules! (Uh...you have glitter in your hair) Bumper cars kick # I am so glad that you're going to UVA. I'll have a reason to visit my sister. We'll see Dave Matthews every time he plays. Phish, too, of course. Well, my fellow Deadhead, Thanks for everything, especially letting me get in your trunk. If you ever need me, I'm here. I Love you, My little sunshine!

-Kate

"You and me have a better time than most can dream, have it better than the best. We can pull on through whatever tears us down, whatever holds us down. And if nothing can be done we'll make the best of what's around"

-DAVE MATTHEWS BAND

cland Well, where do I start? We have been through everything imaginable by any normal human. And surprisingly enough we are both still here. We may be scared and bruised, but here none the less. Done ever forget sipping Boone's at your house, or fun talks about that certain subject that we couldn't seem to stay off of So, Thope that you find the right girl to take showers with at college. I wish you he best. I love you. Thanks for everything. -Kate

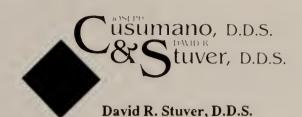

Westover Florist

5872 N. Washington BLVD Arlington, VA 22205 (703) 841-0021

Westover Custom Shop Professional Alternation — Custom Design & Tailoring Serving Men & Women Apparel Prom dresses too!

5852 #4 N. Wash, Blvd. Arlington, VA 22205

Fareida Dosky (703) 237-5651

4350 North Fairfax Drive, Suite 135, Arlington, Virginia 22203 (703)525-4071 Fax (703)525-0868

Congratulations!!!! Shynette(peeny)

Good Luck in the future Love Mom and Dad BEST WISHES AND SUCCESS TO FAYE FLORIE, MEL, VANIA AND TO THE CLASS OF 96. STEVE AND ANDREA STYLIANOS

Congratulations Torie(sister girl)

Best Wishes

Love Mr. and Mrs. Screen

WE FOUGHT, WE MADE UP. WE HATED, WE LOVED, SIBLINGS WE MAY BE, BUT FRIENDS WE GROW STRONGER

ANDREA...

Cherish the memories and build on your dreams...

> Best Wishes, Dad, Mom & Sister

Winless as 9th graders, you improved every season under Coach Alexander, voted Coach of the Year this season by his peers! As seniors you were 11 1 and defeated Yorktown for the first time in 17 years! You thrilled us with spectacular victories, extraordinary court etiquette, and scholarly accomplishments as honor roll student athletes Good luck seniors Sarah Harrick, Jennifer Ocampo, Blair Russell and Sudie Wentling! A Cinderella season, thanks for the memories!

Love from Your Proud Parents

CONGRATULATIONS ILILLIE FOR GOOD WORK WELL DONE EWOJI MOM & ELIZABETTE YOU'VE COME A LONG WAY BABY!!

OPEN EVERYDAY MON-FRI 9AM - 7PM SAT 10-4, SUN 12-3

PARCE

243-2101

4301 N Fairfax Drive (Entrance on Utah Street

YOUR BALLSTON POSTAL CENTER

UPS

FED EX

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES!

YOUR BALLSTON PARCEL PLUS and don't forget Parcel Plus when you're sending things to college

BOXES U.S. MAIL

Arlington Realty Specialists Since 1976

Commercial Sales & Leasing

Property Management & Consulting

& Assoc., Inc., REALTORS 2519 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22201 (703) 528-2288 ed casillas d.d.s.

3800 north fairfax drive #6 arlington, virginia 22203 527-3477

[[NGRATI]LATIONS TO THE (LABS OF '95.

BE KIND AND LET LOVE RULE!

Two Chefs

Restauant & Carry-Out NEW YORK STYLE PIZZA

525-6889

Congratulations W-L Key Club on a Successful 1994-1995 School Year! --Jacquelin Afram

"BEST WISHES TO THE CLASS OF 1995"

TERRY BRATT

Catering by Lynne

Lynne McCartin (703) 528-8710

4006 N. 27th St. Arlington, VA 22207

i FELICITACIONES Y BUENA SUERTE CLASE DEL 95!

SINCERAMENTE,

SIMON R. CONTRERAS PROFESOR DE ESPANOL 20% Off

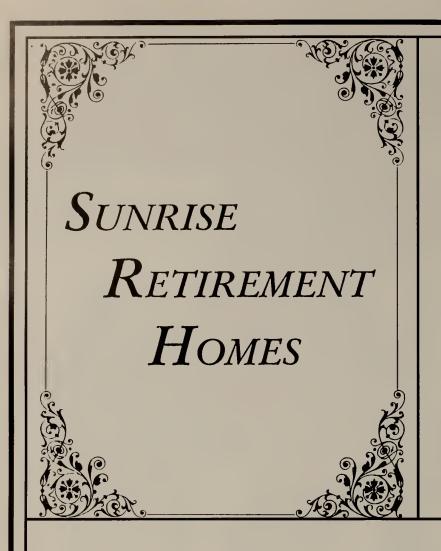

Student Discounts on all Services

Capelli Hair and Skin spa

Willston Centre II Falls Church VA 22044 6112 Arlington Blvd. (703) 241-5971

National Graphic Center

Offers a totality of in-house exhibit and visual communication services that truly set us apart. From design consultations to complete ready -to-install display components—we can do it all for you!

concept development • graphics production screenprinting • portable exhibit structures custom photography mounting and laminating

NGC— complete exhibit design & production services
For Information Call (703) 533-8700

Herb Cooper, V.P.

Caribbean Grill

5183 Lee Highway Arlington, Virginia 22207 (703) 241- 8947 Open Daily from 11:00a.m. to 9:00p.m.

Dine In -- Take Out

Jesterday is already a dream and Tomorrow is only a vision but Today, well lived makes every Yesterday a dream of happiness and every Tomorrow
a vision of hope.

4350 North Fairfax Drive, Suite 135, Arlington, Virginia 22203 (703)525-4071 Fax (703)525-0868

Rockport & Levis

Camp Trails

ADVENTURE

STORE HOURS MON -FRI 9 30-9 00 PM SAT 9 30-6 00 PM / SUN NOON 5 00 PM OFFICIAL BOY/GIRL SCOUT CENTER COLEMAN REPAIR CENTER

OUTERWEAR • WORK CLOTHING • SPORTS CLOTHING • JEANS • CAMPING GEAR • G I SURPLUS • FOOTWEAR

3451 N. Washington Blvd. Arlington, VA 22201

703-527-0604

(703) 524-2100 BUSINESS (703) 524-9014 FAX (703) 527-3292 RESIDENCE

STEVE KLINTBERG

Associate Broker
Member NVAR Million Dollar Sales Club

COLDWELL BANKER
RESIDENTIAL REAL ESTATE
4500 OLD DOMINION DRIVE
ARLINGTON. VA 22207

"Previously Read Books"
USED & RARE BOOKS — JANET & MIKE DEATHERAGE
2710 N WASHINGTON BLVD., ARLINGTON, VA. 22201
PHONE: (703) 524 — 4976

Kinder Haus Toys

4510 LEE HIGHWAY ARLINGTON, VA. 22207 (703) 527-5929

SUE PYATT

相 風 樓 HSIAN FOONG RESTAURANT

2919 N. Washington Blvd. Arlington, VA 22201

Tel: 527-6677 522-1121

Randolph Deli

4001 N. 9th St., Suite 115W Arlington, VA 22203 276-0077 13951 Metro Tech Dr. Chantilly, VA 22201 222-1315

The Pan-Tree

Fran Sawaya - Buyer 6252 Old Dominion Dr. McLean, VA 22101 (703) 241-2736

MACPHERSON OPTICIANS

Arlington's Professional Optician

5064 Lee Highway Arlington, VA 22207 (703) 536-7800 C. A. Giroux, FNAO Jim Seitz, FNAO Karen A. Evans, ABOC

RAINBOW EMBROIDERY

Al & Nancy Aitken 12211 Jennell Dr. Bristow, VA 22013 (703) 361-6211

THE PRUDENTIAL Preferred Properties

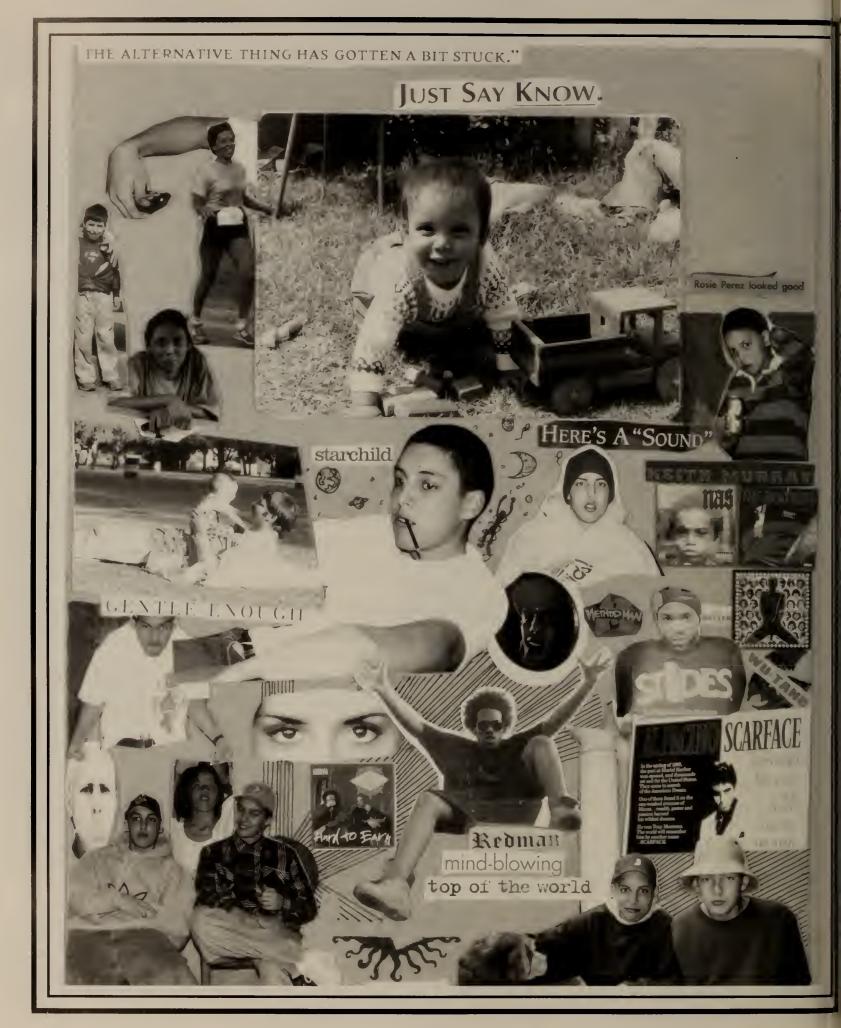

Ann C. Nichols, Real Estate Career Coordinator 2000 Corporate Ridge, Suite #830 McLean, VA 22102 (703) 448-3333

SALON MIRAGE

5868 Washington BLVD Arlington, VA 22205 534-0000

KERRIE

Ker: "Goodnight"~Joyful, Joyful-

WILD ISLAND SUNRISE

(BOOG ABOO)

Cris: Hey baby By man-come to my window-CPR chicken-around the way-footrest-old woman- painting-country singer- ski bum-sec et e- stener-writy-chicken-around the way-footrest-occuping singer ski bum-se annoying-omnipresent-

Yasmeen~eighteen or older~top 10 list~3 favorite words~player~feelings~dense~joke~goddess~hotel~princess~

MtKE'S~God's house~Taco Bell~Men in Uniform~bets~ Homecoming~which 1~covers~Stress s~gum~"the Mistake"~Happyland~the pig~reading~fair~ Group Activities"~hot tub~pizza~Gossip~perfume~friends~ sisters~brother~suff-Shake your body~Move

It- Stress-cheerleading~MIKE-Mikes-Jasons-Ely-Aviator-Catholic-ClarenceTwo-Sunbeam-Eddy-Patricks-Erics-Johns-Emil-PhillipArgentina-Hand-Stewart-Chris-Tom-Freddys-Jays-TimDave-Sunday-Tommy-Dannys-Gregs-Gary-LuLu-RyanRoss-Upstairs Man-Blue-Matt-A J -Charles-M&M-Benito
Mr Smell Good-MKI-MKII-Jo-Anne-Skinny Girl-Fat Girl"Thats tripping"- '-"I'm the only one"you love me"~I know you want me"~ ~"What the heck"~"Dude"~ Leave me alone "~"I want to sleep"~ It's hot"~"Whats up with that"~ "Im going then go then, I'm gone then go"~ devII in someone else's

ERIGA

Eric: Thats good ~ballet~model~ ke that~accent~quarterlost uiet~little girl~nap~metro~sweetie~Lambada~thongs~ bra unique~Call me conceited boy- joke~

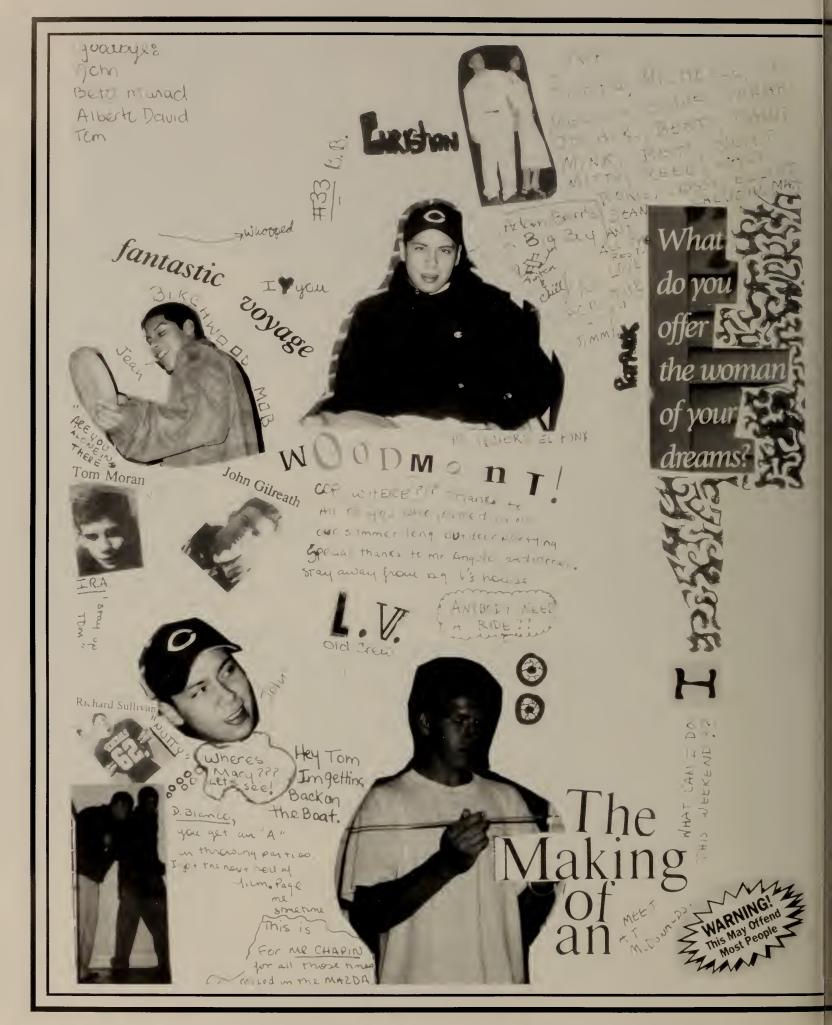

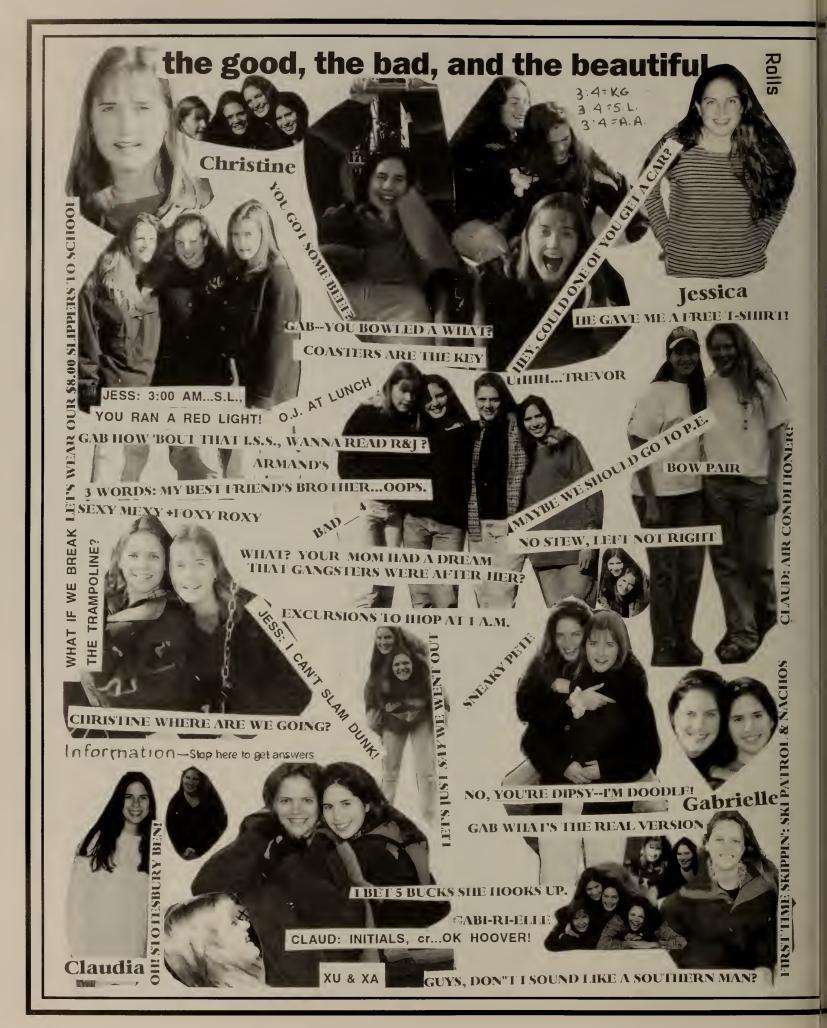

Rae: I'm sick"-laugh-Nova school-cough-1up deprie ed-asthma-gymnastics-crying-whining-pouting-idiot-crazy speak in English-Benito-

Congratulations Dlennda

Happiness isn't something you experience, it's something you remember.

Oscar Levent

With all of our love, Mom, Dad, Memar, Spi and Rue June, 1995

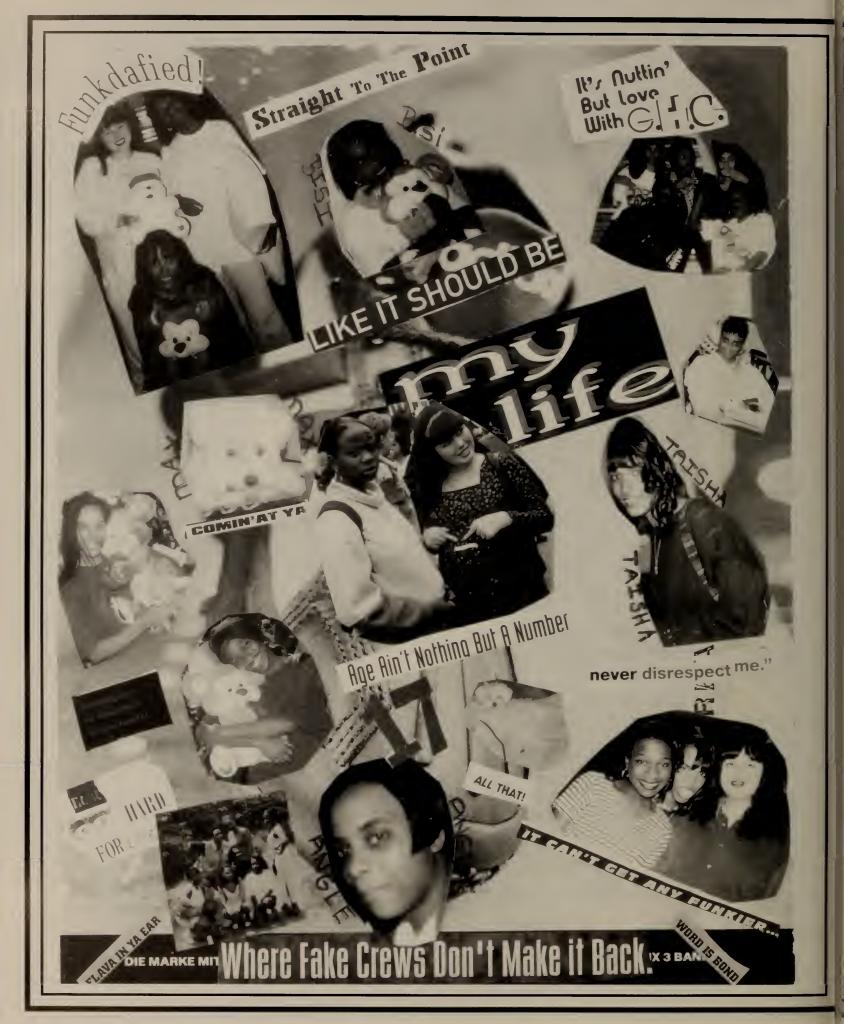

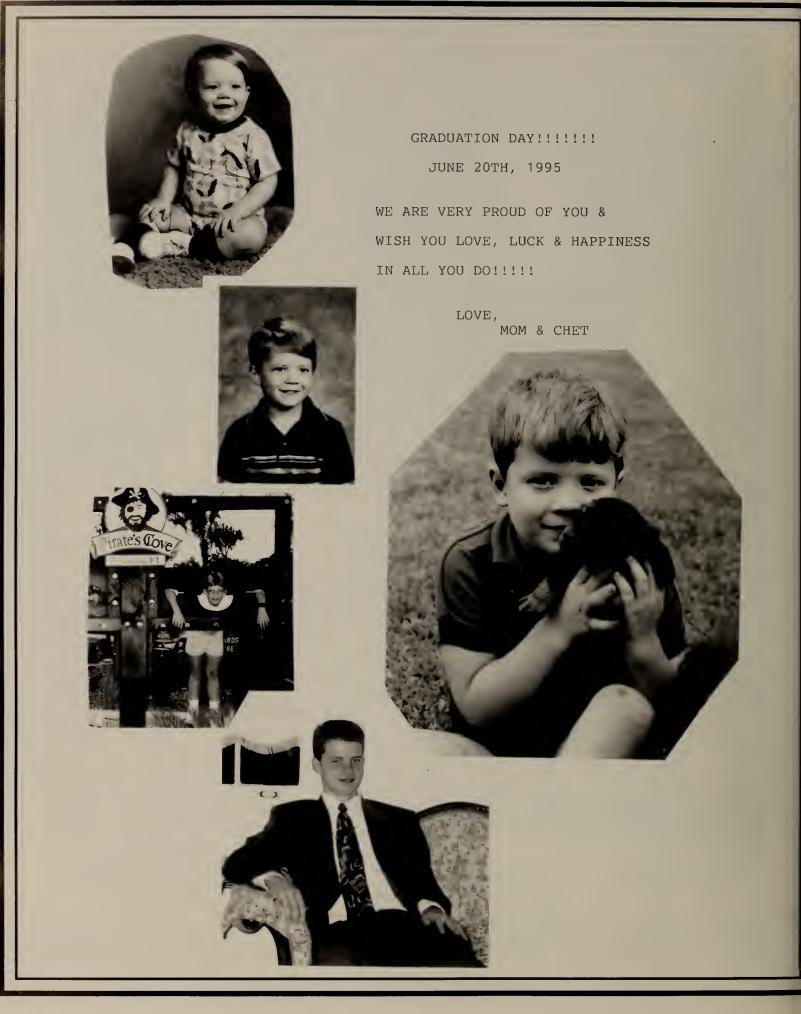

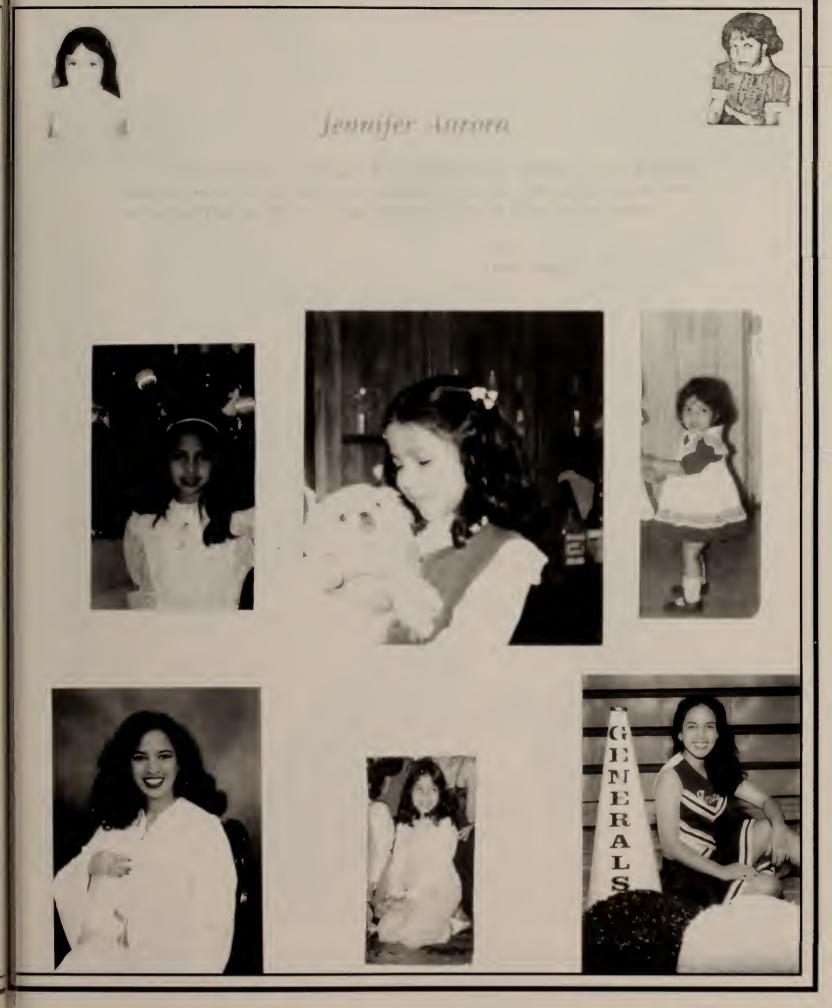

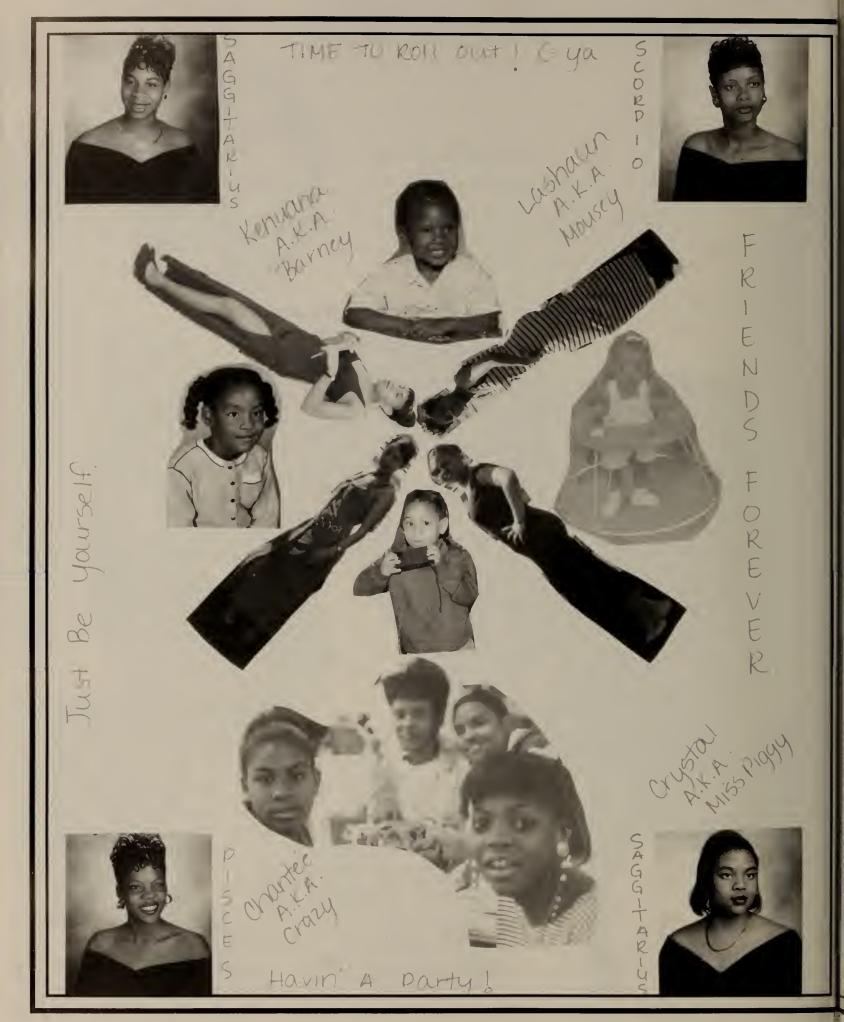

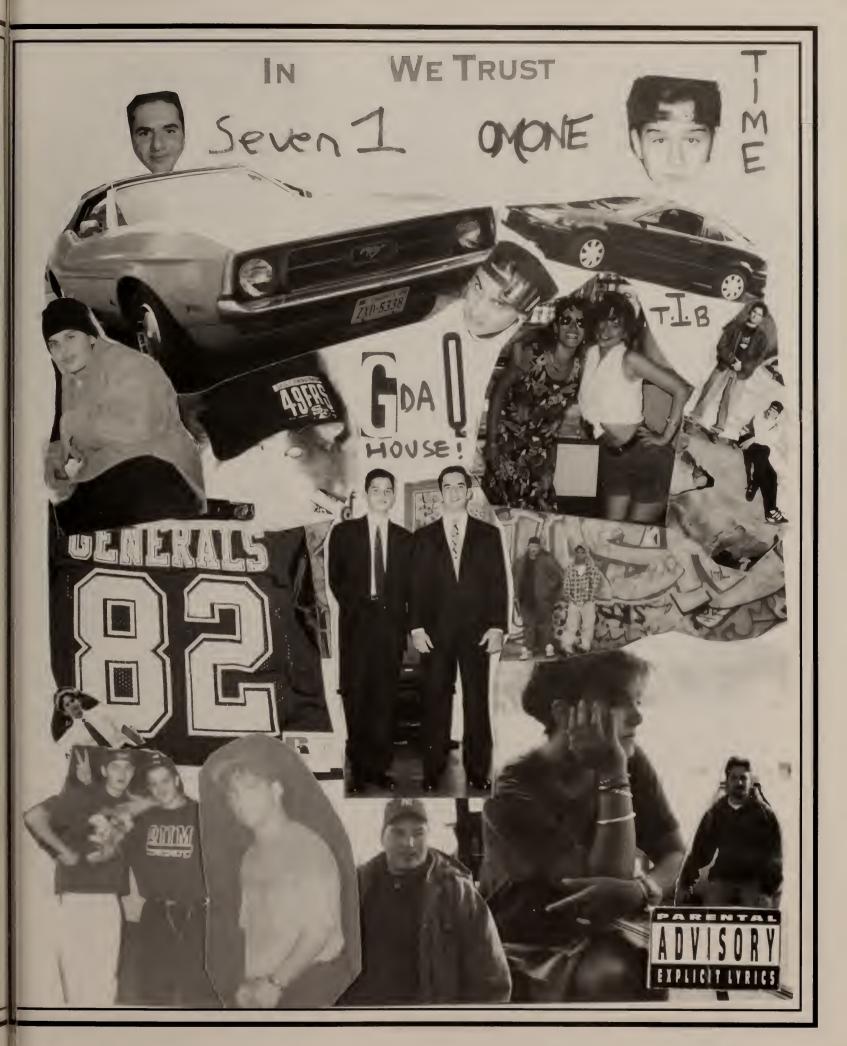

Nacho cheese - Marmosets - Ahh! It's in my shoe! - "Rui. your car's rolling down the hill." -- "I stayed up till 3 am watching the pictures on the wall dance." - NIN concerts Aug. 8. Dec 6. 1994 - Red light, go!" - "Hey everybody I just fainted " - "Josh! Stop staring at me. I'm gonna pass out!" - Never. ever, spin around while behind a restaurant that you thought was empty - Shaved legs in spirals - "You're all going to die." - Courthouse - Sugar Shack -Denny's (1-4 am) - Steak & Egg Kitchen -"There's nothing you can do, you're just screwed " - "Give 'er the boot" - Hydrolics -"Well, we've sucked all the juice we can get outta this one, so we drop Kick it!" - "Free crust!!!" - "Please, you must free me!" -Sardines -- Elmo Gloves - "Taco Burrito" - Hopping in circles on one foot yelling "I love you Lisa!" - "Overnight Outdoor Lab fieldrip" - "We need a girl" Joggersill!" - Petie, the neighborhood cat -Deodorant - "Shotgun!" -Trent Reznor's water bottle - "Mi K e. I don't wanna go to school ... " - Never, drive up to Taco Bell really fast, bring the car to a screeching halt, jump out yelling "SPOR K S." Everyone I run inside, grab all the spork s you can run Know.... back to the car, and take off. We almost got GOES Away arrested. - Tuc Kahoe is equal to jail. - Darnell In the - "I'm a real hippy" - "Umm..... Do you really feel li Ke going to school today?...... No......Let's get outta here then.....

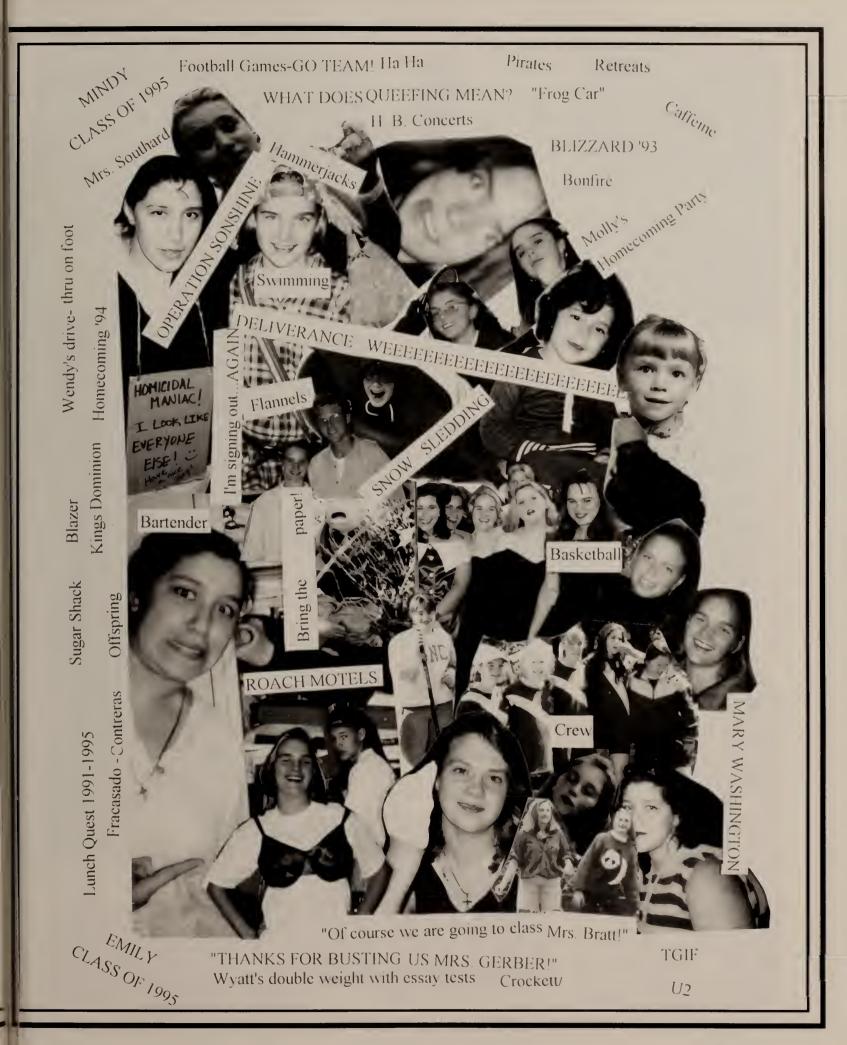

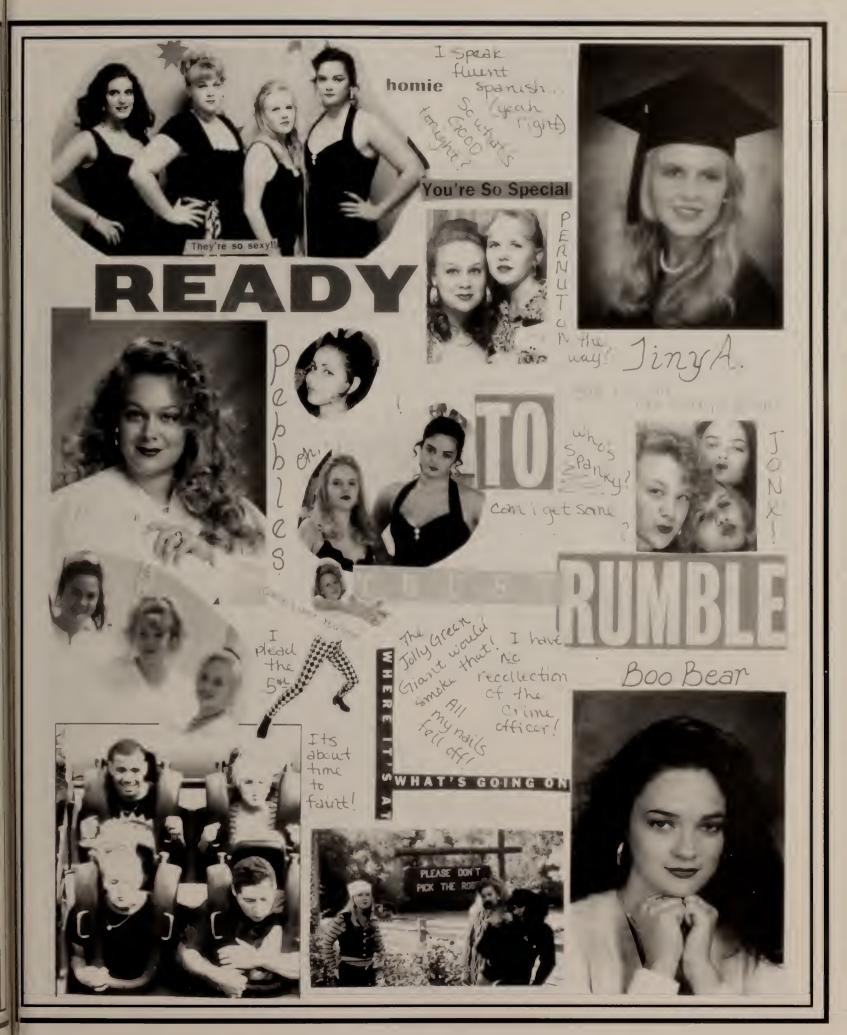

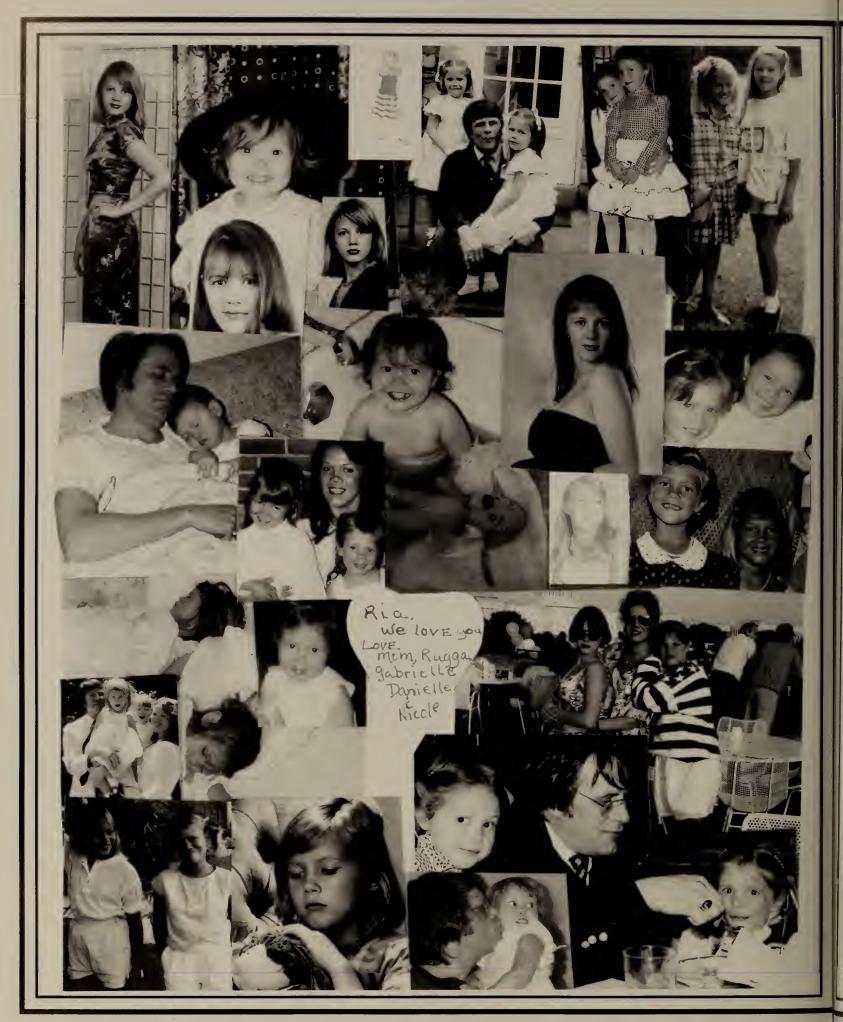

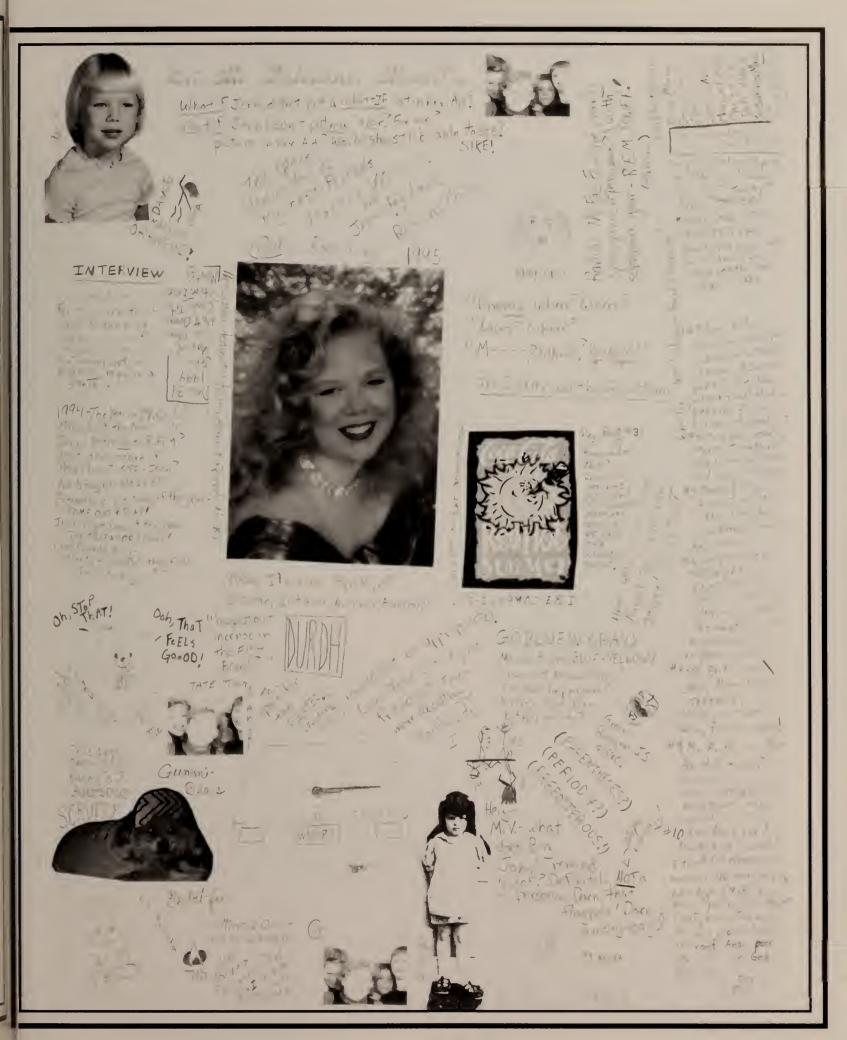

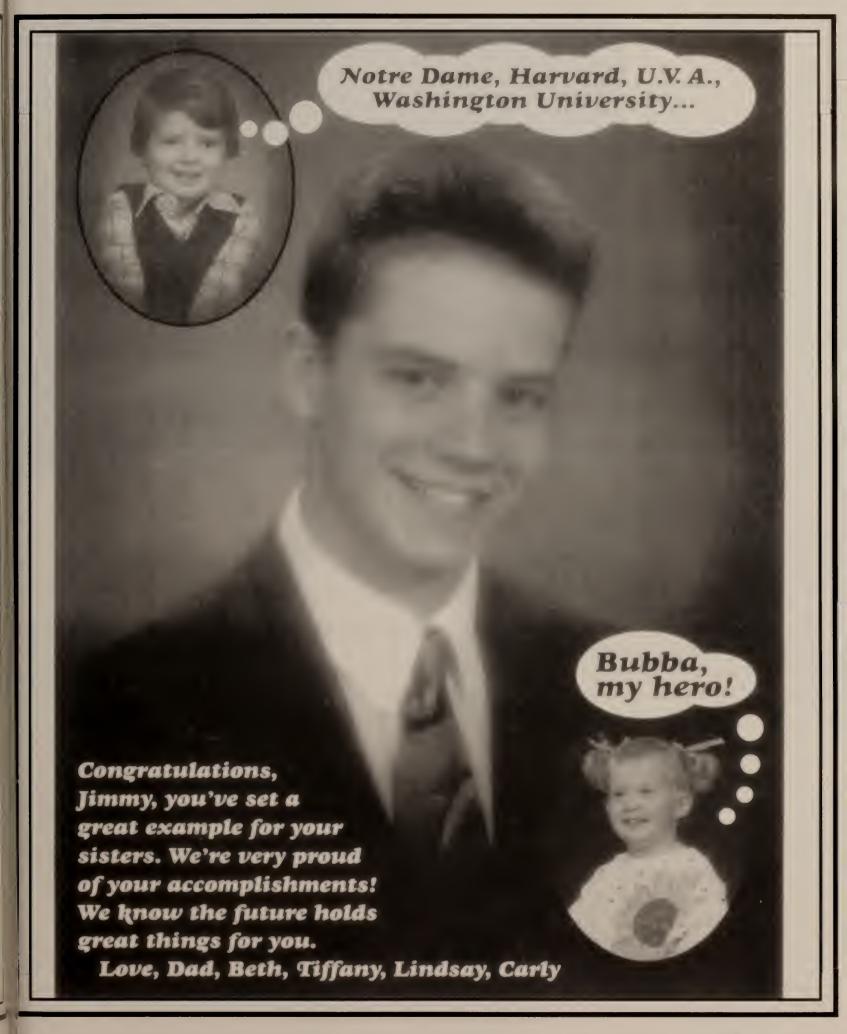

We are so proud of all you have done.

Mom, Dad, and Justin

Champions of the Chase October 14, 1994

Co-Editor-in-Chief Jeff Geiger Co-Editor-in-Chief Matt Wells Business Manager .. Faye Stylianos Student Life Editor .. Aimee Barber Student Life Jessica Eberhart LaShawn Marshall Blair Russell Senior Editor Lillie Jernigan Seniors Claudia Cubillos Dan Walker Juniors Leslie Billings Melanie Guryansky Sophomores Sierra Casillas Eric Klintburg Freshmen Ruza Afram Tony Valdivieso Faculty Fatin Al-Mobarak Mindy Trigger Organizations Editors Ruza Afram Christina Hall Organizations Kathy Rooney Shynette Screen Sports Editor Jimmy Baker Sports Amanda Hildt Josh Craver Yearbook Adviser .. Denise Dawson

The 1995 Blue & Gray yearbook production began over the summer of 1994 when the staff sold ads to students and local businesses. As the school year began selling continued, along with the production of the book itself. The production of the book included taking pictures, writing copy, and collecting money. The theme of the book was "In A World of Our Own" and was incorporated into the copy, in various sections.

This year's cover was designed by Jeff Geiger and Matt Wells, Co-Editors-in-Chief. The cover was four-color lithograph, with a matte lamination. The background of the cover was printed in an angel hair pattern. The type style was set in Garamond type. The book contains 260 pages, 16 of which are color. The mugs and many of the candid shots were taken by Segall-Majestic. The 68th volume of the Blue & Gray yearbook was published by Jostens Publishing Company. This volume sold for $35 each.

Extra special thanks to

- *John Bailey, our Jostens Representative, for making himself available to answer our many questions.
- *Monroe Tarver and Jackki Davis, Our Representatives in North Carolina, for keeping us updated about the status of our account.
- *Mrs. Barbara Morris for frequently assisting us with proofreading at deadline time. The Yearbook staff appreciates your assistance, Mrs. Morris.
- *Ms. Anne Ledyard for assisting us with proofreading at deadline time.
- *Mr. Gary Spicer, Who designed the Washington and Lee kickers.
- *Mrs. Brown for handling all of the money.
- *The English department for taking time out of class for yearbook surveys and reading endless yearbook memos.
- *The staff, especially Jeff Geiger and Matt Wells, for their hard work and dedication to Blue & Gray.

